Endeavor Societies Will Banquet

Lloyd Carrick, field representative of the Christian Endeavor societies in the state of Oregon, arrived in Roseburg this morning and will spend the day here meeting with the two organizations of Roseburg. A banquet will be given in his honor at the Presbyterian church at 6:30 by the endeavor societies of the Presbyterian and Christian churches.

TO THE PUBLIC.

We, the undersigned milk producers of this community, herewith notify the people of Roseburg of the necessity of raising the price on milk effective Sept. 15th.

It stands without further explanation that with the present prices of dairy food and high wages demanded by farm hands, it is impossible to further carry on the every day tire some and grinding business of producing and distributing of milk at the present low figure.
