Brockway Prune Drier Is Burned

The prune drier belonging to G. W. Young and located at Brockway, was totally destroyed by fire which broke out at about ten o'clock last night. Two tons of fruit were on the trays at the time and were lost. The orchard was being operated by Bubur Bros. and Fred Schmidt on shares and the loss will be keenly felt by all. It was only by dint of hard work on the part of employees at the ranch that the fruit which had been previously dried was saved. It was stored in a building near the drier, and the flames at times gained a foothold on the storehouse but were extinguished by the fire fighters who formed a bucket brigade. The drier was valued at approximately $2,000 and was partially covered by insurance. The fruit was also partly insured.

AUTO CARAVAN HERE TOMORROW

Legation Will Meet Tourists
at Oakland and Escort
Them to Roseburg.

BANQUET IN EVENING

Following the Banquet Doors Will Be Thrown Open and Speakers of National Repute Will Explain Highway Plan.

Preparations for the visit of the Park-to-Park auto caravan have been practically completed and the entertainment of the party will be conducted on a large scale. The meeting at 8:30, at which numerous talks by good roads experts will be made, is to be the chief feature of the evening and it is desired that all favoring good roads be present. The caravan is scheduled to arrive in Eugene at 12 o'clock Friday, Oct. 1. After a short stop for lunch the caravan will take up the trip for Roseburg.

At Oakland the caravan will be met by a party of Roseburg citizens headed by Mayor W. S. Hamilton, members of the city council and officers of the Chamber of Commerce and business associations. This party will conduct the caravan into Roseburg probably by way of Garden Valley, taking the tourists thru the fruit sections and pointing out the great resources that Douglas county has in this product.

It is expected that the caravan will reach Roseburg at about 6:30 p. m. The travelers will be given an hour in which to rest and clean up after their trip and will then be given a banquet at the Empqua hotel.

At Portland the members of the caravan stated that they had been treated to satiny on chicken and consequently Ray W. Clark says he is preparing prime roast beef as the chief feature of the meal. A great deal of preparation is being made in the culinary department of the hotel and this banquet will doubtless be one of the best ever served. Mr. Clarke is arranging for a display of Douglas county fruit and vegetables. The tables are being arranged with a small display table in the center and on this he proposes to place some choice fruit and vegetables to show the excellence of some of the Douglas county products. Any choice specimens which can be made available for the purpose will be greatly appreciated by Mr. Clarke who will see that they are properly displayed with the owners card.

Following the banquet which will be over at 8:30, the doors to the hall will be thrown open and a general roads booster meeting will be held. Speakers of national importance will be present and will outline the plan to be followed and the purpose of the park-to-park tour.

This is a great movement which will have a decided effect upon the future of Oregon and all persons interested in good roads and future development should grasp the opportunity to hear the explanation of the nation-wide plan.

GRANDFATHERS PLAY CRICKET

Road Closed While Bridge Is Repaired

The road between Riddle and Myrtle Creek was closed today and will remain closed during the time repairs are in progress on the Pruner bridge. The piers and supports of the bridge have been replaced with heavier material and the workmen are now ready to put in the timbers in the upper part of the structure. Traffic will be diverted over the cut-off route until repairs have been completed. The Pruner bridge was declared unsafe during the spring and a crew has been employed during the summer months in reconstructing it.

Aged Man Passes Away Last Night

J. B. Myers, aged 85, passed away last night after a lingering illness at the home of Mrs. C. A. McKeenolds on Jackson street. He had been ill for the past eight months and had been at the McKeenolds home here for five months. He is survived by two brothers, M. W. Myers, of Orland, Ore., who will arrive tonight, and L. F. Myers who is residing at the Soldiers home in this city. He also has three sisters in the east. The deceased was born in Ohio and has lived in Roseburg and vicinity for many years. Complete arrangements for the funeral have not been made. It will probably be held at the undertaking parlors Saturday with interment in the Masonic cemetery.

SWEDEN TO GO DRY.

PROFITEERS, BEWARE!

VIENNA, Sept. 30.—The Hungarian national assembly has passed a bill providing for corporal punishment for persons convicted of unlawfully raising prices.

AT THE MOVIE THEATRES.

The struggle between mother love, self sacrifice and revenge furnishes the main dramatic scenes in Pauline Frederick's annual Goldwyn picture which will be presented at the Antlers theatre tonight for the first time in Roseburg.

Miss Frederick plays the role of a governess to a little boy who has lost his mother. Her association with him develops all the mother love in her nature, but she decides to leave the employ of his father when the child's relatives make her position unbearable with continual reference to the saintly character of the first wife. She saves the child from death and also makes some startling discoveries concerning the first wife. In the end the relatives are silenced and the second wife comes into her own.

Life in the Latin Quarter of Paris where artists work and play, achieve fame or fall by the wayside, night life of the great metropolis, and then in contrast, the home life of New York's aristocracy. This is the atmosphere of "As a Man Thinks," in which Leah Baird is featured at the Liberty theatre tonight.

Because she could not induce herself to falsely declare her love for wealthy men, society called her a "heart-breaker."
Because she had too much pride to quit the fashionable and expensive life which she was leading and could not afford, society said she did not have a heart.

Because she tried to save her reputation and thoughtlessly walked from her own apartment into that of the wealthy Captain Kenneth Larid, society's scandalous tongues wagged unmercifully.

Because she risked ridicule and determined to pay for the misery she had caused and admired, society said she was "crazy."

Was there ever a girl confronted with such a situation as Katherine Macdonald, as Amelia Thorndike in "The Beauty Market," which will be shown at the Majestic theatre tonight.

LEPROSY BELIEVED TO HAVE BEEN CURED

48 Sufferers of Dreaded Malady Subjected to New Treatment.

PATIENTS ARE RELEASED

Cure Has Been So Complete in A Few Cases That Those Afflicted Have Been Allowed Freedom From Hawaiian Colony.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—Leprosy a scourge of humanity since early history, apparently has been conquered by the officers of the United States Public Health Service in the leper colony at Kahili, Hawaii. Forty-eight sufferers of the dreaded malady, who have been subjected to a new method of treatment, have recovered to such an extent as to warrant their release on parole, and, after a year, not one has shown a symptom or recurrence.

As yet, no announcement of a "cure" has been made officially, for some of the government medical experts are frankly skeptical of the results. It may be years before an official and final opinion is given.

The limit of the official claim is set forth in a joint report to the Public Health Service, made by Dr. J. T. McDonald, director of the leprosy investigation station and superintendent physician to the Kalihii hospital and by president A. L. Dean of the University of Hawaii, as follows:

"It has been sufficiently established that chaulmoogra oil contains one or more agents which exert a marked therapeutic action in many cases of leprosy. We cannot say as yet that the disease is cured, since we have no test adequate to establish such a verdict. Whether or not the apparent cures are real and permanent, it is evident that we have a valuable agent at our disposal in the control of the disease."

Chaulmoogra oil in its crude state is a new drug for the treatment of leprosy, but in its raw state proved so nauseating and painful to patients that it had to be temporarily discontinued. Science turned to its derivatives and Drs. McDonald and Dean report "it was found that the ethyl of the fatty acids were thin fluid oils blending themselves readily into intramuscular injections and were readily absorbed."

Injection of the oil derivative by syringe is a new hope for the leper for at the Kalihii hospital "injection day" is described by the doctor's report as an occasion for merry making, although of painful experience for the sufferers.

"The standard treatment," one report says, "now consists of weekly injections of a preparation which consists of the mixed ethyl crystals of the acids of chaulmoogra oil with two percent of iodine in chemical combination. The amount used at the start is usually one cubic centimeter and is gradually increased to a maximum of four or five cubic centimeters for adults.

Necessary treatment of iodine liniment, ointments and sun baths are employed as measures to improve the general health and mental attitude of the patients.

Drs. McDonald and Dean are of the opinion that leprosy of the nerve type as well as of the nodular type should receive the new treatment. They report astonishing results with the nerve cases.

"We believe our remedies arrest the disease," they said regarding the nerve cases, "and prevent further destruction of hands and fingers, even when as in long standing cases, normal function cannot be fully restored.

"During the past year we have done better than simply arrest the destructive process; we have had the great satisfaction of seeing marked improvement in a number of these purely neural cases, and apparently a complete recovery in others. One young man who came in with a decidedly ataxic gait, unable to raise his body on his toes and with one hand so weak and deformed that he had been compelled to abandon the use of the typewriter a year before entering, so far improved before his parole that his disability in walking had not only disappeared but he became one of the leading tennis players and one of the swiftest runners in the compound.

"A woman with all fingers absorbed to less than half their original length, after a year's treatment, became able to write, to sew, to knit, and to execute many movements and functions of which she had been for years deprived.

Regarding the virulent forms of leprosy, the doctors report that in many cases the lesions disappear, except for scars and permanent injuries and the leprosy bacillus can no longer be demonstrated.

In the continental United States, there are 200 known sufferers of the dread disease, but the Public Health officials believe that ten times that number exist, known only to the family doctor. The Louisiana state

DIRIGIBLE IS WRECKED

(By Associated Press.)
LOS ANGELES, Sept. 30.—The Navy dirigible, C-6, became lost in a dense fog while proceeding to San Diego from San Pedro, & to take part in maneuvers, and crashed into a mountain peak on the outskirts of Hollywood, spilling the car and five men two hundred feet down Laurel canyon. Four were hurt.

MANY WOMEN BE PERMITTED TO VOTE

Those Married to Aliens Will Not Be Allowed to Cast Their Ballot.

ESTIMATE OF VOTES

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—Figures compiled by the census bureau and other government departments indicate that the number of women in the United States over 21 years of age is 28,035,000, of whom approximately 26,500,000 are eligible to vote in the November election. This estimate makes a liberal allowance for alien women, American women married to aliens and others ineligible from other reasons.

Exact figures are not available on the number of women over 21 who are barred from voting for various reasons. Census bureau officials believe, however, that this year at least 1,000,000 of the 5,250,000 foreign born women in the United States will not have yet become naturalized. In addition there were in 1910, according to the census, about 60,000 Indian women, most of whom were living on reservations, 8,697 Chinese and Japanese women ineligible to vote, a comparatively small number of American women who were married to aliens and barred from voting for that reason, and a large number deprived of the ballot under state statutes in harmony with constitutional provisions. The total of these ineligible was estimated at about 1,500,000.

American women married to aliens are not eligible to vote, the Department of Justice held, but foreign born women married to American citizens or whose fathers have become naturalized are entitled to the ballot without naturalization proceedings.

The number of eligible male voters in the United States this year has not been determined. Based on an estimated population of 105,000,000, however, the census bureau figured that there are now 34,807,000 men in the United States over 21 years of age, of whom probably 31,500,000 would be entitled to vote in November.

Change Made In Dairy Business

Mr. Roy W. Seigrist, who has been associated with Tom Hatfield in the dairy business for the past year, has taken over the entire business and will continue under the name of the Sanitary Dairy. Mr. Seigrist will remove the property of the dairy plant to the farm of Mr. Rosenburg, near the fair grounds, which is much nearer to Roseburg than the old location and will enable him to give better service. The dairy business of Douglas county is increasing rapidly and there is a rumor that a cheese factory may be installed within a short time. Better live stock is constantly being acquired by the ranchers of this vicinity and the dairy business has grown rapidly within the past few years. Mr. Seigrist is a hustler and knows the dairy game thoroughly.

MARRIED ON SUNDAY.

On Sunday morning at 8 o'clock, Edward J. Wach and Ivy L. Chapman were united in marriage by Rev. J. H. Dickson at the Baptist parsonage. The bride was attended by Miss Maureen Moriarty, and the groom by D. L. Chapman, a brother of the bride. The newlyweds left on 54 on Sunday evening for Portland and Salem, where they will take in the fair, expecting to return the last of the week, and will make their home in Roseburg. Mr. Wach is one of Roseburg's leading plumbers. A host of friends wish them prosperity.

COMPLAINTS ARE MADE.

County Judge Stewart has received several complaints recently regarding some person who has been dumping rubbish and decayed fruit on the Looking Glass road about a quarter of a mile west of the Fullerton school. An investigation was started by the county official at once and it is stated that the guilty party will be prosecuted. It should be the duty of everyone to see that the county highways are kept clear from rubbish and Judge Stewart is determined to see such a rule enforced.

FORMING BASKET BALL TEAMS

At least two and possibly three basket ball teams are being organized by the Boy Scouts of this city, and a game with the freshman team of the local high school will be played in the near future. A heavyweight team and a lightweight team will be organized tomorrow, and a midget team will probably be formed next week after preliminary try outs.

SEVERAL LARGE HIGHWAY TRUCKS

Several large highway trucks passed through the city this afternoon enroute south where they will be engaged in the highway construction work which is being rushed to early completion.

Mr. and Mrs. James Nelson, who reside in Kansas City, arrived in Roseburg last night, and left this morning for Grants Pass where they will make an extended visit with relatives.
