

Sacrifice Sale

Will Continue All Next Week

"Dear Ed: I guess I am learning to Fisherize, but don't you know, I am liking that sacrifice and that store more every day. I just told the neighbors that if they would Fisherize I know they would economize a lot. I've saved enough on their flannel night gowns today to buy 'Little William' a pair of shoes. And I am going to get BUSTER BROWNS."

"DORA."

So satisfactory has the sacrifice proven during the opening days this week that the store will allow the same 15%, 20% and 25% reductions on the entire stock of Dry Goods, Shoes, Coats, Suits and Dresses, Hose, Cor sets, Silks, Underwear and Blankets, and on every article and yard of goods in this store.

Where can you pay less?

This means OUT OF TOWN people will have the same opportunity to buy STANDARD GOODS AT SACRIFICE. Sale on ALL NEXT WEEK.

We will have gingham all next week at 27 CENTS.

PERSECUTION OF JEWS CONTINUES

Hebrews in Poland and Hungary Are Victims of Bloodshed and Cruelty.

ASSAULTS INCREASING

Morris Rothenberg, Chairman of Executive Committee of American Jewish Congress, Makes Statement of Conditions.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Continued persecution of Jews, with bloodshed and cruelty, in Poland and Hungary is reported by Morris Rothenberg, chairman of the executive committee of the Provisional American Jewish Congress, who returned here recently from the Jewish World Relief conference at Carlsbad. Mr. Rothenberg declares that attacks on Jews in Poland have ceased at no time since the armistice. He says that while anti-Semitic excesses in Poland were mitigated by the protest meetings held in America, "assaults upon persons and property in a smaller degree continued throughout Poland."

"Gradually these assaults assumed larger proportions," said Mr. Rothenberg, "until within the last few months Jews have found it unsafe to walk in the streets. Conditions came to such a state that the Jewish deputies in the Polish parliament appealed to the minister of war and Minister President Witos, who promised that they would take steps to stop these outrages, but nothing was done."

Mr. Rothenberg said that during the advance of the soviet armies on Warsaw the Jews readily enlisted in the Polish armies, but that they were attacked and persecuted by the Poles and were given the "most filthy and menial work to perform." The Jews complained to the military authorities, but the persecution was not mitigated, he charged.

"Immediately after the first victories all Jewish soldiers were driven from the various fronts," Mr. Rothenberg asserted, "their ammunition was taken away, their uniforms removed, and they were put under guard as though they were offenders. The Polish soldiers began to regard the Jewish soldiers as criminals. Every time the Poles took a city they killed Jews who came their way, and numbers of old Jews were shot without trial. The officers in charge afterward said that they killed bolsheviks. This was a lie. In order to cover these outrages the minister of war issued an announcement that a large number of armed Jewish bolsheviks were found in many cities. This information was fed only to the Poles and was not mentioned in the dispatches for the outside world because it was apparent that these statements could not be substantiated."

Mr. Rothenberg charges that the minister of war and Minister President Witos refused to see Jewish delegations who called upon them to complain about anti-Semitic outrages. "The spirit of the Jews in Poland is being utterly crushed by these terrible events and they feel that they cannot much longer bear up unless these terrible excesses are stopped," he added.

According to Mr. Rothenberg, 200 Jews have been murdered in Hungary from December, 1918, to June, 1929, and he charges that the officers and soldiers of the White Army are the chief fomenters of anti-Semitism. He said that the "young nationalists" declared that they were willing to stop the pogroms provided laws were enacted that would destroy the Jews economically.

"This is now being done," said Mr. Rothenberg. "Laws have been passed punishing profiteering by flogging. But the producers are not affected by this law, it is only the middlemen, which means the Jews, whom who are found guilty are flogged and put in concentration camps and exiled."

Outing of Jewish civil service employees in Hungary is also reported by Mr. Rothenberg. "Laws are also being passed specifically directed against the Jews without mentioning them," he said, "as for instance licenses of all persons engaged in commercial or industrial pursuits are revoked and application must be made

RESPONDS TO CALL

In response to the call for help sent out in the case of Mrs. Davidson, a prominent citizen of Kiddle writes the following letter to C. S. Heinlme, secretary of the local chapter of the Red Cross: "I enclose herewith my check for $5 which I wish used for the assistance of Mrs. Davidson, who is in distress in your city and concerning whom the Roseburg News-Review writes a very nice and appealing for help in relieving this sad individual case of distress. I note from time to time your paper takes up in such a splendid way such cases of distress without regard for space on the front page, and this I feel is worthy of high compliment."

DETROIT WINS

(By Associated Press.)
DETROIT, Oct. 1.—Cleveland 4, Detroit 5, was the score in the opening game of the four game series.

for new licenses which may be issued at the discretion of the department in charge. Such licenses are not being granted to Jews, thus utterly preventing them from pursuing their former occupations. A law was passed that only those belonging to military formations could be admitted to universities. As Jews are not allowed to belong to these formations, Jewish students are unable to get into the universities. Many of them have been compelled to go to neighboring countries in order to pursue their studies and are experiencing terrible want and suffering."

Caravan Leaves Eugene on Time

Traveling promptly on schedule, the park-to-park auto caravan which is to stop in this city tonight, left Eugene promptly at 1 o'clock, following a hurried luncheon at that place. The caravan will be met at Sutherland by a delegation of Roseburg business men led by Mayor W. S. Hamilton, and the detour road to Garden Valley will be followed into the city. The caravan will very probably reach this city at 6 o'clock and the banquet will be served promptly at 7:30. At 8:30 the good roads meeting will be held at the Umpqua hotel and there will doubtless be a large number of local enthusiasts in attendance. The speakers who are to make talks are nationally known and their outline of the park to park highway plan will be very interesting. The caravan is composed of ten cars containing 25 people. Manager Weaver states that he will be able to accommodate four or five more persons at the banquet and any person wishing to be present at that event may make arrangements with either Irvin Bruner or Mr. Weaver before 6 o'clock.
