Noted Psychic to Appear at Liberty

Charles Clifford, the seer, who has returned to this city and taken up headquarters at the Grand Hotel, will appear at the Liberty theater tomorrow evening. At this time he will give a town prophecy, telling in general outline the progress that will come to Roseburg in the next five years. Mr. Clifford, who is a well known psychic, is specializing on these prophecies, and is said to have met with wonderful success in several places. He will tell whether Roseburg will meet with fire, disaster, storms, failures, earthquakes and calamities in the next five years. He will also tell of coming changes in city government or the death of prominent men. Mr. Clifford will also answer any questions that anyone of the audience wishes to ask. He will appear at both evening performances.
