Official Republican Statement

By Douglas County Republican Central Committee.

Cox Wiggles and Wobbles.

BY SCOTT C. BONE.

Candidate Cox, recklessly charging that the Republican party had set out to corrupt the electorate by raising a fund of $15,000,000 with which to "buy the presidency," has been utterly confuted by the facts. Instead, it has been completely established that the goal fixed by Chairman Hays was only one-fifth that amount, or $3,000,000, with contributions rigidly limited to $1,000, and that never before has a campaign fund been so free from the taint of corporate, sinister or sordid influences. That an overtaxed, overburdened and weary country, paying the cost of incompetence, incapacity and extravagance in governmental affairs and maladministration at Washington, would welcome relief at any price legitimately expended may be taken for granted. But only in the wild dreams of Candidate Cox—who stands committed to Wilsonism and the wastefulness of Wilsonism, with everything that Wilsonism typifies and implies—has any such expenditure as Candidate Cox charged ever been remotely conceived or for a moment contemplated. Even his foremost newspaper champions—organs of the international banking crowd which favor his candidacy because, with equal rashness, he promises that if elected he will go into the Wilson League of Nations—editorially admit that his stush fund charges have proven groundless. Candidate Cox's credibility as a witness has similarly been damaged by the wet and dry issue confronting him. To the indisputable proof that the New Jersey Liquor Dealers' Association is appealing for funds to elect him as a "pronounced wet" he replies that the liquor interests of Ohio never contributed to any of his campaigns. Yet a sworn statement, signed by the secretary of the Ohio Liquor Dealers' Association and on file in the secretary of state's office, shows that that organization contributed a substantial sum out of its treasury to the Cox campaign of 1918. And in the face of it all, having withstood for months, in silence, William Jennings Bryan's denunciation of him as a "wet" and unfit to run for president, Candidate Cox, with characteristic audacity, now assures a North Dakota crowd that "I have always voted dry!" Imagine Boss Murphy, Boss Taggart, Boss Brennan and that Youngstown Apostle of Light and Uplift, Ed Moore, contriving the nomination at San Francisco of a candidate who had "always voted dry!" Imagine it, if you can! Shade of John Barleycorn! What a spectacle is presented in American politics!

LIFE WAS A MISERY TO HER

Says this Woman Until Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Carrollton, Ky.—I suffered almost two years with female weakness. I could not walk any distance, r i d e or take any exercise at all without resting. If I swept the floor or did any kind of work it would bring my sickness on. I was weak and languid, had no energy, and life was a misery to me. I was under the care of a good physician for several months and tried other remedies. I had read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it. I bought twelve bottles. I found myself much improved and I took six more. I have never had any more trouble in that respect since. I have done all kinds of work and at present am an attendant at a State Hospital and am feeling fine. I have recommended your Vegetable Compound to all my friends and shall always recommend it.—LIZZIE THOMP, 824 S. 4th St., Carrollton, Ky.

If you have any symptoms about which you would like to know write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for helpful advice given free of charge.

103 YEARS YOUNG; HE'S FOR HARDING

"If I should live to be another 100 years old I certainly would never vote for a member of the Democratic party for President or any other national office."
So declares "Grandpa" Albert Vogel, 103 years young, of Jeannette, Pa., who cast his first vote in a presidential election for Polk, voted for Abraham Lincoln and has voted the Republican ticket ever since. Next month he will vote for Harding and Coolidge.
"Tell the country I am for Harding and Coolidge and America first," says Mr. Vogel. "I want no Wilson League of Nations, President Wilson's autocracy and the wastefulness of those he gathered about him as his official family to be expected. It has been a Democratic trait for years."

"Grandpa" Vogel takes a daily constitutional over streets near his home in Jeannette. Occasionally he preaches a sermon from one of the Western Pennsylvania churches with old time vigor. He started life as an assistant lamp lighter in the Capitol grounds at Washington when he was fifteen years old. He often ran errands for members of Congress and can vividly recall the eloquence of Henry Clay and Daniel Webster and other famous statesmen of that period. He saw Andrew Jackson inaugurated in 1822. Later he became a Methodist minister.

EDITORS PAY VISIT TO MARION STAR AND FIND A REAL PAPER.

"If President Harding is as big a success as Editor Harding he will go down in history in the Hall of Fame," writes J. Gabbert of Riverside, Cal., in an article just published on his return from Marion, where he visited Harding's paper.
"We found just the sort of a paper a future President might be expected to edit," says Mr. Gabbert, "and the visit, to us came nearer to being an editorial conference than a political crusade."
"We found men working for Editor Harding, who had been with him for periods varying from 20 to 38 years. We found that Editor Harding follows the closely every detail incident to the publication of his paper. He knows what pay the helpers on the floor get just as he knows the amount he pays his manager. He can handle type like the rest of us, and it would keep my foreman busy to beat him on setting up a stick of 8-point type. He knows how to make up a paper like a veteran and he is just as much at home in the business office looking over the advertising accounts."

KEPT OUT OF WAR, NOW SERVES COX

Publisher's Son Escaped Military Service Through Democratic Nominee's Influence.

Young, able-bodied, rich, a strapping big fellow, who possessed all the physical equipment of an American soldier, save, evidently, heart, Robert P. Scripps was kept out of the war through Administration influences. He was exempted.

The local draft board of Butler County, O., rejected his plea and held that there was no valid claim for his exemption and that he should surely don a uniform and shoulder arms, but Secretary of War Baker's law partner, Tom Siddie, was employed to save the youthful slacker. Governor Cox took a hand in the case, and finally, by White House decree, he went scot free. His multi-millionaire father, E. W. Scripps, controlling owner of the Scripps League of Newspapers and the Newspaper Enterprise Association, a powerful combination, threatened to overthrow the Administration rather than permit either of his sons to answer the call of Uncle Sam.

Administration Exempts Slacker.

Having helped to re-elect Woodrow Wilson President on the issue, "He kept us out of war," the elder Scripps demanded that his sons be kept out of war. And the Administration kept them out.

Young Robert Scripps, who had never done any real newspaper work, was given the title of Assistant to the Publisher of the Scripps League of Newspapers to create an excuse for his exemption. Finally he was ordered home from Camp Sherman by Governor Cox, after he had been in uniform for ten days.

All these facts and more of an equally astounding and discreditable character were brought out by the Kenyon Senatorial Committee, which subpoenaed young Scripps to Washington to explain his activities in the present campaign.

Now Supporting Cox.

He is today editor in chief of the Scripps League of Newspapers and the Newspaper Enterprise Association and is putting out daily plank propaganda sheets of a lurid and sensational character in support of the candidacy of Governor Cox.
Samples of these sheets were submitted to the committee, and Senator Reed, Democrat, frankly denounced the propaganda as "rot" and manifested extreme impatience and disgust with the young man's loose talk about a "Senate oligarchy" and criticism of the Supreme Court.
Young Scripps, although he did not fight for his country in 1917-18, insisted that he was doing it all through love of country and in the "public interest," without any pay from the Democratic committee or thought of obligation for keeping him out of war.

The draft-dodging aspects of the case, as brought out at Washington, are not unlike those of young Bergdoll of Philadelphia, which resulted in a Federal prosecution for conspiracy to evade the draft.
Fifth Counsel Roosevelt devoted his speech at Providence, R. I., to a defense of eight years of Democratic administration. Six weeks is a very short time for doing much along that line.

The Cox slogan seems to be "Misrepresentation Without Relaxation."
