Appeal Klamath Court House Case

SALEM, Oct. 15.—Motion to remand to the circuit court the Klamath county courthouse case in which the J. M. Dougan company seeks to compel Klamath county to accept the courthouse erected by them and to pay the contract price with interest, was argued before the supreme court at Salem Monday by C. F. Stone of Klamath Falls and John R. Latour-ette and A. E. Reames and Harrison Allen of Portland.

Revue of Revues New and Different

The "something new and different" which was promised for the 1926 Revue of Revues, at the Antlers last night was fully realized, for the show was new from start to finish, and with plenty of pretty girls, catchy songs, musical numbers and new comedy.

New Apostles of Americanism!

These are the teachers. And the school teachers of Douglas County are just that! Coming from many parts of the country to teach in this county, and having obtained this year a more nearly just compensation, there is evident on the part of all teachers a worthy motive to dress according to the standards of the very highest of professions.

PORTLANDER REPORTS FORTY POUNDS GAINED

E. O. Bernhardt Was Badly Run Down in Health, When He Began Taking Tanlac.

"I had rheumatism so bad when I began taking Tanlac that I could not get out of bed alone and would have to have someone help me put on my clothes," said E. O. Bernhardt, a popular mechanic employed by the Portland Pulley Co., who lives at 428 East Forty-sixth St., Portland, Oregon.

sleep. I had been in this condition for several months—so bad that I could not get about. I lost my appetite, at times I even hated the weight of food, and I lost forty pounds in weight. I tried every medicine and treatment I know of and even went to Hot Springs, but nothing did me any good and I kept getting worse all the time.

Portland Men Go On Excursion

PORTLAND, Oct. 15.—One hundred representatives of the Portland business men will leave here Sunday, October 17, for a trade excursion into eastern Oregon, planned by the Portland Chamber of Commerce. The itinerary as announced, includes 24 of the principal cities east of the cascades.

spected. The jaunt will occupy six days and the caravan is due to return to Portland Sunday, October 24th. Social Dance at Winchester Saturday night, Oct. 16. PUTTING IN STORM DOORS. Preparing for the winter months the Globe Theatre company is busy installing storm doors at the majestic theatre. A lobby, similar to that of the Antlers, but having glass panels is being built and storm doors will be installed to prevent drafts from reaching the mar part of the building.

Urge That Crossings Made Safe

SALEM, Or., Oct. 14.—Fred G. Buchtel, chairman of the public service commission, has sent a letter to all the county courts of the state suggesting that they give special attention to public safety at grade crossings, and where the railroads are at fault, to advise the commission so the carriers may be requested to make good the defects.

TAKES EXTENDED TRIP

Charles L. Gilvin, a well known resident of this city left this afternoon for Knoxville, Tennessee, where he expects to spend the remainder of the winter visiting with relatives. He will be joined at El Paso by his brother, H. E. Gilvin, who will make the trip with him. Mr. Gilvin was born in Knoxville but has not been back to his old home for thirty years.
