LIBERTY THEATER ANNOUNCES THREE BIG SPECIAL ATTRACTIONS FOR THIS WEEK.

"The Great Redeemer," a Maurice Tourneur master production, starring House Peters and Marjorie Daw, will be shown on Wednesday and Thursday. This picture is one of the big sensations of the year and is receiving wonderful comment throughout the entire country.

On Friday and Saturday a Maxwell Karger production called "Clothes," with an all-star cast including Olive Tell and Cranford Kent. The story is taken from the sensational stage success by Avery Hopwood and Channing Pollock and is a brilliant drama that thrilled New York for years. A feature of this production is the lavish fashion display which is said to out rival anything that has ever been screened. In conjunction with this picture there will be shown a "Buster Keaton" two-reel comedy entitled "One Week," something different in the comedy line and guaranteed to keep our patrons in an uproar from start to finish.

On Sunday and Monday we have the smashing picturization of the great Drury Lane story, "The Hope." The story is built around the running of the great English Derby, is intensely interesting, carrying the audience through a succession of thrills leading up to the grand climax, the running of the derby. This feature, as well as the others, will be talked about for some time to come.

Carrying out our policy as announced in last week's issue of the News-Review, these three big smashing new features will be shown at regular prices. Positively no advance.

Born, to the wife of W. H. Long, at Cleveland, Monday, Oct. 25, a son.
