

But a good wheeze- I'll leave it to you

I LOVE the ladies.
BUT LIKE most men.
I OFTEN guess wrong.
ON WHAT will win.
A SMILE from them.
I ALWAYS say.
IT'S BETTER to laugh.
THAN EVER to worry.
SO ONCE, when.
THE DAM broke, and,
A FLOOD hit town.
I THOUGHT I'd just.
CHEER UP my wife.
AND SO I said.
"IF THE worst comes,
YOU CAN float down.
THE RIVER on.
THE FAMILY music-box.
AND I'LL accompany you.

ON THE piano."
WHICH WAS all wrong.
POOR HUMOR, she said.
WAS OUT of place.
IN TIME of danger.
SO KIPLING was right.
"A WOMAN is only.
A WOMAN, but a good cigar.
IS A smoke," only.
HE SHOULD have made it.
MY CIGARETTES because.
YOU'RE BOUND to get.
A SMILE from them.
THEY ALWAYS "satisfy."

TAKE the silky, tender leaves of choicest Turkish; blend them with the best Domestic tobacco that money can buy—blend them in the exclusive, can-be-copied, Chesterfield way—and you get a "smoke." Yes, and something more—you get a cigarette that honestly "satisfies."

WARREN G. HARDING

rising tide of republican victory. A man who goes about the country seeking the defeat of a well tried candidate for office, simply because he was defeated in a law suit, does not carry much water. In choosing officers who are to serve them the people prefer to look at the character and political principles of the man. They care nothing for the fact that some disgruntled citizen may have a personal grievance.

Harding and Coolidge will sweep the country, carrying every northern and western state, with the possible exception of four. There is a possibility that the republicans will carry Missouri, Kentucky and Maryland, and they are now practically assured of 379 electoral votes.

But notwithstanding this sweeping victory of the republican candidates for president and vice-president, it will be only half a victory, or less than half a victory, if the republicans lose the control of the senate. One vote might turn the scale. Therefore no republican ought to vote for Chamberlain for the United States senate. A vote for him means a vote against the republican organization of the senate and against the welfare of the nation. To continue the deadlock between the president and the senate would be the most serious mistake that the country could make. Therefore we hear of republicans on every hand who may have supported Mr. Chamberlain in past years and who are now voting the republican ticket straight. It is no time to take any chances.

The clean and energetic campaign being made by the local republican candidates is bearing splendid fruits. From every side comes news of a great lining up of the voters for the whole republican ticket. The few disgruntled citizens who are making personal attacks upon republican candidates are really assisting in their election, because the people resent those attacks.

The desperate straits of a few political spouters is shown by the capital which they try to make of every little note of discord. Their voices, however, are drowned by the Notwithstanding the foolish yarns which have been in circulation against Sam Starnes, the republican candidate for sheriff, as to what he would do in discharging the duties of his office, Sam is gaining in popularity and votes every day. He is a clean man, an ex-soldier with a fine record, and his majority will be overwhelming.

Ira B. Riddle, republican candidate for county clerk, is not only a thoroughly qualified man, but he has shown that he knows how to conduct an energetic, clean and successful campaign. Like the rest of the republican candidates, he is on the way to victory.

The solid business ability and experience of Judge Starnes is telling strongly in his favor in his candidacy for county commissioner. Everywhere his campaign is meeting with a flattering reception and he is destined to sit on the county court of this county.

Floyd Frear, county roadmaster, and candidate for re-election as county surveyor, is so well known and has so many friends throughout the county that no one doubts his election by a large majority.

A. E. Shiria and Arthur H. Marsh, republican candidates for the house of representatives, will win in a walk.

The democratic party has made many failures in past years, but never has it made so colossal a failure as in the conduct of the war and in the reconstruction period following the war. On every hand the story is one of extravagance, incompetency, graft and waste. The demand for a change has become so great that the people are as impatient for election day to arrive as a spirited horse champing at the bit. They can hardly wait for the time to come to swat Wilsonism, internationalism and incompetency.

The Wilson league of nations is dead. After the election of Senator Harding, the best minds of the country will be called together and a league will be formed which will respect the American constitution and at the same time make for world peace. It is for this reason that Senator Harding has the support of Root, Taft, Hughes, Hoover and many other brilliant and leading statesmen who are the sincere champions of such a league.

AROUND THE TOWN

Leave on Business—Mrs. Ora Russell, chief operator at the local telephone exchange, left this morning for Eugene on company business.

Visited Son—Mrs. W. C. Burch, of Portland, who has been visiting her son, E. R. Burch, and with Mrs. C. A. Lockwood, left for her home this morning.

Returns to Portland—Mrs. J. P. Dryden and daughter and Mrs. A. Buckingham, who have been spending a few days in Roseburg, left this morning for Corvallis, where they will visit for a short time on their way to Portland.

To Attend Games—Misses Iris Rorie and Fern Feymers left this morning for Corvallis to visit for a short time with Miss Zonnie McDonald and to attend the football game between O. A. C. and the University of Oregon tomorrow.

To the Voters of Oregon!

The taxpayers of Portland and Multnomah County are not only willing but anxious to provide the Port of Portland with needed funds for dredging our River Channel to the sea. The Committee that formulated what is known as the Port of Portland and Dock Commission Consolidation Bill under the numbers 310 and 311 on the ballot insisted, however, upon weighting down the measure with an enormously expensive real estate scheme, and by a formal vote turned down the request of taxpayers that the Swan Island scheme and the River Channel scheme be presented as separate measures. Refusing to be forced to swallow something they cannot approve, Multnomah County is expected to vote adversely to the whole scheme by an overwhelming majority. Having done this, they will then be ready to vote for any needed amount for improving our River Channels. A Committee of the City Club has submitted a detailed analysis of the measure showing that it means an ultimate expenditure of at least $10,000,000.

Our Chamber of Commerce and other civic bodies with all of our river pilots and steamboat owners and others have protested against it. At least twelve former and present members of the Port of Portland and the Dock Commission have declared against it. A majority, if not all, of our City Commissioners oppose it. The Committee of 15 itself that drafted the measure is divided.

The Taxpayers of Portland Appeal to You

In a spirit of fair play to save this county from the imposition upon us of such an overwhelming and paralyzing debt as this measure contemplates. It would be deemed offensive if we gave expression to what we believe to be the selfish and ambitious political motives that have inspired the measure which is submitted with a distinctively deceptive title.

We simply appeal for fair play and a decent consideration of the hopeless plight in which this community will find itself if the measure carries. As citizens of outlying counties who will not have to pay a dollar of the debt imposed, we appeal to you to consider what would be your feelings if Multnomah County should try to impose a similar burden on you. Our interests in a general way are mutual.

It is our sincere judgment that the success of this measure will seriously retard, instead of promoting, the development of this port and that the state at large will in return suffer severely as a consequence.

Fordson Farm Tractor

The Fordson cuts the cost of preparing land almost to half of what it costs with horses. But even more important is the fact that the Fordson saves from thirty to fifty percent of the farmer's time. And time saved—getting fields in shape to plant in the proper season; getting things done when they should be done—means money to the farmer. Besides it helps greatly in solving the labor problem.

As ever, the machine way is proving more efficient, faster, easier than the old hand way. In the factory, the machine increases production, saves labor—produces more at less cost. And that is what the Fordson does on the farm. The Fordson way is the machine way of farming. Besides it helps the labor problem.

The Fordson's first cost is low, and the after or operating cost is low. It is a compact, easily handled tractor, backed by the greatest tractor service organization in the world.

We are Fordson dealers. Not only do we sell Fordson tractors, but we carry a stock of Fordson parts and employ Fordson mechanics to help the farmers get the best results from the Fordson. Let us demonstrate the Fordson on your own farm.

Movie Closeups

A favorite of two generations as a novel, "Told in the Hills," has at last been adapted to the screen and is coming to the Antlers theatre tonight as a Paramount-Arterraft production, with Major Robert Warwick as the star. No effort has been spared to make it a picture of unusual merit. In the supporting cast are Ann Little, Eileen Percy, Wanda Hawley, Tom Forman, Monte Blue and Hart Hoxie. The scenes were photographed in the most picturesque section of the Rockies, and a whole tribe of full blooded Indians act as extras.

The familiar story of "Told in the Hills" centers around Jack Stuart, played by Major Warwick, who sacrifices his future to marry a girl who his younger brother has wronged. He retires into seclusion in the Montana Indian country. He becomes a government scout, and after many dramatic adventures finds happiness. The picture was directed by George Melford.

The southwestern frontier in the olden, golden days. In the scene of Wm. S. Hart's new picture, "The Toll Gate." It is the first of the big productions made by Mr. Hart's own company under his own supervision to be released by Paramount-Arterraft and will be shown at the Majestic theatre tonight.

As Black Deering, the hero, Mr. Hart, has the role of the leader of a bandit band who is betrayed by one of his own men. He dashes away from his captors, and, losing the sheriff's posse after a series of thrilling episodes, he comes upon the lonely cabin where the wife of his betrayal lives. He slays the traitor, and, then, touched to the heart by the innocent kindness of the wife and child, he gives himself up to the law. But an understanding sheriff allows him to depart over the Mexican border to freedom.

"The Toll Gate," is an impressive drama of self sacrifice, and of red-blooded manhood, as well as a glowing picture of the west that has passed away. Hart is supported in the picture by a capable company, headed by beautiful Anna Q. Nilson. His remarkably intelligent pinto horse figures prominently in the big scenes. The star collaborated with Lambert Hillyer in the writing of the story and in directing the play.

Feed Every 3rd HOG FREE

PROVE at our risk that you can easily care one-third on this special feed, cut 10 to 20 days off the growing period and have healthier hogs by feeding MILKOLINE.

Aids Digestion—Milkoline has a base of acid, medicinal butters, and sterilized milk. It is guaranteed not to contain any sulphuric acid or anything injurious to hogs or poultry. It helps tone up the system, making hogs less subject to disease, generally insuring gains of 25 lbs. a head per day.

University Tested—Prof. W. R. Combs of Dairy Husbandry at Missouri University, conducted a scientific test which showed that Milkoline fed hogs made a profit of 100% more than those not fed Milkoline. W. H. Graham, Middletown, Mo., said 500 worth of Milkoline made an extra profit of $400 in 30 days. Low chickens, Woodcock, Hens, N. C. says Milkoline is great for chicks and grown.

Milkoline 2c a Gal.—Milkoline comes in a 5-gallon can. It is guaranteed not to spoil, no matter how long it is kept. It is guaranteed to keep indefinitely in any climate. Five 5-gallon cans cost $25.00. Full price is as follows: 5 gal. $7.50; 10 gal. $12.50; 15 gal. $17.50; 20 gal. $22.50; 25 gal. $27.50.
