The News-Review takes its hat off to Joe Harvey, of Edenbower, who brought to this office today a single potato that weighed five and one-half pounds, and the gentleman stated he was seriously considering the installation of a derrick in order to handle his crop this year. Mr. Harvey certainly has a system all his own when it comes to producing spuds and if there is any other grower in the county who can "hold a candle" to him, just trot out your sample spud.

Fred A. Williams, a member of the public service commission, accompanied by Guy M. Harris and B. F. Forbes, who have been at the town of Sutherlin conducting a hearing in reference to the telephone rates in that vicinity, were Roseburg visitors today. Mr. Williams has many warm friends in Roseburg and vicinity, having visited here on numerous occasions. He is a strong Harding supporter and looks for his

Pie Social Is Greatly Enjoyed

Friday evening an enjoyable time was spent by a large crowd at the Fullerton school house. The program was opened by the singing of "Fullerton, My Fullerton," with a chorus of ghosts to assist in the singing. Mr. Cameron's vocal solo was much enjoyed, as well as the two readings by Mrs. Ashcraft, and the vocal duet by the Misses Kohlhaugen. A chalk talk entitled, "A Biography" by Victor Arundel kept the audience in a happy mood. From the sale of pies, $25 was cleared for prizes for members of the industrial clubs.

Olalla Store and Post Office Burned

The store and postoffice conducted by J. H. Thomlinson at Olalla was completely destroyed by fire late last night. The fire was not discovered until the flames had gained great headway and it was impossible to enter the building. Neighbors rushing to aid Mr. Thomlinson broke in the windows of the building but were unable to enter on account of the intense heat. The store was well stocked and the merchandise loss will amount to several hundred dollars. Partial insurance on store and contents was carried.

WE'LL TELL THE WORLD WE'VE GOT THE CIRCULATION

Last month when the News-Review published an account of the 40 day fast of Mrs. J. M. Lane of this city, the news story was copied quite generally over the entire state and in many other sections of the country. The Associated Press grabbed the item and flashed it over the country. Today William Agnew brought in a copy of the London Times, dated October 8, in the columns of that publication is an item about the 40 day fast of Mrs. Lane and bearing a Roseburg date line.

Children's Eyes Should Be Examined!

YOU should know whether your children's eyes are normal, whether they see near and distant objects perfectly and whether school work and reading have strained their eyes. Poor eyesight will hold back their progress and make them seem dull. Do not let them be handicapped with poor vision, when a properly fitted pair of glasses will give them relief and make them on par with the others. We are fully equipped for examining eyes and fitting glasses.
