

"JUST TELL THEM TO CALL ME" SAYS RUSSELL

Declares He Would Not Take All The Money In The World For The Good Tanlac Did Him, and Will Tell Anyone About His Case.

my arms legs and every joint of my body. My nerves were in such bad shape I could never get a good night's sleep. I lost weight and finally became so run-down and weak I simply had to stop work entirely. All my friends thought I was down and out for good, for although I had tried every kind of medicine I could bear of, nothing helped me a particle.

"Well, sir, I think Tanlac is actually worth its weight in gold, and I wouldn't take all the money in the world for the good it has done me. In a short while after I began taking it I commenced to get better and now I am a well man. I have a splendid appetite, eat anything I want and never have a particle of trouble afterward. My kidneys do not bother me any more, my nerves are in fine shape, I never had a sign of headaches nor become dizzy, and the rheumatism has left me entirely, and I am back on the job again."

Tanlac is sold in Roseburg by W. F. Chapman and by the leading druggists everywhere.

My telephone number is Proctor 1115, and if anybody wants to talk to me about the good Tanlac has done for me and what I think of it, all they have to do is just call me up."

W. C. Russell, 3712 North 10th street, Tacoma, Wash.

Six bottles of Tanlac not only completely relieved me of all my troubles, but I have gained fifteen pounds in weight besides. For three years I had just about everything the matter with me anybody could have. I lost my appetite, and even something I would eat me awful suffering. I would not eat up with gas until I could hardly breathe, have intense pains in the back of my stomach, and my heart palpitate dreadfully. I had headaches nearly all the time and became so dizzy I had to take something to keep from falling. My kidneys worried me a great deal, and there were such pains in my back I felt like it was coming in two.

I also suffered with rheumatism

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

MORGAN COMES BACK AGAIN

Editor News-Review: Ray Ward's main weapon in an argument seems to be vituperation and a vengeance. He manages to distort and twist the facts as much as to put an entirely different meaning to them. If he owned anything or was paying any taxes in this city it might look better, but (like some others I know,) wants something he can get some one else to pay for. One of the most prominent business men in Roseburg had in his headline article in the News-Review last spring on the front page what a fine thing the aviation field would be for Roseburg, and this same gentleman does not pay any taxes at all and has been in business here a number of years. Men like Ray Ward and the ones like him acting as mouthpiece for are ones that should be replaced with new brains.

He speaks of an incident at the city hall. The only thing that happened at the city hall that I was connected with was when I went there and paid my street assessment, that is a "reflexion practice." I am guilty again.

I am against the aviation field for reasons previously stated and am reasonably certain that a large majority of the taxpayers are with me. I have ample assurance that many of them will sign a petition against it and I have no doubt but that I could get five hundred names in less than two days.

I would like to see the will of the taxpayers carried out. They had ample bonds years ago for a road and light plant and never got it and now when an aviation field is proposed, every Tom, Dick and Harry, that thinks he could make a dollar out of it, sets up a "holier than thou" and wants the "Dear People" to buy it for him. If they could produce some argument in favor of it (except hot air) the dear people might do it, but I think if I didn't own any property here and wasn't paying any taxes, I wouldn't be the gall to shout from the rooftops and tell the people what to do.

E. E. Morgan.

SHOWING GROWTH OF DOLLAR

Benjamin Franklin's Bequest of $5,000 to Boston Has Increased in a Century.

How the dollar invested works for the individual himself has been best illustrated by that first great American leader of thrift, Benjamin Franklin, remarks World's Work. In 1791 he bequeathed $5,000 to the commonwealth of Massachusetts and to the city of Boston as a mark of his appreciation for having appointed him as agent in England at the "handsome" salary of $2,000. And to make his bequest really valuable, with his great foresight Franklin provided in his will that this $5,000 should be put out at 5 per cent interest for 100 years; that at the end of that time $1,131 of the fund accumulated should again be put out at interest for another hundred years and then the fund be divided one-fourth to Boston and three-fourths to the state.

Let us see how well that $1,000 of Franklin's has worked. At the end of the first hundred years it had grown to $1,288.42. It was then divided in accordance with the will; $322,300.48 was set aside for "public work" and $966.12 was started on its course earning interest for another hundred years. That was in 1891. On Nov. 1, 1918, this sum had grown to $1,862.15 and at this rate of increase the fund should amount to at least $2,000,000 when the second period is completed, and may be considerably more.

Strawberries Bring Excellent Returns

"If the grower of strawberries happens to feel rather prosperous this fall, much of the prosperity is due to the fact that he is a member of the Oregon Growers Co-operative Association," says C. I. Lewis of the association.

The strawberry pool of the association was sold this season at the price of 17 cent a pound, breaking all previous records. Many growers who are as yet not members, were not so fortunate. A number of sales were made at 10 cents a pound, and were later in the season many crops were disposed of at the low price of seven cents a pound.

Grange Master Makes Prediction

BOSTON, Nov. 16.—The establishment of a nation-wide selling organization which shall fix the price of farm products if the farmer does not receive "the same pay for the same hour's work that others received," was predicted today by Sherman J. Lowell, master of the National Grange of Patrons of Husbandry, in opening the national convention.

"There is no threat in this," he said. "We have been driven to it to preserve our agriculture." He declared that changes since the beginning of the war and rulings of the national government have been taken to a disadvantage of the farmers.
