MOSLEM MISSIONARY WORK
Among the various religious activities in this country, it appears, is a Mohammedan propaganda. A current tract insists that Islam has been grievously misrepresented here in America.

It is doubtless unfair to attribute the whole or half of all this to the Mohammedan religion itself. In its purity, it is one of the world's greatest faiths, and has been the inspiration of many a noble man and woman.

Christianity as it stands today has its faults, its failures and its hypocrisies. But these are not its salient facts. Christendom stands, in the eyes of nearly all the world for the big things in life and achievement.

Islam stands for failure. Americans do not like failures, in religion or anything else. The Moslem missionaries will find poor pickings in this country.

A new argument against the short day in industry is advanced by certain Japanese employers. They say that the eight-hour day was tied out in the factories, and the uneducated girls employed in them had so much leisure and so little idea how to use it that they resorted to eating as a time-killer.

This is the period of the year when the "turkey hangs high" and the goose lies low.

Farming as one of the securest of all industries is recommended by the Country Gentleman, to the consideration of young men who have left the farm for highly paid jobs in the city, only to find that with the strike the shut-down, and other industrial readjustments, that they have no job at all.

The demand for most things that men manufacture is fluctuating. But the demand for food is universal and unflinching. The man with the farm has the strongest guaranty of a living that civilization has yet written.

Surgeon-General H. S. Cummins, of the U. S. public health service, is determined to see that every one of the 15,000 tuberculosis patients in the public service hospitals shall have the best treatment to be had in any hospital in the land.

There's a few cranks running at large that God Almighty will have an awful time to please when these individuals reach the latch string on the golden gate.

The agitator is with us always—and he is not necessarily groomed in the wardrobe of a bolshevik. Some of them look like pretty good samples of the Broadway promenaders.

AROUND THE TOWN
Attend Meeting—
Mrs. W. W. Ashcraft left this afternoon for Sutherlin, where she will attend a missionary meeting held at that place this afternoon and tonight.

RS. ELLA LEFTWICK, another Kansas City woman, whose remarkable restoration by Tanlac has astonished her neighbors, many of whom have begun taking the Master Medicine.

"A number of my friends after seeing the wonderful good Tanlac did me, began taking the medicine, and now they all agree with me that it is the greatest medicine on earth," said Mrs. Ella Leftwick, 722 Pile St., Kansas City, Kansas.

Tanlac completely restored my health," she said, "and just seemed to give me a new lease on life. If I could talk personally with every woman suffering as I did, I would urge them to take this medicine.

"For the first time in three years I am able to eat and enjoy three hearty meals every day, and not suffer in the least afterward with indigestion. I am never troubled now with those awful smothering spells that used to frighten me so much, and the dreadful headaches that came upon me every day have been entirely broken up.

Tanlac is sold in Roseburg by W. F. Chapman, and in Dixonville by J. E. Hatfield, and by leading druggists everywhere.

FARM BUREAUS GROW RAPIDLY

President of National Organization Makes Announcement of Progress.

OVER MILLION MEMBERS

Has 35 State Organizations Affiliated With It—President is an Iowa Farmer and is Well Acquainted with Country's Need.

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—J. R. Howard president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, announces that the federation now has over a million members and has 35 state organizations affiliated with it.

Sketching the character of the newcomer among the national farm organizations, together with its program, Mr. Howard, himself an Iowa farmer, said:

"The federation is an alliance of county farm bureaus into state farm bureau federations and these in turn become organized into the national organization, known as the American Farm Bureau Federation.

"Its purpose is to work for the economic, social and educational advancement of the farmers of the United States and for the general welfare of the nation. It is proposed to develop this work by means of the bureaus.

"Our bureau of agricultural economics and statistics has already been set up. It will make a study of costs of production of the principal agricultural products and will direct and compile statistics in cooperation with the Department of Agriculture, and the various state agencies.

"We are already undertaking important investigations of co-operation enterprise in marketing, which looks forward to the establishment of a bureau of co-operation. This is to make a study in this country and abroad with the thought that special industries interested in forming local or district co-operative organizations may profit by the experience of other people in similar enterprises before starting on their undertaking.

"The bureau of education which has been planned but which has not yet been started will present facts relative to the food supply and other necessities produced by agriculture to the daily papers in order that there may be a more general understanding of agricultural production and a closer relationship between the producer and the consumer.

"Our bureau of legislation, which is already in operation is keeping a close record of the bills introduced in Congress and is working for the introduction of legislation which we consider essential to the proper development of a national agricultural policy."

Next Sunday Mr. B. F. Clay will again preach at both the morning and evening services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Let us greet Mr. Clay with a large congregation.

Miss Hinkle will lead the Endeavor, and the subject is "The Thanksgiving Habit." The churches of the city will join in their annual Thanksgiving service next Wednesday evening at 7:30. Rev. Guy F. Phelps, pastor of the First Methodist Church, will preach the sermon at the Baptist church.

Presbyterian, Jackson and Lane streets, Rev. E. W. Warrington, Minister.—Next Sunday is "Pilgrim Sunday." Jamestown and Plymouth mark the beginning of one of the most profound and picturesque racial movements of all history.

When waters charged with carbonate of calcium derived from limestone are evaporated they deposit masses of the carbonate, some of which are of great beauty. This process can be observed at many warm and "petrifying" springs and also in limestone caverns where stalactites and stalagmites are being formed.

Why Spoil a Suit?
"Here's a ladder against this building. I'll bet you a dinner you won't walk under it."
"I won't take your bet."
"Ha! Superstition!"
"No, horse sense. There's a man at the top of that ladder with a bucket of paint in his hand."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Safer Than Rifles and Powder.
Among the items purchased by the Mexican government for Francisco Villa and his followers are 800 plows, harness for 1,800 mules, 2 tractors, 20 mowing machines, 2 thrashing machines, 40 scrapers, 2 long auto trucks, an auto, corrugated iron for roofing and 2 large warehouses.

SOAP AND SOCKS IN SUMATRA

Wearing of Hosiery is an Indication That the Wearer Earns at Least $20 a Month.

Soap and socks in Sumatra—ten years ago the observant mind of a consulate representative of the United States in that island would have devoted less thought to such matters, but now the internationalization of commerce gives soap and socks in Sumatra their place in the sun.

The natives, it appears from a recent consular report, are more and more taking to wearing socks. Those simple garments of extremities, one judges, are becoming an indication that the wearer earns at least $20 a month.

Sketching the character of the newcomer among the national farm organizations, together with its program, Mr. Howard, himself an Iowa farmer, said: "The federation is an alliance of county farm bureaus into state farm bureau federations and these in turn become organized into the national organization, known as the American Farm Bureau Federation.

ODDITIES OF GERMAN VOTE

Peccular Sentiments Revealed in Recent Balloting for Members of Reichstag.

The total number of valid votes cast at the recent election in Germany for the 446 members of the reichstag was 20,017,500. The votes that had to be thrown out ran into the thousands. One woman wrote on her ballot: "I am voting for you majorly socialists this time, but unless I can get Westphalian ham that I'll never do it again."

The circus disport themselves as of yore. The band plays its tuneful music, acrobats swing high on shining trapezes. The elephants go through their ponderous moves. The seals flap their way to children's hearts.

Trade With Australia Grows.
Trading with this country and Australia is showing a healthy growth, according to figures supplied to the department of commerce by A. W. Ferrin, trade commissioner, who is at Melbourne. They cover imports and exports for the first quarter of the current year, and show the imports during that period to have been about $27,775,000, against exports to this country of approximately $16,350,000.

"Lotus Eaters."
Few flowers have been more identified with the world's history than the mysterious lotus of Egypt. The phrase "lotus eaters" is a common one in literature, and is used to describe those who live in a dream world.

Davy Jones' Rich Cargo.
A diver was sent down recently at New York to locate a case of machinery that had fallen into the river. As soon as he reached the bottom he signaled that he wished to come up.
