Box Supper Raises Hundred Dollars

The W. C. T. U. of Glengary held a box supper at the Green school house last night clearing $100. The supper was given as a benefit for the W. C. T. U. Farm Home for which there is a drive being organized at the present time. M. C. Radabaugh of this city acted as auctioneer, giving his services free of charge, for which the committee in charge is very grateful. One hundred dollars is an unusually large sum to have cleared in this way and will be turned over to the Douglas County Chairman, O. P. Coshow, to help make up the $1,900.00 quota set for this county.
