

SUNDAY AT THE CHURCHES.

First M. E. Church, corner Lane and Main streets.—Guy Fitch Phelps pastor.—A drive is on at the Methodist Episcopal church to increase attendance and interest in all departments of the work. Every Methodist, whether he holds his membership here or not, is urged to take a hand and help make the program a success. Next Sunday morning the services will be in charge of the Home Missionary society. There will be special music by a ladies' quartette, and Guy Fitch Phelps will speak on "The Pioneers of Faith." The subject for the evening service will be, "What Should be Done With the Church?" A special invitation is hereby extended to the business men, the American Legion, and our Jewish friends. If there are any who feel that the church should be suppressed they are especially invited. Mr. Phelps will speak at both services.

M. E. Church, South, Rev. J. C. Jones, pastor.—Sunday school at 9:45, W. L. Cobb, Supt.; divine worship at 11; junior missionary meeting at 2:30; senior league at 6:30, leader, Mrs. Lahey. This is missionary meeting; the subject is, "Inspiring Stories From Home Mission Fields." An interesting program and study will be given. Divine worship at 7:20. The Rev. W. J. Fenton, presiding elder of the Portland district, will conduct the services and administer the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. On Monday night at 7:30 a meeting of the official board and church congregation will be held to complete the plans for the "Elder meetings," to begin on Tuesday evening in the large hall in the Elks' building on Jackson and Lane Sts. Then on Tuesday night the revival campaign will open with the evangelists now at Corvallis, Ore. Full announcements and advertising will appear later. The public will find a welcome at any and all these services.

St. George's Episcopal Church, Rev. Thos. R. Allen.—Holy Communion at 7:30 a. m.; Sunday school at 9:45 a. m.; morning service and sermon at 11.

Christian Church, Pine and Woodward streets, Rev. C. H. Hilton, Minister.—The members and friends of the congregation will be especially interested to know that Mr. Roy Dunn of Astoria will be the guest of the church next Sunday. He will speak at the morning and evening services. Mr. Dunn is the minister from the Roseburg church is helping to support at Astoria, and it is hoped that a large congregation will greet him in Roseburg. In the evening he will illustrate his sermon with the stereopticon, showing the development of Astoria and its need of Christian work. The hours of the preaching service are 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The Endeavor meets at 6:30 p. m. The missionary committee will lead service Sunday evening. The Bible school meets at 9:45 a. m. This is the Bible studying service of the church. Don't miss it.

Presbyterian, Jackson and Lane streets, Rev. E. W. Warrington, Minister.—True Christianity is a vital, transforming power in the life of men and of nations. This is the critical need of the world today. Are you a true Christian? Are you helping to make known the good news? It is urgent for you and the cause that you get into one of the churches of the city and let your life count for the Master. 9:45 a. m., the Bible study hour. You cannot be much of a Christian without keeping in close touch with God's word. 11 a. m., the morning worship; sermon subject, "Christ Risen or the Christ of the Book of Acts." This is another of the sermons on the Portrait of Jesus. 6:30 p. m., the Endeavor service. Miss Gladys Hunt is the leader. The subject is, "Inspiring Stories from Home Mission Fields." This is an enthusiastic gathering of young folks. Everybody is welcome. 7:30 p. m., the pastor will give the third picture-sermon on "The Five Crises in the Life of Jesus." The subject is, "On the Hillside with the Common People." These pictures are taken from the best artists and the sermons are strongly evangelistic.

How's Business?

Better Every Day.---Why Not---

Since we have taken over the stock of A. S. Huey we have not only stocked it up to the limit but we have reduced prices on every article. It is not only our aim to have the largest and finest stock this store has ever had, but we wish to be recognized as the first jewelry firm in Southern Oregon that has made a reduction in prices.

We can conscientiously say that we can give you as good values as any reputable jeweler or mail-order house in the country.

WHY NOT---

We buy as cheap as any, we pay cash, our expenses are small, besides we are new in the field. Does it not seem reasonable to you that we shall do our utmost to gain your good will? Think it over.
