GLENDALE NEWS

Glendale "in a spirit of devout thankfulness, surely celebrated the occasion as never before. Socially, every home had its "home coming" and reunions. The general good cheer and special services, was manifested by everyone you met, and all venerated and held sacred the traditions of Our Pilgrim Fathers, who established for future generations the American Institution of that first Thanksgiving on bleak New England's ice-bound shores. And, after the passing years, today, our own prosperous land is dispensing generous hospitality to peoples of one half the earth, and we are enjoying Heaven's richest blessing as our ships are carrying our bounteous products from hundreds of seaports, to the people of many lands. Victory has crowned our efforts at home, and our flag—victorious—proudly waves over all. May we all in our heart turn to the God of our Fathers, who preceded and blessed that first of "Thanksgiving Days" "Let Us Forget," is our prayer.

The bazaar held by the Ladies Aid of the Olivet church proved a financial success and also a very social union. George Humphreys, of the Economy store very kindly donated his east window to the society, in which to display their most beautiful handiwork. The president, Mrs. Amspoker, and the ladies of the committees were on duty all day. Very special thanks is due the editor of the Glendale News for special advertising. And for generous orders and for future orders to be finished later on, in behalf of our very popular and efficient president, we thank you.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rone were guests of the latter's mother, Mrs. Light, at the Light mines on Green creek, on Thanksgiving day.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Elliot and their daughter, Lola May, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Elliot of this city on Thanksgiving day.

Alfred Elliot, of the Dalles, is also at the Elliot home and all are the guests of Mrs. R. M. Elliot.

Glendale will have a Christmas tree at Olivet Church in which a fine program will be rendered. Special music, both vocal and instrumental, will be featured and a fine time will be had. A general invitation is extended to all.

Mrs. K. Edin of this city was called to Canada on account of the illness of her brother who died three days after her arrival. Mrs. Edin has the deepest sympathy of all in the hour of her sorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Levans entertained several of their friends and relatives on Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Pickett of Astoria, made us a much appreciated call last week.

Frank Martin Slocum, of Nevada, died last week. The announcement was understood to be Fred Slocum lately of this city. Fred Slocum is in his usual good health we are pleased to note.

Arundel, Diana Turner. Phone 189L.
