

DOUGLAS COUNTY GIRL MARRIED TO CALIFORNIAN

Relatives are expecting the arrival of George Weeks with his bride, who until November 13 was Miss Lillian Lichtenberger of Ruckles, Oregon, says a San Bernardino, California, paper.

Mr. Weeks is well known in San Bernardino, having been reared here and having attended the San Bernardino school for several years. Just two years ago he went north to Oregon where he accepted a position with the Agoma Lumber Company, and now holds a responsible position with that firm, being one of the engineers.

The couple following their marriage, left for San Francisco, where they are now spending a few days' honeymoon, before coming south to San Bernardino, where a large circle of relatives and friends are waiting eagerly to meet the new bride who is a lovely blond of the petite type.

Word of the marriage and the coming of the couple was received by the groom's sister, Mrs. James Baxter, Jr., of A street, where the couple will stay for a time.

It is also possible that Mr. and Mrs. Weeks will choose San Bernardino for their permanent home, which will be entirely satisfactory to the friends and relatives of the young man, who will be anxious to make his bride feel at home so far from the forests of Oregon. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Leichtenberg of Ruckles, Douglas County, Oregon.

CONTINUING CONTEST

The watch guessing contest, started by Jeweller Turick, will be continued until Dec. 4th. Mr. Turick has placed a large number of Ingersoll watches in his window and will give one free to the person guessing nearest to the right number. A number of estimates have already been made on the number displayed.

The inter-class basket ball teams of the Sophomores and Juniors will play Wednesday evening after school hours in the high school gymnasium. The majority of the interclass games have been played, the only remaining one with the exception of the game Wednesday, being the Seniors and Freshmen, the date for this game not having been set.

A hearing will be given R. H. C. Wood in the city court tomorrow. Mr. Wood is charged with reckless driving, a complaint having been made against him by Claire High, a local call boy who was injured a few days ago, when the auto driven by Mr. Wood, collided with his motorcycle. Mr. Wood denies that he was driving recklessly and will introduce testimony to support his denial at the hearing tomorrow.

WORTH ALL IT COST

For the first time in the history of Douglas county there is a hard surface road the entire distance between Myrtle Creek and Roseburg, and a cracking good one at that. Beginning at the end of the paving reaching from Myrtle creek, to the Winston's school house, a very fine gravel road now reaches the top of the hill at the south boundary line of the city of Roseburg. Regardless of the weather conditions, one can now travel to and from Roseburg, rain or shine, with ease and dispatch. It is well worth all the money that has been spent to build it.—Myrtle Creek Mail.

Niece of Roseburg People Married

Miss Marjorie Kay, daughter of Representative and Mrs. T. B. Kay, of Salem, and niece of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Cochow of this city was married this afternoon in Salem, where she resides to Hollis Huntington, who is also known in this city. The wedding ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents, and was performed by Rev. J. J. Evans, pastor of the First Christian church of Salem. A large number of friends and relatives were present at the wedding. The groom is a brother of Charles (Shy) Huntington, athletic director at the University of Oregon, who acted as best man. Mr. Huntington at present is director of athletics of the public schools of Anaconda, Montana, and the young couple will make their home in that city.

PIE SOCIAL HELD

Getting back to the simple style in entertainments was the pie social given in the high school gymnasium Wednesday evening by the Senior and Junior classes. Old fashioned games of every description were revived for the evening, and were all thoroughly enjoyed as a welcome change. The sum realized from the auction of the pies was divided equally between the two classes sponsoring the entertainment.

EDENBOWER FLAG STATION

Word was received here today, from Salem, that upon order of the Public Service Commission, Edenbower will be a flag stop for both trains number 18 and 17. For the past two years number 17 has observed no flag stops at Edenbower, although the station has been a regular stop for number 18. In the future, however, number 17, which passes through Edenbower a few minutes before 10 o'clock, will stop there on a flag signal.

PORTLAND MARKET

PORTLAND, Nov. 29.—Hogs went a trifle higher today, quotations being $12 to $12.75. Cattle were also quoted higher, going at $8.75 to $9.25. The sheep market was weak, and eggs are on a downward trend, buying price 65 to 67 cents. Canned eggs were bringing from 70 to 74 cents. Butter is steady.

Collins Owns Up to Train Robbery

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 29.—Keith Collins, postal inspectors announced today, has signed a statement confessing his participation in the train robbery near Council Bluffs ten days ago, at which time over three millions in plunder was secured by the gang, mostly young men under 20.

Miss McDonald's guest in the city, Miss Doe was extensively entertained while here, among the social affairs in her honor was a luncheon by Miss Iris Rice, a luncheon by Miss Fern Reymers and a theatre party by Miss Lorraine Conlee.
