Students Study Prohi Effects

CHICAGO, Dec. 1.—College students acting under the direction of professors in economics and sociology in a number of colleges and universities will undertake to survey the effects of prohibition in their communities early in 1921 it is announced here by the Intercollegiate Prohibition Association. The investigation will be made under the auspices of the organization.

"The investigation will seek to ascertain just what effects prohibition has had upon every line of industry business and investment," L. D. Fackler, secretary of the association said. "It will also try to ascertain just what the result has been in regard to crime, health, recreation, scholarship, home-life and social welfare."

Legion Presents Musical Company

A splendid entertainment with an evening of dancing is the program arranged by Umpqua post of the American Legion at the armory on the evening of December 9. A program of 20 numbers including vocal, instrumental specialties, and some vaudeville sketches will begin at 8:30 p. m. and at 10 p. m. the Greater Shirley Saxophone orchestra will provide dance music until midnight. The Shirleys have been well recommended by the press in the various localities in which they have appeared and their musical program is considered one of the best of the year. The entertainment will be held under the auspices of the local post of the Legion and the proceeds will go to the local organization.

Seeks Invigorating Influence.

Life's greatest need is to expose itself to enlightening and invigorating influences. The world is impatient to impress itself on the individual. Like excluded sunshine it needs but an opening to flood itself unstintedly into every nook and corner of possible influence. That does not mean that mind grows by passive acceptance of everything that seeks entrance. It just means that the materials upon which the mind should react to grow properly are all about us trying often in vain to bestow upon us the benefits we need but studiously reject. Everything about us, from bird song to perspiring toll, can be made to minister to our well-being if we will turn it to account. There's more opportunity about most of us than we are able to use. If we grow prematurely old and tiresome it's because we do not open the windows.

Handle Gasoline Carefully.

Those who handle gasoline as a matter of ordinary custom are often quite oblivious to its potential dangers. An English journal tells of a motorcyclist who removed the cover of his electric horn and flushed it out with petrol. Having replaced the cover he started for a ride.

At the first attempt to use the horn the result was startling, for there was a terrific explosion and the cover crashed into the rider's ribs. The horn was, of course, full of explosive mixture, which was ignited by the electric spark.

To Spell at Pleasure.

An Iowa professor urges that every one should be allowed to spell as he pleases, to save all the time spent in learning the prevailing fashion. It probably would not save much time for the reader of such spelling. With the typewriter to do the writing and the adding machine to do the arithmetic, and history discarded as useless, freedom in spelling would go far to do away with the need of any schools at all.—St. Paul Pioneer Press.

Alike.

Mother was washing her hair, which was fluffy at all times but when wet decidedly curly. Five-year-old John watched the process with great concern. "Mother," he finally remarked wisely, "your hair is a lot like grandma's face, isn't it? When you wash it, it wrinkles up like everything."

Dirt in your Engine Oil—Get rid of it!

A LARGE quantity of dust-laden air is "inhaled" by the daily operation of an automobile engine. With this road dust, carbon and fine particles of metal get into the lubricating oil and circulate through your engine, lowering the efficiency of its operation. Add to this dirt the gasoline that escapes past the pistons and dilutes the oil—

Here you have a combination that wears and tears and grinds away, every day adding a little more dirt and forcing a little more unnecessary wear on bearing surfaces. Result: slow response—less power—poor performance—shorter engine life.

Our new Modern Crankcase Cleaning Service is the enemy of dirt in the crankcase—it means "clean oil in a clean engine." The Calor Flushing Oil we use is the new, scientific, thorough flushing agent that does not contaminate the fresh Zerolene refilled into your cleaned crankcase. This modern, convenient service, given quickly and at a nominal cost, returns your engine to you clean and fresh, ready to give that satisfactory performance you expect. Today: Bring in your car for Modern Crankcase Cleaning Service.

RELATIVES ARRIVE

Mrs. Bessie Onman, of Bandon, mother of Bert Ohman, the S. P. engineer who was seriously injured Monday evening when he fell from the Deer Creek trestle, arrived in Roseburg this morning and will remain here for several days. William McClure, a brother of Mrs. Bert Ohman, wife of the injured man is also in the city. He resides in Marshfield and is also an engineer in the employ of the Southern Pacific. The condition of the injured man is said to be unchanged, the paralysis still being present in the lower part of the body although he spent a comfortable night.

Report is Denied—

The report that Los Angeles and southern California housing accommodations are overcrowded is denied in a circular received by the local Southern Pacific ticket office, stating that there is plenty of vacant rooms, hotel accommodations and apartments there. It states that there is a lack of small cheap dwellings, however, and many people are living in tents.

SAVAGES WORE BODY ARMOR

Gilbert Islanders Used That Form of Protection, but It Was Limited to Leaders.

Only one tribe in the South Pacific islands ever rose to the height of inventing armor to be used in their warfare. But even this tribe, the Gilbert Islanders, turned out only a few suits, owing to the work entailed in the manufacture. Francis Diekle says, in the Scientific American, that the suits were limited in number, and that every village was the proud possessor of one. At the outbreak of a conflict between villages, not all the inhabitants went to war, but the most doughty warrior was dressed in the village armor and sent against the champion of the rival place.

The brown-colored fabric covering the body and legs, which formed the Gilberts' armor, was made out of coral string taken from the husk of the coconut, so closely woven as to make a protection stronger than board, and having greater lightness to recommend it. A further breastplate, invulnerable to any native weapon, was made from the dried skin of the stingray, or ray fish, which dried as hard as metal.

In the last few years peace has settled over the Gilberts and the armor has ceased to be manufactured. The few suits in existence have all been seized by collectors of rare articles.
