Make Inspection Of Power Plant

Mrs. Emma McNab Burton and her husband, Attorney Frank Burton, of Gloversville, New York, spent yesterday afternoon and a portion of today in Roseburg. Mrs. Burton is one of the stockholders of the Douglas Light and Water company and was one of the plaintiffs in the suit recently brought in the federal court against the corporation, asking for the appointment of a receiver. Mr. and Mrs. Burton investigated the local plant and looked over the property preparatory to taking further legal action to collect on the bonds.

WINNERS GET TICKETS

Scarcely had the News-Review come off the press last night, when the telephone at the Antlers theatre began ringing. The commotion was caused by the advertisement inserted by the Globe Theatres company concerning the Majestic Theatre, in which they stated that the first woman discovering a misspelled word in the advertisement would be presented with two tickets to the picture, "Everywoman." Pearl Fritch was the lucky woman, calling the Antlers at just four o'clock, just one minute after the papers were off the press. Four others who called within the next five minutes were also given two tickets were Mrs. Clarence Perkins, Mary Reeves, Maxine McLaughlin and Mrs. J. S. Campbell.

Elkton People Are Visitors In Town

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Helms and Mrs. Julia Repsleger, of Elkton, are in the city today from Elkton. They came to attend the wedding of Ed Helms, son of the former, and Miss Anna Binder, daughter of the latter, who were married at the M. E. Parsonage today by the pastor. Following the wedding ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Ed Helms took the afternoon train north and will spend their honeymoon at Eugene and Coos Bay points, and on their return will make their home at Elkton. In talking of the local situation in his own community, Mr. Helms stated that the greatest need of the lower river country is a surfaced road clear thru to Scottsburg. Such a highway, Mr. Helms alleges, will be of untold value to everybody in the county. He is very much gratified with the support that the people of Roseburg are giving to the proposition, and stated that the people down river are all highly pleased with the attitude of the public and county officials toward the project.

WAIVES EXAMINATION.

Pearl Johnson, 19-year-old Myrtle Creek boy, who yesterday shot at Mr. McGovern during a dispute over a gate, was arrested and brought to this city today. He waived examination and was placed under $1000 bonds to appear before the grand jury to answer to a charge of assault with intent to kill. The dispute arose over a gate which Johnson had nailed shut, blocking passage in that direction. McGovern attempted to open the gate and was fired upon. The boy's father was making an attempt to raise the bond money late this afternoon.
