HOPE INSTEAD OF DESPAIR

Inscription Suggested for Portal of British Institution Would Seem Peculiarly Happy.

Above the entrance to the prison on Dartmoor, Eng., which is now to be done away with, two Latin words are cut into the stone, which may be rendered "Spare the vanquished," and it was in this spirit the French prisoners in the Napoleonic wars as well as American prisoners in the War of 1812 were received and treated, and in time allowed to live on parole in the neighboring villages and towns. Stories of these refined and charming hostages have delighted the heart of youthful readers of many generations, and the work done by them in carving and carpentering is still carefully treasured in many a home in Dartmoor to the present day. Little could they have imagined that the fine air would make Dartmoor as famous a resort as some of the highlands of Switzerland, and that after having become a convict prison about 60 years ago, the place of their incarceration would be turned into an institution for training lads on the Borstal system. The boys will have freedom, and will be acquiring a knowledge of farming and reclamation work, as well as other means of gaining a living and fitting them to become valuable members of society. The boys will be merely hostages, and another legend should be carved over the gateway, this time something more suitable to the occasion, such as "Take hope, all you who enter here,"—Christian Science Monitor.

"THRIFT" THAT DOESN'T PAY

Some Suggestions for the Housekeeper and for Those Who Are Too Saving.

There are some thrift suggestions that do not always pay, remarks a writer in the New York Sun. It doesn't pay, for instance, to wrap the ice in your icebox up in newspaper to keep the rest of the icebox from being kept cool. You may save your ice, but you may lose more than the worth of the ice in meat and vegetables that have been spoiled. It doesn't pay to make a cake without butter or eggs when you have to throw half of the cake away because no one will eat it. It doesn't pay to do your own housecleaning to save the expense of a woman by the day when this means that you are not able to have dinner at home at an expense of rather more than new material would cost. It doesn't pay to deal with a grocer who undercuts the other grocers a little because he has no delivery service when you spend an hour in getting your supplies in order to save 10 cents. There are other ways that you can make an hour's time worth much more than that. It doesn't pay to set so economical a table that your children and your husband will have a craving for candy and between meals that will cost very much more than would be needed to set a really bountiful table. Trees Hard to Kill. When a tree is cut to the ground and the root is left to rot, all the forces seem to rally round the dormant leaflets contained in the old roots. Subsequently, strong new shoots grow. In much the same manner as from pollard willows. With the sprig and pestle, the case is the same as with shrubs, because, purposely or inadvertently, some leaflets on the stem have been buried under the earth. Although oak stakes are rarely found among those which flourish under such conditions, yet there is a case now in a Welsh colliery, where a piece of oak timber, supporting the roof, has developed branches like miniature trees, which have grown to a length of three or four feet. These are thickly covered with fully opened leaves of pale green, tipped with pink. They live in utter darkness, and present a most peculiar sight when revealed by the light of a passing safety lamp. Measuring Mammoth Cave. An old method has been used in measuring the height of some of the great chambers in the Mammoth cave. The experimenter had little balloons made of a special pattern, with thinner and more elastic rubber than that of common toy balloons. Then, with five balloons tied in a cluster, and each inflated with hydrogen to a diameter of 10 inches, he began his attempts. An acetylene light revealed the balloons when they touched the top. The measuring tape was a light thread. The Rotunda was found to be just 40 feet high, and the Mammoth dome 119 feet 6 inches. But in the vast temple called Goleth's dome, wandering air-currents rendered the balloons unmanageable. Writings Ascribed to Jews. It is believed today by many savants that the Old Testament description of Solomon's temple was written by the Jews after their return from captivity, with the memory of the real splendors of Babylon fresh in their minds, says Austruther Mueckay, writing in the Atlantic Monthly. It is possible that the actual temple was a simple place of worship. If it had been otherwise, it is hardly possible that no remains of it would be visible today, seeing that the temples of Egypt, which are so much older, remain, in some cases, almost in toto.

Hoff Urges New System Taxation
SALEM, Dec. 8.—An amendment to the Oregon inheritance tax law extending its powers to the holding of all foreign corporations whose assets consist wholly or in part of the real and personal property within this state, is suggested by State Treasurer Hoff in a letter forwarded to the committee named by Governor Olcott for the purpose of gathering data on a new system of taxation and ways and means of raising additional revenues for state purposes. Such an amendment, Hoff declares, would mean the addition of many thousands of dollars a year to the state revenues through the inheritance tax department from estates which now escape the provisions of the inheritance tax law measure through this weakness in the law. As a case in point Hoff points to the estate of Henry Miller who died in 1916, a resident of California. The appraisal of the Miller estate showed a gross valuation of $41,000,000 including practically all the stock of the Pacific Livestock Company, a California corporation with real property to the value of $1,600,000 and personal property valued at $1,200,000 located in Oregon. Because of the failure of the state law to include foreign corporations no inheritance tax has been received by Oregon from this $42,200,000 Oregon estate.
