CITY NEWS

Mrs. John Ferguson came to Roseburg today from her home at Edenbever to spend a few hours shopping and visiting with friends.

W. E. St. John, receiver of the J. P. Lusa estate, today filed his final report in the circuit court. The matters pertaining to the affairs of the estate have all been adjusted.

The freshman class of the local high school is preparing an elaborate entertainment for Friday night when they will entertain the senior class with a reception. A novelty program is to be given and an input to the senior class. The reception is to be held in the gymnasium of the high school which will be attractively decorated for the occasion.

The Daughters of Isabella held a card social and dance at the Macabee hall last night. A large number of the members and their friends were present and had a most enjoyable time. Cards were played for a short time and dancing was indulged in until midnight. A dainty lunch was served. Miss Viola Willett was the lucky winner of the first prize at cards for the ladies and Peter Ballif for the men. Cora Moore received the consolation prize. These social affairs of the D. of I. are becoming very popular and are recognized social events for the winter months.
