Rev. Conder on Trip to Portland

The Portland Oregon Journal has the following to say in reference to a former minister of this city: Rev. James E. Conder, of Roseburg, is at the Seward. "Until recently I have been pastor of the Methodist church South at Roseburg," said Mr. Conder. "Two years ago the Methodist churches of the North and South came very near to uniting as they had been up to 1844. We all feel that to keep up the feud engendered by the differences arising in the years before and during the Civil war, when those who are not Christians have forgotten and have forgiven each other, is a reflection upon our church and is a matter which is difficult to explain when a non-church member asks us if we forgive those who trespass against us as we ourselves hope to be forgiven. The great body of church members are anxious to have the union of the Methodist church, as North and South, take place, but a few of the bishops and church dignitaries have stood in the way of this much to be desired end. It will come, though, in time. At present I am serving as field secretary of the Anti-Saloon League of America. Our headquarters are at Westerville, Ohio. I am acting as advance agent for Lewis A. Banks, formerly of Philomath, in Benton county, not far from Corvallis. He is author of 55 books and a brilliant speaker."

Survey of Schools Has Been Started

Miss Ruth Montgomery, a graduate student of the University of Oregon, is in the city making an educational survey of the Roseburg schools. These educational surveys are something new in school history and owing to Supr. Hamm, who was instrumental in securing the survey for this city, Roseburg is the first school in the state of Oregon where the complete survey is being made. Such publicity has been given to the fact in the Eugene and Portland papers as school men in the state are interested in the new departure. Miss Montgomery has had experience in this work and is an expert in "sizing up" a school system with a view to finding defects, if any exist. This week mental tests are being taken in every grade in each school, and next week the intelligent tests will be given. At the end of the two weeks that Miss Montgomery is spending in this city, she will tabulate a report on the schools showing where improvements could be made and the exact status of each room as to whether the students are as far advanced as they should be.

Butter and Cheese Makers in Session

PORTLAND, Or., Dec. 9.—The seventh annual convention of the Oregon Butter and Cheesemakers opened here today. The program is announced by V. B. Campbell, of Corvallis, secretary, included addresses on many subjects pertaining to dairies. Butter and cheese exhibits are a feature of the convention. Butter will be scored by F. W. Bouska and cheese by L. B. Ziemer and Otto Friedell.

Following an address by S. V. Franklin, Portland, president, F. M. Brandt, of the Oregon Agricultural college, was on the morning program for a talk on "The Dairy Caneet and the Dairy Industry." H. W. Thomas, Coos county cheese inspector, also was on the program for "Observations." The afternoon program included an address by C. C. Chapman on "Law Makers and Law Breakers." F. W. Bouska, of Chicago, on "Neutralization;" George Jacobson, Portland "Pasteurization;" and Chris. Nelson, Myrtle Point "Gassy Milk."

Fat Man Dies at Sacramento Home

"Sacramento Joe," the 646 pound fat man, who visited Roseburg during the last Strawberry Carnival, died at his home in Sacramento on Dec. 8, while being made ready for an operation to remove 100 pounds of fat in order to prolong his life. His real name was Joseph H. Krebs, but he was known by the name of "Sacramento Joe" while on his various tours with circuses, side-shows, carnival companies, etc. Krebs, formerly a restaurant man, weighed at the time of his death about 640 pounds.

He had traveled with a circus when he was weighing around 600 pounds, but recently, because of his rapidly increasing obesity, had spent about 20 hours a day sleeping at his home.

No Extension of Time is Granted

The following letter received today from Internal Revenue Collector Milton A. Miller is self-explanatory: "It appears that some taxpayers believe that they have ten days grace on the fourth installment of the income and excess profits taxes due December 15th. Such a provision was contained in the 1917 revenue act but was removed by the revenue act of 1918. No extension can be granted under the law.

"In order that this impression may be corrected, it is desired that the widest publicity be given to the following statement which should be sent to the daily newspapers in your district for simultaneous release: "December 15th is the last day for the payment of the fourth installment of the income and excess profits taxes due this year. To avoid penalty, the tax must be in the office of the collector of internal revenue or branch office by midnight of that date.

"Inquiries reaching the commissioner of internal revenue indicate a belief that taxpayers have ten days grace on this installment. Such a provision was contained in the 1917 revenue act but was removed by the revenue act of 1918.

"Payment of the fourth installment may be made in cash or by money order or check. The bureau of internal revenue urges that wherever possible payment be made by check or money order. This method helps the taxpayer by saving him a trip to the collector's office and avoids congestion at the cashier's window. Check or money order should be made payable to Collector of Internal Revenue.

"Bills have been sent to taxpayers, but failure to receive a bill does not relieve the taxpayer of his obligation to pay on time."

TWO REAL ESTATE DEALS.

N. B. Swain yesterday disposed of his highly improved 14 acre orchard tract, a short distance West of the city, to Anna M. Wilson, a new arrival in this county. The place is well improved and has several fine buildings. Another real estate transaction completed last night, was the sale of the Henry Andrie dwelling on Fowler street to A. A. Murphy, who recently arrived in Roseburg.

Ford
 THE UNIVERSAL CAR

"The Ford"

Here is one of the most useful of all closed cars. Specifically so when not more than two or three are to be accommodated with reliable car service. The Ford Coupe is a mighty cosy car, in that it is absolutely water-tight, at the same time with its sliding plate glass windows you can have an open car, to all intents and purposes, in a couple of minutes. So it doesn't make any difference what the weather may be, rain or shine, summer or winter, in the Ford Coupe you have an enclosed car of comfort and service. What more do you want?

It has proven particularly a valuable car for traveling salesmen, physicians, engineers, architects, and others who have much out-of-door work all the year around. We have never been able to fully meet all demands for the Ford Coupe, but with the increased producing capacities of the factory we are now able to make reasonably prompt deliveries. Yet we urge you to leave your order with as little delay as possible—our allotment is limited.
