Business Will Go Ahead as Formerly

The following telegram received by J. O. Newland, local dealer in Dodge cars, this morning, indicates the policy that will be followed by the corporation and the determination to hold to the high standard already attained:

Knowing that each member of our organization will wish a word from us at this time, and as an acknowledgment of the messages of sympathy and loyalty received from everyone, we wish to say that the founders of the business built it on such a rockbed foundation of honesty, integrity and good will, that not even the passing of our dear President, Mr. Horace E. Dodge, will in the slightest degree affect the continuity or policies of the business. In faithful accord with his expressed wish, every policy and principle around which the business has grown will continue to dominate it for all time, and under the express authority of the owners of the business, we wish to say there will be no pause nor hesitation. The business will be continued as John and Horace Dodge had planned. The plant goes on.

DODGE BROS.

The meeting will be held on that date at 10 o'clock in the morning, at which time the members of the league will consider the budget proposed by the county court.

"One of my daughters is in New York in school. She is only 15 and I am not worrying about her," he said. "I know she will learn English perfectly and find a good husband who won't demand any money settlement. But I have two older daughters here in Latvia. Any men
