A new members were received in the grange and committees were appointed to make arrangements for a Christmas tree for the children of the grange a program and a general good time afterward.

Clair Smith Will Face Indictment

By Associated Press. EL PASO, Dec. 20.—The parents of Clara Smith, wanted in connection with the death of Jake Hamon, today stated to the officers that the young woman would surrender to face the charge of murder.

SEND UNIQUE CARDS

A very unique Christmas card is being sent by the "Greeters" of the Umpqua Hotel to brother greeters all over the United States. The card invitation to "See America First" and visit the Umpqua hotel. The greeters at the local hotel are W. J. Weaver, R. Scott Weaver, Ray W. Clark, Harry O. Wilcox and Wm. Van Buren. The Association of Greeters is an organization composed of hotel men and has a large number of members.

MANY WANT GLASS

Roseburg also has its souvenir seekers, and the management of the Umpqua Hotel has been besieged with requests for pieces of glass of the window broken by W. Robert Schultz when he leaped from the fourth story of the building Saturday. Several near accidents have resulted, several autoists having become intent on the window and driving their cars into other machines, fortunately, however, there has been no serious damage beyond a few bent fenders.

CASE IS HEARD TODAY

The case of J. S. Loring, and Pote Loring, against the Reubner Lumber company was heard in the circuit court today, before Judge Hamilton. The case involves a contract for building. The principals are all residents of Marshfield. Attorneys O. P. Coslow and A. E. Seaman represent the plaintiffs and W. U. Douglas the defendants.

R. A. Booth Here—

R. A. Booth, state highway commissioner, arrived in Roseburg from Eugene Saturday night and will spend several days here visiting at the J. H. Booth residence and hunting near here. He expects to make a hunting trip in company with Charles Beckley, Will Singleton and R. B. Dixon. Mr. Booth was enroute to Grants Pass having been called there owing to the illness of his sister, Mrs. Jennie Mee, but received a telegram in this city stating that she had improved.

Tramp Caruso at Liberty Tonight

James Gordon, the tramp Caruso, whose singing delighted those who were at the Jazz-O-Four dance Saturday night has been booked to appear at the Liberty theatre tonight.

JAMES GORDON Tramp Vocalist.

He has a wonderful voice and winning personality, and his appearance tonight will doubtless attract large crowds. Gordon has just closed a contract with the Rex theatre in Eugene. This night of the rods has a clear tenor voice, not unlike the famous Caruso. At the Saturday night dance he sang four numbers, three of which were the latest waltz ballads. He was forced to respond to several encores and it is possible that he will be engaged again for the Wednesday night dance.

LEAVING ROSEBURG

F. O. Mahan and wife, who have been in this city for several months while Mr. Mahan was in charge of the Oregon Growers plant here will leave tomorrow morning for their home in Portland. Mr. Mahan has severed his connection with the Oregon Growers Co-operative Association and with the Eugene Fruit Growers Association.

MUCH INTEREST SHOWN

The old armory revival campaign seems to be just in its beginning. People are remarking on the streets that nothing like it has been seen in years. At the services yesterday, the evangelist dismissed the audience but the people refused to go. Last night many remained and people were converted as late as ten o'clock.

Rev. Jones has already received 35 in his church alone. Today is rest day. No services all day. The next service will be Tuesday night. At that time Mr. Jeter will model in clay for the young people.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to thank all the kind friends and neighbors who assisted during the illness and after the death of our beloved wife and mother. We also wish to thank them for the many beautiful flowers.

Henry Miller and family.

◆ GLENDALE NEWS NOTES ◆

Glendale is to enjoy a series of very enjoyable social occurrences in the holiday season. All of our business houses have a very fine line of Christmas goods—a Christmas tree at Olivet church, and a special program for all. Social meetings will be distinctly featured, family reunions and home comings will help to cheer the hearts and help us all to recall the days of "Auld Lang Syne."

A Christmas tree at the Lutheran church and a special program is to be enjoyed by a large number of our community.

Miss Loretta Snyder of San Francisco is home for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Wilson who have their summer home in this city at a bridge toe in Grants Pass recently announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Alva Wilson, to Philip Trevo, of Portland. Many friends and relatives of this city join in felicitations to this popular young couple, and we express the sincere hope that their fullest expectations of future happiness may be fully realized, and that their lives be a blissful dream of wedded bliss.

Frank Neuner is looking after official business in this city and greeting friends of his boyhood days, when the Neuner family resided in this valley.

And as we meet the Neuner brothers, all of whom are well known officials and competent business men evidence that their honored parents were directing their sons along the highest lines, while living on a farm in Cow Creek valley.

Guy Jacques, who recently had one of his legs broken at Powers, Oregon, is now a guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. Jacques. He is almost recovered.

MABEL

"SLIM PRINCESS"

This laughable photoplay carries you on a smile journey to a fantastic Eastern Kingdom of Morovenel—where you see a fat that makes them beautiful. Mabel was just as thin as a razor blade—therefore a dead weight on the monial market—but she won out. Don't miss this picture, made from George Ade's famous stage play.
