PHONOGRAPHS AND RECORDS

Make this comparison before you buy your Phonograph

Don't buy a phonograph, any more than an automobile, without a demonstration. Name isn't all nowadays, as it used to be, when phonographs were a novelty.

Music-lovers know the real way to test—and that is by tone. The ear picks out superiority quickly. Naturalness is easily appreciated.

We encourage comparisons. We invite you to hear the Brunswick then to hear others. We leave final judgment to you. And we rarely lose a sale, when a comparison is made.

This accounts for the great popularity of The Brunswick here and the nation over. It goes into the homes of the most critical because of its overwhelming merit.

It has numerous features unobtainable elsewhere. Such as The Ultona, the all-record reproducer. And The Brunswick Tone Amplifier, built entirely of wood, so as to end metallic sounds forever.

Hear The Brunswick now—even if you are not quite ready to buy—

A size and style for every home.
Terms if desired.

Vet Commanders Have a Meeting

A meeting of the commanders of various veteran organizations in the state was held at the Portland hotel at noon on December 17th inst.

Those present were: John W. Cullens, Grand Commander of the Indian War Veterans; J. T. Butler, Department Commander of the Grand Army of the Republic; Major Clarence H. Hotchkiss, Department Commander, United Spanish War Veterans; John W. Jones, Junior vice-commander of the National Organization of Veterans of Foreign Wars; and Major William S. Gilbert, Department commander of the American Legion.

An organization was formed to be known as the Commander's Council, to be composed of the Department Commanders of all Veteran Organizations in Oregon, and a committee was selected to draft suitable bylaws and constitution for the organization which will embody all of the principles of the various Veteran Organizations, and not conflict with their constitution or their bylaws.

Upon being elected to office, the Department Commanders of all Veteran Organizations will automatically become a member of the Commander's Council.

Major Hotchkiss was chosen as president for the ensuing year and John W. Jones as adjutant. The next meeting is to be held at the call of the president, for the purpose of considering the adoption of the Constitution and by-laws to be prepared by the committee recently appointed.

The condition of the Soldier's Home at Roseburg, was discussed, and every member present was of the opinion that is was being inadequately supported by the State and went on record as using their best efforts to have the Veterans organizations which they represent petition the legislature to make sufficient appropriations to put it on a basis with the Soldier's home in other states.

Dollar Parcels Convey Happiness

Advices to the New York headquarters of the European Relief Council, describe the enthusiasm with which the arrival of the first of the Christmas "Dollar Parcels" sent into the famished countries from Americans are being received by the under nourished people in the areas where suffering from lack of food is especially great. The packages arriving there now contain a Christmas supplement of sugar and cocoa in addition to the items included heretofore.

The Austrian press almost universally has commented with enthusiasm on tne generosity of the American people in sending so many of the parcels into the country. Without them, it is the concensus, the suffering would have been greatly aggravated. Resposibility for the delivery of the parcels is assumed by the Council and cards denoting their destination may be obtained at any postoffice in the United States. Many citizens have availed themselves of this method of aiding relatives in the war devastated areas.

During the winter, a council, a recently formed amalgamaton of the leading welfare agencies dispensing relief in Central Europe, expects to spend $33,000,000 in salvaging the lives of children and nursing mothers in the most needed sections. More than 3,000,000 helpless and undernourished children in the several countries are almost wholly dependent upon American aid until the next harvest. Herbert Hoover is chairman of the moving spirit of affiliation and Franklin K. Lane is its treasurer.

"Foolish History" Reviewed by Hazen

David Hazen, editor of the "Fightin' Fools," the ex-service men's department of the Portland Telegram has the following to say concerning "Bates' Foolish history of Roseburg and Douglas County," which was recently published here.

Bert G. Bates' "Foolish History of Roseburg and Douglas County," is the most sensibe publication the book reviewer of 'the Fightin' Fools has found on his desk in many moth eaten months. The virile sincerity without attempt at being witty is certainly a change from the average local historian's mush.

To only a few who have read Bates' pleasing compilation has the truth dawned that the stories and memories of France, (told in the third person and through pictures) are in reality graphic parts of the gifted author's experiences. Every picture, including that of the flowing mug, brings to comrades minds the pictures as they were in real life.

Bates is the hard-boiled city editor of the Roseburg News-Review. His story of Roseburg and vicinity starts with the following lines. "Aaron Rose passed throo this here town, December 23, 1851, give the valley the once over and after driving a stake to mark Jackson and Cass Streets, took a liberal chew of Climax and told his two oxen, who were derned near outa gas, to lay down and enjoy themselves for the rest of their days."

From the arrival of Aaron Rose the story is carried forward, and is peppered with Indian stories of old squaw days.
