AROUND THE TOWN

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Morley, of Salem, former residents of this city, are in town for the Christmas holidays.

Assistant State Highway Engineer J. C. McLeod, of Salem, spent the night here, leaving this morning for an inspection of the road work being done in this county.

G. O. McGilvray, prominent Canyonville resident, spent the day in Roseburg transacting business matters and visiting his many friends.

The date for the open meeting of the Chamber of Commerce has been changed to January 14, at which time a meeting open to the public will be given and a fine program will be presented.

I. T. Sparks, traveling freight and passenger agent representing the Southern Pacific company, spent the day in Roseburg attending to official duties. Mr. Sparks makes his headquarters in Eugene.

Miss Dale Coshaw who is attending school in Corvallis and who has been visiting in Salem for the past few days, arrived in Roseburg last night to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Coshaw.

Ascalon Commander No. 14, Knights Templar, will observe Christmas at noon on Saturday, December 25th, 1920. All Master Masons and their families are cordially invited to attend the service, which will be held in the Masonic Temple.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Wilson, of Camas Valley, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wilson, who have been spending some time at Lindsey, California, returned to Roseburg this morning. The party is glad to get back to the Umpqua valley, which they say is plenty good enough for them.

MISS LOTT PEP AND PLENTY JAZZ

will be among the gay holiday crowds tonight at the armory dance. You'll be glad you're there. Tonight's the night. At the armory. Five-piece Jazz-Or-Four and a fine floor.

For carpenter, cabinet and repair work see N. J. Hyde, 228 East Commercial Ave. Both in and out of town work solicited.

Miss Agnes Pitchford, county juvenile officer, left last night for Portland where she will attend to business matters for a short time.

A marriage license was issued on Monday, by Justice of the Peace, J. S. Gray, at Gardiner to Gilbert Isom and Agnes Olson, both residents of that place.

Charles Hurst, a former employee at the local freight office arrived in Roseburg yesterday and will spend the Christmas holidays visiting with friends. He is now located in San Francisco.

At the Sunday evening services of the Presbyterian Church, Donald C. Parker, well known local violinist, will give as a violin solo, "Adagio Pathétique," Op. 128, by Benj. Godard. Miss Frances Parslow will be the accompanist.

STORE WAS ROBBED

Sheriff Quinn was notified this morning of the robbery of the general merchandise store at Yoncalla. Several Mackinaws, tobacco, and a small amount of change was taken. A description of the stolen coats was received and officers have been instructed to look for the criminals.

Mental Culture Club Has Party

The annual Christmas social of the '95 Mental Culture club was held at the Parish house yesterday afternoon with a large attendance of members and invited guests. The program consisted of two instrumental solos by Miss Jean Maddox, a vocal solo by Mrs. Wilson, readings by Mrs. Ashcraft, and a vocal solo by Mrs. Brumfield. This was followed by an exchange of gifts after completing a very pleasant afternoon and one long to be remembered. The next meeting will be held on January 4, 1921.
