Wonderful Business Experienced Here

The wonderful growth of the city of Roseburg during the past year has been clearly shown by the holiday trade. All local merchants report heavier sales than in former years and the post office department officials declare that a greater amount of parcels poured through the office this season. The manager of the local Western Union office states that many messages were dispatched from here conveying holiday felicitations. The fact that nearly all of the merchants state that their business this year was far beyond expectations and a great deal better than last year and the year before. Those who have been in business here for a good many years state that never have they previously experienced such a business. This is not because the people have more money, they say, but is caused by the increase in population. It is the general belief that at least two thousand more people are here than the last census shows.

MRS. LUKE JENNINGS VICTIM.

MEDFORD, Ore., Dec. 25.—Mrs. Luke Jennings, Medford, 35, a sister of Milton A. Miller, internal revenue collector, Portland, was instantly killed in an automobile accident on the Pacific highway near here Christmas eve. She was standing behind a car with Mrs. W. H. Evans, of Ashland, when a taxicab driven by W. H. Dewitt, of Ashland, crashed into them.

Two cars had gone into the ditch previously and the two women were waiting for their husbands, who were adding in getting the ditched cars back on the road. Coroner John A. Parl, who was an eye witness of the tragedy, will call an inquest Monday to fix the blame.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lent, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Thom and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Burch are spending the holidays in this city and are visiting at the homes of Mrs. C. A. Lockwood, Mrs. C. E. Fowler and Earl Burch. The visitors are from Portland. Many Incubators Sold.

PETE, HERE'S WORD FROM THE WOODS!

Certainly slipped on not tipping you that Mr. Bacon invited me to join his shooting party up here. Arrived at his Northeast Carry camp at sunset yesterday. And a riot started before we squared up to the venison steak! Listen, old bull pup—my tale's short!

Bleak Nixon, chief guide, while unpacking, made the terrible discovery that all the Camel cigarette supplies had been swiped in transit! Never heard such a howl as the whole outfit set up! Nixon swore in Indian-plus-Canuck! Just wouldn't be pacified! Bleak's been rooting for Camels since November, 1915. Says there never was such smoothness, or refreshing flavor, or mild body in a cigarette as Camels provide! (Pete, Bleak is O. K. on that). While the row was on what does Nixon do but hop into his canoe and disappear into the depths of the dark, dank night!

About three this morning there was a roar such as no man ever heard in the wild woods! It was Nixon yelling like a double-decked bull moose! That bird had crossed the lake, picked up a trail and beat it to a little way-back store where he got the boss out of bed and made him come across with all the Camels he had. The storekeeper kicked like a handfull of acs—but, Bleak always gets what he goes after! It's the nerve, old tooth! And, now we're all filled with the milk of human kindness and Camel contentment! We'll get game!

Peter, think of digging up a bunch of Camels in the depth of Maine's densest woods! And, that's the way it is all over the U. S. A.! You're never out of luck when you smoke Camels! Peter, old hub, I've spoke—as the cook puts it!

Back in New York—well,—soon!
Your old pal
