WOMEN PROMINENT NATIONAL AFFAIRS

Touch of Feminine Government is Being Felt Over Entire United States.

SEVERAL TO CONGRESS

County Offices Being Filled; Missouri Shows Greatest Likeness For Female Sex and Nine Counties Select Women Officials.

CHICAGO, Dec. 27.—Oklahoma, with a Congresswoman in the 67th Congress, Kansas and Texas with women as State Superintendents of Public Instruction, Missouri with 9 county treasurers out of thirteen women elected to county offices, and Michigan, taking two women sheriffs, take the leading places of distinction on the suffrage question in the Central West as the result of the recent nation wide election.

Women have entered nearly every field of public service, from juror and school trustee to member of the House of Representatives, and following last month's election, Miss Alice Robertson, of Muskogee, Okla., "past sixty" a successful restaurant proprietor, and, incidentally, an opponent of woman suffrage, will take her seat as the second woman ever sent to the national congress.

Missouri showed the greatest liking for women office holders, altho they are not eligible for state offices. Nine counties elected women as treasurers, three elected women as public administrators and one a recorder of deeds.

Ten women were elected to office in Michigan, including one state senator, but perhaps the most unique selections were those of Mrs. Estella K. Gates and Mrs. J. Johnson, both of whom succeeded their husbands as sheriff. Mrs. Gates takes an active part in the church and club work of Honor, county seat of Benzie county and has three children and six grandchildren. Mrs. Johnson, who is 65 years old says she is confident she can arrest any "bad man" who violates the law in Roscommon county. She will appoint her husband as deputy, and aside from caring for the prisoners of the county jail, will also look after the three children.

Miss Alice Samson, for ten years clerk in the county drain commissioner's office, at Hillsdale, Mich., barely defeated her employer for the position at the November election.

Mrs. Eva M. Hamilton, the first woman to sit in the Michigan state senate, is 40 years old, and a former school teacher. She is from Grand Rapids, where she is known as "The Mother of City Markets," having conceived and persuaded the city council to adopt a plan whereby farmers sell their products direct to the consumers.

This county treasurer, two registers of deeds, and one county clerk elected in Michigan in November, are also women.

Oklahoma gave three women distinctly prominent positions while she was about it. Aside from senator Alice Robertson, it also has a state senator, Mrs. Lamar Looney, and a state representative, Mrs. Beale McColegin, who were selected by the Oklahoma voters. Mrs. Looney, a widow and mother of five children, held the county clerkship in Greer county for four years and in addition managed a 160 acre farm, educated her children and succeeded in defeating her male opponent in the senatorial race by more than a two to one majority. Greer county also decided to have women as county clerk, assessor and treasurer.

Mrs. McColegin, who comes from Roger Mills county, has gained a reputation as a capable business woman as the result of association with her husband in telephone line operation.

Miss Annie Webb Blanton was re-elected superintendent of public instruction in Texas.

Kansas also re-elected a woman as state superintendent of public instruction, Miss Lorraine Elizabeth Wooster, of Salina. She has several degrees and was admitted to the Kansas bar. Miss Wooster is the author of several text books and attracted considerable attention by her anti-tobacco campaign, in which she advocated dismissal of any men instructors who used tobacco in any form.

Four women legislators, all elected to the lower house, will sit in the Kansas legislature. Mrs. Minnie Grinstead, of Seward county, was re-elected; the others are serving their first terms. They are:

Miss Nellie Kline, of Larned, who was elected from Parnas county on the democratic ticket although the county went republican by over 1,000 plurality. She is the law partner of her father, having been admitted to the bar in 1912.

Mrs. Minnie Munch, of Wellington, wife of a locomotive engineer, says she "got into politics to help defeat proposed compulsory military training." She lost a brother in the world war.

Mrs. Ida M. Walker, of Norton, was formerly president of the Kansas Federation of Women's Clubs, and has been a leader in state and local civic movements.

Miss Florence E. Allen, with nine men candidates opposing her, was elected common pleas judge of Cuyahoga county, Ohio. She is 35 years old, and has been a newspaper woman, law student and assistant county prosecutor since 1904. Miss Allen was admitted to the Ohio bar in 1914
