THE TURN OF THE TIDE.

"The almanacs say that winter begins on Dec. 21," says a naturalist. "They are wrong. It is spring that begins then, for the sun has turned north again, and all life starts to revive."

Another writer, a philosopher wise in human mysteries, has written:

"Between Christmas day and the day called Easter, the life of the earth is young. Then, too, the inner life has its rejuvenescence and its growth, and ideas then taken hold of and carried into expression have tenfold the power which they would have at another time.

"There is a tide in the affairs of men which, taken at the flood, leads on to fortune, it is said—which is merely an expression and recognition of the law of recurrent impression. For always there is the return of impression, from hour to hour, from month to month, from year to year. Taking advantage of all recurrent waves and seasons of uplift, we may go on from plane to plane, from state to state, from quality to quality of being.

"Whenever there is a spiritual idea in the heart or the mind, then is the beginning of the rising tide in that individual. Then is the time for him to take advantage of the cycle—to make every possible effort in the direction of his purpose. For the time is ripe, and the time will pass again just as surely as the sun moves northward, and then south again; and in the time of rising tide we must have acquired the stamina, the power of concentrated effort, which will hold us through the receding tide and give us a better standing place when the tide again rises."

These words were written with special application to Christmas. They also seem to apply with peculiar force to New Year's, which most people regard as the real turning point in the annual tide of human affairs. Do they not suggest the real secret of New Year's day, and offer support for the belief in honest New Year's resolutions?

There has been somewhat less regard shown of late for the New Year as an institution. If this philosophy is true—and it bears the stamp of truth—it should operate as a powerful stimulus in restoring the old reverence, and impelling people to take advantage of the spiritual, mental and moral opportunities the day offers.

There are times in the experience of every man and woman when personal effort for improvement or advancement seems futile, a struggle against the tide. New Year's day, by common acknowledgement, is different. It is easy then to take a fresh start; and if the new plan is launched with sincerity and force, it may go far. The time is propitious. There is new life and vigor in the air, new hope and confidence in people's minds. Why waste a favorable tide and wind? This is the time for reforms, for new ventures, for doing what was always impossible before. Make the most of it.

A bright, prosperous and busy 1921 is the forecast of those who have had their ear close to the business activities of the nation during the past few months.

The reason a good many married persons know they are mismated is because they would have been mismated no matter whom they'd married.

Above a certain point, about all that wealth seems to be able to give people is more automobiles. It used to be horses.

Who remembers the old-fashioned boy whose boast it was that he received 100 per cent in school deportment?

Everybody knows he grows older every year but he thinks nobody else notices it.

Look out for the bill collector. He'll be on the job early Monday morning.

A happy New Year!

Gilded Cabarets Not So Gilded

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—Habitues of gilded cabarets along the "gay white way" will have at least one reminder this New Year's eve of the old time rollicking midnight celebrations before the demise of John Barleycorn—the prices for viands will be as high as usual. In some establishments diners will be asked to pay $15 for cover charges as a preliminary fee for the mere privilege of paying still more for a meal.

Nearly all restauranteurs announced today that all tables had been reserved. Their menu proof sheets show among other things, cocktails, punches, fizzes, highballs, and juleps, but—the "foot notes" explain laboriously that these beverages are non-alcoholic.

GET MORE BUTTER

Mrs. Hattie Meece, of Glenn, Missouri, says: "I was not making enough butter from my cow's milk production for a family of two. After using Dr. LeGear's Stock Powders a short time, she gave a half gallon more milk a day, and a pound of butter a day."

Dr. LeGear's Stock Powders give to milk cows just what is needed to keep the digestive organs in proper condition, so that they get the most possible good from their feed. Give equally wonderful results when used for horses, hogs, and sheep, because they are a tonic, appetizer and worm expeller.

It matters not what ailment you may have among your stock or poultry, it will pay you to get the proper Dr. LeGear Remedy from your dealer. They are the Doctor's personal prescriptions, compounded during his 28 years of Veterinary Practice and Expert Poultry Breeding. They must satisfy you, or your dealer will refund your money.

Dealers everywhere. Sold in Roseburg by Vosburgh Bros.

Seaplanes Take Extended Flight

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 30.—Headed by the F-5-L, fourteen seaplanes left North Island navy air station this morning on the first lap of the proposed flight from San Diego to Panama Bay. By the plan of daylight flights from bay to bay or port to port, a check on the squadron's flight will be available.

SHEEP AND GOAT BREEDERS TO MEET ON TUESDAY

By order of the president, Loyal V. Emery, the Sheep and Goat Breeders Association of Douglas county will meet Tuesday afternoon, January 4, at the court house. The annual election of officers will be held at this time, followed by a business session. The manufacture of Douglas county wool and mohair into cloth will be the outstanding feature of the business session.

PUBLICATION DELAYED.

Publication of the News-Review yesterday was delayed until late last night on account of the electric power conditions. The outside mail was not completed until this morning and the lack of "juice" handicapped things generally. The carrier boys deserve a great deal of credit. They stayed on the job until late at night and in spite of the darkness of the city were able to supply the News-Review subscribers with their paper. The high waters at Winchester which forced the electric company to resort to their steam auxiliary plant, have receded somewhat today and it is hoped no further trouble will ensue.

GEO. W. ROUSE DEAD.

Geo. W. Rouse, formerly a resident of this city, where he had a run on the S. P. Co. line, died at San Francisco yesterday, according to a wire received here by friends. Is a Merry Widow

"Soon after my husband's death 9 years ago I was taken with typhoid fever. Since then have suffered from stomach and liver trouble and constipation. I have doctored a great deal without benefit. Since taking Mayr's Wonderful Remedy three months ago my bowels have moved regularly and I am feeling well again. I am now a happy woman." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Druggists everywhere.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Strickland, formerly of this city, but now living at Riddle, motored down to this city yesterday on a business trip. They say the recent rains have made the roads heavy, and slides in many places along the highway were reported.

BELLOWS STORE
DEPENDABLE MERCHANDISE

MRS. NANCY SHARP, of Los Angeles, who says she received one of the greatest surprises of her life when Tanlac completely restored her health after she had almost lost hope of ever getting well. Declares she suffered for twelve long years.

"After seeing the wonderful results my husband obtained from Tanlac I began taking the medicine myself, and now we both agree that it is the grandest medicine on earth," said Mrs. Nancy Sharp, a prominent and highly esteemed resident of Los Angeles, Calif., living at 921 Camulus street, whose husband is proprietor of the Merchants' Express Co.

"During the twelve years that I suffered with indigestion and stomach trouble I tried nearly every medicine I heard about, but nothing helped me and I lost faith in everything. So my wonderful restoration to health has been one of the greatest surprises of my life.

"I began to feel an improvement on finishing my second bottle of Tanlac, and now after taking six bottles I am like a new woman. I have a splendid appetite, eat three hearty meals a day, enjoy them thoroughly and am never troubled in the least with indigestion or any other disagreeable after effects.

"Before taking Tanlac most everything I ate caused my stomach to rebel and I would suffer for hours afterward. I was so dreadfully nervous that many nights I never closed my eyes in sleep, but now I am not the least nervous, and I sleep like a child. My strength has been wonderfully increased, and I have much more energy.

"I just wish it was so everybody troubled like I was knew about this wonderful medicine."

Tanlac is sold in Roseburg by W. F. Chapman; in Dixonville by Thos. Hatfield and by leading druggists everywhere.
