SMOKE.

Figures compiled by a statistician of the National Bureau of Standards show that if it were not for war expenditures of various kinds, all the expenses of the government could be met by the tobacco tax.

During the last 19 years the entire civil budget of the United States, including public works, legislative, executive and judicial activities, education, research and scientific development cost an average of $211,342,000 a year.

It is recognized that a well disciplined and well equipped standing army is necessary, and that an efficient navy is necessary.

Contemplated expenditures for the army and navy for next year have been put at about $1,500,000,000. Most of this is probably unavoidable, but much of it is surely superfluous.

Compare that sum with the $211,000,000 spent on all the peaceful activities of the government.

BUILDING STILL LACKS.

The housing situation may seem to have been relieved in recent months, but that relief is not real.

In some industrial cities there is improvement resulting from the departure of considerable numbers of workmen and their families, as unemployment developed.

There has also been a decrease in the number of homes required per capita, because people in the cities have "doubled up" to a greater extent than they used to.

An expert employed by the United States Chamber of Commerce estimates, on the basis of the annual construction rate during several years, that there is now a shortage of 1,250,000 houses.

Law and Order Sunday, Jan. 22, will be a Blue Sunday for all of the crooks, thugs, dead-beats, cut-throats, etc.

Governor Olcott urges the observance of law and order next Sunday. That's fine, governor, but why limit it to one day?

A murder trial still has its attractions—at any rate so it appears from the reports of the Los Angeles event.

Those few flakes of snow last night reminded us that winter is still here.

The Portland police seem to be afraid of their "Shadow."

FEWER LYNCHINGS.

The year which has so recently ended, has one gain to its credit which may not have been observed by many persons.

Of the 61 lynchings, Kansas, Minnesota, Illinois and Ohio were guilty of six. Eight of the total number of victims of mob violence were white men; the rest were negroes, one a woman.

The total improvement for 1920 is slight, but if it is maintained again this year it can be considered truly indicative of a real lessening of the evil.

The instances that offenders should be captured, tried and punished promptly, and with the just degree of severity, their crimes warrant, should increase.

STARVING CHINESE.

So much attention has been focused upon the hungry peoples of Central Europe that there seems to be little left to give to the hungry millions in China.

Last summer brought a terrific drought which involved five of the great Chinese provinces. As a result the people in those provinces are starving.

It is estimated that $3 will keep an average Chinese family alive for three months. Such a sum means little when taken out of the annual budget of the average family in the United States.

Contributions may be sent to Thomas W. Lamont, New York City.

An exchange "hits the nail on the head" commenting on the average reformer as follows: "A most artistic balling out President-elect Harding handed Lucy Page Gaston, the Kansas lady of numerous wars, who requested the chief executive to quit smoking."

When profiteers fall, honest men get a laugh.

Many Irrigation Permits Issued

During the months of October, November and December, 96 permits were issued by state engineer Percy A. Cupper, covering the appropriation of water from various streams and other sources for the irrigation of 28,398 acres of land.

To Mrs. Laura E. Cornutt of Myrtle creek covering the appropriation of water from North Myrtle creek for the irrigation of 15 acres.

To H. W. Hermann, Thos. Laughlin, W. C. Dement, Burgess Hargis, J. G. Morrison and Noble Andrews of Myrtle Creek covering the appropriation of water from North Myrtle Creek in Douglas county.

To Frank Sullivan of Canyonville covering the irrigation of a two acre tract with the waters of Canyon creek.

To W. S. Booth, of Azalea covering the appropriation of water from out of Booth Gulch for domestic supply.

To George M. Strong, of Kohler, Oregon, covering the appropriation of water from the right fork of Perkins creek for the irrigation of 40 acres, at a cost approximating $1,500.

To M. B. Green of Roseburg covering the appropriation of water of the South Umpqua river for the irrigation of 27 acres, for which construction work will cost approximately $1,000.

To H. M. Stimson of Myrtle creek covering the appropriation of water from Slide creek for the irrigation of 16 acres.

To J. J. Jackson of Glendale, Ore., covering the appropriation of water from Cow Creek for the irrigation of sixty acres at a cost of about $500.

City of Zion Gets Cleaned Up

(By Associated Press). ZION, Ill., Jan. 20.—In the general cleanup that is going on in the city of Zion, all slinky, profane, cheap, vaudeville phonograph records, must go.

"If any of you have these records in your homes you are sinning against God," said overseer Voliva, "and if I hear any such records in Zion Home, (the big 300 room hotel) I'll smash the records and throw them out of the window, it's disgusting to hear the trashy records such as Old Zion's where he swears. Come on, Zion, let's burn up these records. When you buy records buy them with some sense to them."

The next in line for clean up is the Sabbath Desecration. It has recently come to Voliva's ears that some young people have gone out auto riding on the Lord's day. The result is that Voliva has given orders that no taxi-cab was to leave the barn on Sunday except to go to and from the church, or to go "on the Lord Almighty's errands."

Switching back on the matter of women's dress once more, Voliva has given the warning that if he attends another wedding where the women are not properly dressed, he will put on his hat and depart.

Benson P. T. to Meet Tonight

The Benson Parent-Teachers Association will hold its regular meeting tonight at the school house at 7:30. An exceptionally interesting program has been prepared and a large attendance is urged by those in charge.

Chief of Police Misses Pocket Book

It has not yet been definitely determined whether the chief of police's pockets were picked, or whether he is the victim of the mysterious "Shadow" but at any rate Dave Shambrook this morning admitted that his pocketbook containing $15 perfectly good currency is missing.

After he had called in several local "pencil pushers" for a consultation and had satisfied himself that they were innocent of any crime he made the announcement of his loss. Dave, however, is of the opinion that he "just naturally lost it" and blames no one but himself.

Mrs. Hayden is doing well with her 41 hens, getting over two dozen eggs a day. The O. A. C. strain of Barred Rocks are certainly layers when they are properly cared for.

Peltons in Portland—The Oregon Journal has the following to say: "Jack Pelton, of Roseburg, is at the Imperial. Mr. Pelton was born in Sams valley, near Medford, in 1862. When 19 years old he went to eastern Oregon with a band of cattle, ranging his stock near the site of the present city of Bend, New Williamson was his nearest neighbor. In those days neighbors were 25 miles apart. If they were closer, the old settlers felt they had no elbow room. Mr. Pelton had extensive cattle interests at Klamath Falls, but sold out his property there a year ago. He and his wife are spending some weeks in Portland while Mr. Pelton serves on the federal grand jury. He is not saving very much of his salary of $3 a day he receives for this work."

One night it was my privilege to hear Dr. Bulgin preach; He tried with all his heart and mind The unredeemed to reach.

I have heard Billy Sunday Ae he preached in the east; I've heard Slough in Harrisburg, But they didn't spread a feast.

But Bulgin has, in my mind, Surpassed all the rest, Because now, before the close, His efforts are being blest.

So to my friend, Dr. Bulgin, I am forced these lines to pen, Hoping God may bless him, As he is a "Fisher of Men."
