Attended Meeting State Fair Board

A. C. Marsters, president of the State Fair board, returned this morning from Portland, where he attended a meeting of the state highway commission yesterday. Previous to going to Portland, Mr. Marsters spent several days at Salem, where a session of the fair board was held to outline a program of extensive improvements to the buildings and grounds at that city, and which it is proposed to complete before the next regular fair is held.

In speaking of the gathering of the highway commission at Portland yesterday, with county delegations from different parts of the state, Mr. Marsters was of the opinion that some definite action must be taken at once by this county if there is to be any likelihood of this section of the state benefiting to any great extent by the program outlined by the highway commission. The fullest cooperation must be given the commission and this county will be practically eliminated as far as any constructive road building is concerned unless a determined effort is put forth and carried out whereby this county can cooperate with the state highway commission on a fifty-fifty basis. With the season now opening for summer travel, it is imperative that something be done at once in order to take advantage of the highway construction program inaugurated for the present year.

Mr. Marsters stated the highway commission was ready and willing to apply its efforts to this, and that this body must be assured that the county will do something for itself.

New Temple Is Formally Opened

since the founding of the Roseburg lodge.

Mr. Wimberly quoted several very appropriate verses symbolizing the importance of the lodge and its anniversary, and closed by saying that the evening marked the close of a struggle of many years on the part of the faithful members of the lodge, and was the realization of their dream.

Committee Thanked.

A part of the program which was not on the schedule occurred when L. B. Moore rose, and said that his part of the program was at the request of the Rebekah lodge. He then requested Lyman Spencer to conduct Vivian Jackson, J. E. Pickens, E. S. Cordeiro, D. C. Humphrey, J. G. Stephenson, W. S. Howard, and O. H. Pickens to the front of the room, and then a vote of thanks was tendered them for their splendid work. These gentlemen comprise the building committee, with the exception of O. H. Pickens, who acted as chairman of the finance committee. Vivian Jackson responded on behalf of the committee.

Last Lyceum Number to Be Given Monday

The last number of the Lyceum Course, under the auspices of the Roseburg Monthly Music Club and the Roseburg High School student body association, will be given, Monday, March 14th.

Herbert Leon Cope, called the King of the Lyceum Humorists, will appear in this number, and will speak on the subjects, "The Smile That Won't Come Off," "Family Remedies" and "The Religion of Laughter". Mr. Cope is a well-known humorist and has made more than a million soldiers laugh. Mr. Cope put the bright spot in the camp life of more than a million soldiers and marines in the recent war, and the doughboys have nick-named him "Kill the Blues" Cope. He has seen quite a bit of the world and a dozen years ago was the biggest hit on the Lyceum and Chautauqua platforms of America. He broke every return engagement record ever set up. ### Mind of Woman Becomes Deranged

With her mind affected by trouble and religious beliefs, a resident of South Mill street was examined yesterday by the county health officials and is being cared for by them until it is decided what disposition to make of the case. The attention of neighbors was drawn to the woman when they noticed that she had been sitting on the porch of her dwelling all day, with her eighteen months old baby girl in her arms. She talked continually, and when questioned by the neighbors said that she was all right and that her baby did not need feeding. Other remarks concerning religious matters were made by her, and when she resisted all effort made by ladies of the neighborhood to care for her the authorities were called. The baby was blue and sick from cold and hunger and is being cared for by friends. The officials are of the opinion that she is suffering from a temporary derangement of the mind. Her husband, who is in California, has been sent for and will arrive tomorrow. The woman is refined and cultured and has a very attractive home.
