

Interest Shown In Meeting Tonight

Considerable interest is being shown in the meeting to be held at the city hall tonight for the purpose of discussing the plans for the coming strawberry carnival. Mayor Hamilton will preside at this meeting and has called it promptly for 7:30. An effort will be made to rush the business of the session in order that it may be adjourned in time for those present to attend the other attractions in the city. It will be determined tonight whether or not a carnival will be held this year, and whether or not outside concessions will be allowed. Other plans will be considered and adopted and committees appointed to handle this event. It is urged that all people interested in a carnival for this year be present.

Roseburg Company Gets Letter "D"

SALEM, March 28.—Adjutant General George A. White today received orders from the war department for a complete reorganization of the Oregon National Guard. The reorganization will meet the new war department tables of organization.

Under this arrangement there will be in every infantry battalion one machine gun company and three rifle companies.

In the reorganization of the fifth Oregon infantry, the following changes are made: Company D of Medford is transferred to be separate companies; company D at Medford becomes separate company A; old company M at Salem becomes company P, fifth infantry, and the letter M goes to Corvallis.

This is necessary because the war department makes all letters M, H and D machine gun companies.

Company D, Medford's old letter, goes to the new machine gun company at Roseburg, which now becomes part of the fifth infantry. Company H of Portland becomes the regimental bowitzer company, a new type of unit, and the letter H goes to the old regimental machine gun company at Portland.

Loganberries Will Sell For Seven Cents

SALEM, Or., March 27.—Prices for loganberries will be fixed for the 1921 season at 7 cents a pound, raspberries at 12 cents, gooseberries at 7 cents and strawberries at 3 cents, in case the recommendations made by a committee of the growers at a meeting here last night finally are approved.

The committee was expected to hold a conference with buyers next week and report back to the growers as an organization at a meeting held in Salem April 4. More than 200 persons, most of whom are engaged in producing some kind of berries, were in attendance at the meeting.

Last year loganberries brought as high as 16 cents a pound, with the result that several local processing plants were forced to suspend operations. This was due to the inability of the processors to place their product on the market at a price that would attract consumers.

The Phee company, which in past years has handled most of the loganberry crop in the Willamette valley, processed only a small quantity of the fruit last season, due to the high prices. Whether the plant will operate this season has not been definitely decided.
