

REMODELING SALE

A Sacrifice Sale of Womens and Childrens Shoes. The Sale is now on and continues all this week. Positively ends Saturday, April 8th. We have to make room for the contractors who go to work on April 11th. Shoes on Sale at the Lowest Prices Shoes have been sold for in years. Be on hand SATURDAY. We are going to sell 1/2 of our Stock during this Sale. Prices that will do the work prevail.

ROSEBURG BOOTERIE

IRVIN BRUNN

Perkins Building

Shoes that Satisfy and Fit your Feet

Cass Street

AROUND THE TOWN

From Rice Hill—

Miss Dora Glaze arrived in the city this morning from Rice Hill to spend the morning shopping and visiting with friends.

Away on Business—

T. E. Singleton left this morning for Myrtle Creek and Doud Prairie where he will spend several days attending to business matters.

Returns to Eugene—

Howard Bailey returned to the University of Oregon last evening after spending the past week in this city visiting with his parents.

To Attend Board Meeting—

Rev. C. H. Hilton, of the Christian church, left last night for Portland, where he will attend a meeting of the state board.

To Portland—

Mrs. E. L. Watson of this city left last evening for Portland, where she will spend several days visiting with friends and attending to business matters.

Gets Marriage License—

A marriage license has been issued at Vancouver to Archie B. Amadon, of Portland, formerly of this city, and Marjorie Wirth, of Portland. Mr. Amadon is a brother of Mrs. Lyle Marsters of this city.

Grill Opens Tomorrow—

The Grand Grill will be open to the public tomorrow under the new management of Frank Boles. The place has been thoroughly cleaned and now help will be secured for the dining room and kitchen. The place promises to be one of the finest dining rooms in the city.

Annual Meeting Will Be Held—

The annual congregational meeting of the Presbyterian church will be held Wednesday evening. The Presbyterian church year ended March 31. The reports from the boards and societies of the church will be made at this annual meeting. Officers elected and other necessary business transacted. The meeting will begin at 6 o'clock with a pot-luck supper and fellowship hour, held in the parlors of the church. This will be followed at 8 p. m. with the business and devotional service held in the auditorium. It is expected that the membership of the church will be present as far as possible and all the friends of the congregation are invited. This is an annual occasion to which those interested in the welfare of the church and her mission look forward.

From Melrose—

Frank Schubert of Melrose was in the city today for several hours attending to business matters.

From Olalla—

E. E. Wells and Henry Croucher of Olalla were in the city today attending to business matters.

Camas Visitor—

Bert Neely of Camas Valley was in the city today spending several hours attending to business matters.

From Sutherlin—

Mrs. L. E. Santee arrived in the city this morning from Sutherlin to spend the day attending to business matters.

Returns from Spokane—

Mrs. E. M. Seely returned here today after spending the past two weeks in Spokane. Mrs. Seely was called to that city upon the death of her father, C. K. Sackett.

Motors to Portland—

E. W. Hughes, prominent Ashland resident passed through this city yesterday by machine. Mr. Hughes will motor as far north as Portland where he will remain several days attending to business matters.

Scenario Writer Visits—

Mrs. Virginia Allen who has been a guest of Mrs. Rose Pargeter for the past week, left for California today. Mrs. Allen is quite talented along the lines of scenario writing, and will enter a school in the south and study extensively along this line.

Motor South—

Mr. and Mrs. M. Wittinburg and family, of Portland, passed through this city yesterday enroute south. The trip from Portland to this city was made in about eight hours, and shows the good condition of the roads.

New Orchestra Organized—

The "Sunset Dance Orchestra" is the name of a new orchestra organized here this week. This orchestra will furnish music for the Sportsmen three night festival this week at the armory and will also play for the Tiller dances. The orchestra is composed of professional musicians and has a repertoire of brand new dance hits. The orchestra will also appear at the armory every Saturday night.

Auxiliary Meets Tonight—

Members of the Auxiliary to the American Legion will hold their regular meeting tonight at 8 p. m. in the armory. Many important matters are to come up at this time, and it is urged that every member be present. If there are those who are not eligible for membership and have not been attending, come tonight and sign your membership card. The social time for the two organizations has been postponed until the next meeting night.

AROUND THE TOWN

Here from Riddle—

Bob Townsend of Riddle was a business visitor to this city today.

To Riddle—

Dr. E. B. Stewart left this morning by machine for Riddle to make several professional calls. He will return here this evening.

Resting Easily—

Dan Bollenbaugh, who was recently injured in a shooting accident is said to be slowly improving. His relatives are remaining in this city and are at his bedside constantly.

Returns to Oakland—

Mrs. T. Leatherwood returned to her home in Oakland this afternoon after spending the past week visiting with her son, B. F. Goodman.

Returns to Wisconsin—

J. H. Mason, who has been spending several weeks here visiting with his cousin, S. J. Jones, returned to his home at Oshkosh today. Mr. Mason speaks very favorably of the country.

In Town Today—

Mrs. R. S. Hutton and Mrs. Ritchie, well known Garden Valley residents, spent a few hours in Roseburg today shopping and visiting with friends.

Leaves for Portland—

A. S. Huey, who has been spending the past week in this city on business, left for Portland this afternoon where he will remain for several days attending to business matters.

Dance to Be Held Tonight—

The armory will be the scene of a public dance tonight sponsored by the ladies of St. Joseph's parish. A large crowd is expected to attend and several fine features are planned for the amusement of the public.

Condition Improved—

Willis Moffitt, who was recently taken to the hospital with a broken leg is said to be getting along as well as could be expected. Mr. Moffitt sustained his injuries in an accident when his motorcycle collided with an automobile.

Opens Classes at Armory—

Mrs. Henry Ydstie, instructor in Physical Education, is now holding her classes at the Elks' armory. Mrs. Ydstie is a Chicago Normal teacher and is a professional in aesthetic and gymnastic work. Her list of scheduled classes appears elsewhere in this issue.

Don't forget that we sell Fisk Red Top Tires. Lotta miles. C. A. Lockwood Motor Co.

Music Club Will Have Fine Program

The Music club will hold their regular meeting at the Heintze conservatory tonight. A short business meeting followed by a special program has been arranged and the evening will prove very entertaining. The committee in charge of refreshments for the evening is under the management of the men of the club. Following is the program for the evening.

Piano solo—C. H. Arundel.
Vocal solo—Miss Naomi Phelps.
Violin solo—Gordon Stewart.
Vocal solo—Walter Fisher.

Junior orchestra, directed by W. E. Ott—Barbara Ott, piano; Ross Bates, drums; Gene Burt, saxophone; Ellsworth Ott, violin; Ray Burt, clarinet; Kenneth Olson, cornet.

Violin solo—P. F. Hirsch.
Reading—Mrs. F. H. Helliwell.
Marimba selections—Vernon Sueko.

Mr. Sueko is employed at Ott's music store and is well known as a marimba soloist.

AROUND THE TOWN

C. E. Austin of Sutherlin was a business visitor to this city today.

Don't forget that we sell Fisk Red Top Tires. Lotta miles. C. A. Lockwood Motor Co.

A new sign has been placed over the entrance of the A. T. Lawrence real estate company.

See us about that exchange of natural demountable wood wheels for your old wheels. C. A. Lockwood Motor Co.

M. S. Ryan, one of Riddle's prominent residents, was in the city today paying his taxes and looking after business matters.

Moco Monkey grip for all tube repair work and general rubber repairs. H. Merten.

Mrs. E. Marcy and daughter of Ashland were in the city yesterday visiting with relatives and friends.

George Weaver of Myrtle Creek underwent a minor nasal operation in this city Saturday. Dr. Seely was in attendance.

Miss Josephine Coleman spent yesterday in the city attending to business matters. Miss Coleman is a resident of Canyonville.

A marker sign has been placed at the city dump grounds by order of Mayor Hamilton to stop the practice of driving promiscuously over the orchard there.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Reiser, of Sutherlin, were in the city today attending to business matters. Mr. Reiser recently sold his farm at Sutherlin and expects to leave for Kansas in the near future.

A number of residents are in the city today from Oakland attending to business matters. Among those in the city today were T. B. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. O. Cooper, Fair Oaks; Mr. Fortin and Rush Clarke.

Mrs. E. L. Giles of this city underwent a serious throat operation this morning at the Mercy hospital. She is reported to be doing nicely. George Frew also underwent a similar operation this morning at the hospital.

The Art Embroidery Club will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Engleson Winchester street. The afternoon will be spent with social conversation and music, after which a delightful luncheon will be served.

A chimney fire at the home of E. G. Hagar on South Main street, resulted in a fire alarm this afternoon. The fire department responded and opened the chimney, which was badly blocked with soot. B. W. Strong, the owner of the house, made a very liberal cash donation to the members of the fire department for their services.

While operating a tractor on his farm near Riddle today, Jesse Lawrence, brother of A. T. Lawrence of this city, was quite badly injured. The machine toppled over and in doing so caught Mr. Lawrence, carrying him to the ground and in juring him quite severely. It was some time before he was discovered and when taken from underneath the machine was badly bruised. The exact nature of his injuries was not learned.

PORTLAND, April 5.—(A. P.)—Wage reductions equaling the increase granted last summer were announced today by the Spokane, Portland & Seattle Railway company, effective April 12.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TO HOLD MEETING

The Chamber of Commerce will hold its regular monthly meeting tonight at the city hall and it is urged that as many as can possibly do so be in attendance. Although there are a number of counter attractions, a big attendance of Chamber of Commerce members is desired as matters regarding the future policy of the organization must be considered.

MASONS ATTENTION.

A special communication of Laurel Lodge No. 13, A. F. & A. M., will be held in the Masonic temple Wednesday, April 6th, at 2:30 p. m. Work in the M. M. degree. Dinner will be served at 6:30. All members requested to be present.

By order of W. M.

W. F. HARRIS, Secy.

PHYSICAL TRAINING CLASSES.

Will meet at the Elks' hall as follows: Ladies' morning class, Thursday at 10 o'clock; ladies' evening class, Thursday at 7:30 o'clock; Junior girls, Tuesday at 4 p. m., and Saturday at 2:30 p. m.; high school girls, Wednesday 4 p. m., and Saturday at 1:30 p. m. Private lessons by appointment. MRS. YDSTIE.

We have it, Rat Corn for rats and mice. Churchill Hwd. Co.

How about a set of Hassler Shock Absorbers for that Ford car? 30 days free trial. C. A. Lockwood Motor Co.

NEW TODAY.

FOR SALE—Watkins products. 126 West Lane.

FOR SALE—Munger blackcap tips. 246-L. 1370 Empress Ave.

FOR SALE—1916 Harley-Davidson motorcycle. 125. C. A. Lockwood Motor Co.

FOR SALE—Woodstock typewriter. Elite type, nearly new, $45. W. M. Hiney.

WANTED TO RENT—Modern furnished or unfurnished house by April 10th. Phone 274-L.

LOST—Time book. Finder please leave at News-Review office. L. W. Ingels.

FOR SALE—50 White Leghorn hens, thoroughbred O. A. C. stock, $1.50 each. 125 Cass Street. Phone 219.

FOR SALE—Small steel range, open-top, 125. C. A. Lockwood Motor Co.

WANTED—True, gentle team of mares 5 or 6 years old. Must be reasonable. Call at Jarvis 2nd Hand Store.

FOR SALE—Woodstock typewriter, almost new. Will sacrifice for cash. See Mr. Carlson, Room 227 Empress Hotel, Tuesday evening.

FOR SALE—Thick & good time, paint, and mechanically A. 1, $125. Terms by April 10th. New valves, cages, etc. W. M. Hiney.

FOR SALE—Real estate contracts, $1000 at 7 per cent, $2250 value, $1200 at 7 per cent on $4500 value. Will deed you property for amount of contract. W. M. Hiney.

NOTICE—Party who took young cherry trees from M. C. Radabaugh place on Pine street Monday night, better return trees at once and save trouble, as party is known. M. C. Radabaugh.

FOR RENT—10 acre fruit and poultry ranch, 3 miles from town, from three to five hundred a year income above rent. See this quick. A. T. Lawrence, Commercial Agent, 125 Cass Street. Phone 219.

ALL persons indebted to W. M. Hiney or W. M. Hiney can pay same this week to W. M. Hiney. After April 10th these amounts will be placed in the hands of an attorney for collection. W. M. Hiney.

SHEEP—2500 acres, 200 acres creek bottom land, 100 acres in crop; live springs and running water on place; three year old best sheep range in the country; two good houses, two barns, other outbuildings and improvements, located near Roseburg. Price $15.00 per acre. Terms, A. T. Lawrence, Commercial Agent, 125 Cass Street. Phone 219.

FOR SALE—All or part of 10 acres now divided in 40-15-15, located almost directly across Umpqua River from Soldiers Home. This land contains considerable river frontage and has wonderful prospects with coming improvements and the continued growth of Roseburg. Cash, or on time—with reasonable payment down. O. D. Olson, 101-10 North La Salle St., Chicago, Illinois.

Maud Lombard to Stage Exhibit

EUGENE, April 5.—Announcement is made today that the grand demonstration in the line of physical education which was to have been staged in the armory in March will be presented on Friday, April 8, under the direction of Miss Gladys Conklin and Miss Maud Lombard.

Participating in this event will be 350 girls of the high school who will give a series of beautiful drills, evolution poses and symbolic dances, combining these latter under the title of "Wecoming of Spring". The various evolutions on the floor of the armory will be made more attractive by special lighting effects and ornamental settings along with musical features. The affair, which will represent both education and entertainment will be open to the public.

CHARMING WEDDING

The wedding of Miss Lola Marian Parker and Thomas R. Godley was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Parker, in Wilbur, at three o'clock, Sunday afternoon, Rev. George P. Trites of the Methodist Episcopal church officiating. The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Before the wedding ceremony a dinner was served to Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Parker, Misses Gladys and Violet Godley, Misses Beulah and Golda Parker and Messrs. Lawrence Parker and Chas. Sands.

Immediately after the ceremony, the bride and groom left for Portland on their wedding trip. They expect to make their home in Wilbur, where the groom is employed.

See us about that exchange of natural demountable wood wheels for your old wheels. C. A. Lockwood Motor Co.

SURPRISE PARTY GIVEN

Saturday night, April 4, a surprise party was given to Mr. and Mrs. J. Parrott and family, prior to their departure for their new home in the Valley. Early in the day, the ladies of the Improvement Society went to the home to arrange and decorate the house with flags and at eight o'clock, when the bride arrived, the house was all aglow with lights and the strains of music could be heard from a distance. The party was beautifully set for about 100 guests. After supper, Mrs. J. Parrott, president of the club, made short address, presenting them to a chair as a token of their ship. The remainder of the evening and Mrs. Parrott expect to have been spent in games and music. Their new home is about two miles from Eugene.

How about a set of Hassler Shock Absorbers for that Ford car? 30 days free trial. C. A. Lockwood Motor Co.

VOCATIONAL TRAINING WORKER IN THE

Gus H. Booker, of the board of vocational training was Roseburg today lining up jobs for ex-service men who are being trained in new lines of work.

government has a large number of men who are being trained in various industries. After a course of vocational training, the men in actual positions. The employer is required to report upon the progress made by the man in the event his work is not satisfactory he is removed and substituted. The employer is required to pay a portion of the salary and the government pays the balance. Men are being trained practically all lines of work and positions of all sorts are needed.

Before buying your suit investigate Lees. H. Merle.

SHOE DEPARTMENT IN NEW BASEMENT

OUR BASEMENT

It is
Full of Bargains

It is
Full of Bargains

OUR BASEMENT

It is
Full of Bargains

There are shoes and shoes
Quite reliable Quite reasonable

A tasty array of specially adapted footwear for sport wear, for the dance, for the street, and for every conceivable outdoor and summer usage.

Walking Oxfords

New Brogue and saddle vamps in dark brown and tony red, military heel. A Buster Brown or Maxine oxford. Absolutely none more serviceable, none prettier. The price

$5.00 5.50 6.00 7.50 8.50 9.00

Ladies Pumps

Maxine black kid, plain pumps, turn sole and French heel. Also patent tie, French heel, a new lot at a special price for a very few days; all sizes. Now

$4.45

ATTENTION!

Customers have been telling us, ours is the most up to date and most reasonably priced shoe store in Roseburg. However, this could not be otherwise since we feature Buster Brown shoes for children, Maxine shoes for women and White House shoes for men.

Tonight 15c
The Antlers
Tonight 25c

Oh! Can't Somebody Make Me Laugh?
—SEE—

DOROTHY GISH

Screenland's funniest girl, in

"Little Miss Rebellion"

She just couldn't be the regular girl she craved as a grand-dad, then bang! went a revolution and blew her straight into love and a job in a New York beanery.

Whirls of Excitement—A Riot of Laughs

ALSO

Max Sennett Comedy and Pathe News.

Wednesday—"Bringing up Father" Road Show

Majestic THEATRE

15c—TONIGHT ONLY—25c

Have you a little vamp in your home? If not and you crave excitement, get one at once.

"IN THE HEART OF A FOOL"

A powerful photodrama with a punch. A thrilling story of day folks, depicting Love, Sacrifice, Mob Violence, Disaster and Catastrophe.

—ALSO—

Sunshine Comedy and King of the Circus