Roseburg, Oregon, April 6, 1921

NATIONAL PROSPERITY WEEK.

The business organizations of the country have been asked to join in the observance of the week April 4-11 as National Prosperity Week. A great many cities will have parades and other demonstrations, with big advertising in the newspapers, motion picture publicity, and a general effort to push business.

In hard times business people are too confident, and they reach out on an insecure foundation. A shaky business structure is created and disaster follows. And then people go to the opposite extreme when business is quiet. They foresee exaggerated calamities, and make no proper preparation for the coming wave of prosperity. The rebound of business catches them unawares, and they are left trailing behind the procession.

Such a period of dull business as has prevailed during the past few months carries within itself its own cure. It tends to destroy artificially inflated conditions. Money rates had gone up so far as to discourage enterprise. When these are cut down, business men are encouraged to branch out on a larger scale. This increased purchasing power starts up the factories and these de-pressions end more quickly than people expect.

If one man goes ahead in a way showing that he has faith in the business future, it encourages a lot of other people to start up, and attempt production on a bigger scale.
The business men of Roseburg have always been boosters, and they will do their share to put over a trade revival. Depression really has been greatly exaggerated, because many industries have been running full time. Their prosperity must help promote a normal level of consumption.

SPRING MILLINERY.

The average man never quite approves of his wife's millinery bill.
He argues that he can get a rather good hat at present values for $5.00, and he fails to see just how his wife pays $10 to $15 or more.

The character and purposes of the two sexes show some divergence at this point. The man wears a hat for a purely utilitarian purpose, to protect his head from cold in winter and from heat in summer. Attempts to add decorative and artistic features occasionally gain some ground among the young fellows. But the conservative citizen with a variegated hat band would be apt to get his "lid" knocked off, if he ventured into some circles.

Some people will maintain that these highly artistic millinery operations are meant that even in these prosperous days when women have gone into the business field on terms of competitive struggle, they are still bent on fascinating the men in the same way their grandmothers did.
But somehow the time when they feel the keenest need for perfect dress is when they meet the critical eyes of their own sex. They feel instinctively that men are more easily satisfied.

Man's experiences in working in the dust and dirt of offices and factories, have left him a rather poor judge of what is artistic and beautiful. Women in quiet hours at home, have developed and handed down keener tastes of color and harmony.
It is an education in artistic sense for the men to look at these charming creations that the women have purchased at the beautiful millinery establishments. It is a pleasure to note that they conform to higher standards of taste each year.

One of the essential elements in a progressive and up-to-date community, is suitable provision for wholesome athletic sports, and other recreations. A city that supports a good ball team, that has facilities for playing tennis and other out door sports, which provides opportunity for the standard indoor sports in winter, will attract far more people than one in which these facilities are not well developed. Well conducted playgrounds are one of the most effective of the agencies of modern education. "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy" is a saying that applies to grown-ups as well as children.

A bill is being prepared for the special session of congress, under which a provision of the sundry civil appropriation act, passed in the last congress, prohibiting deputy clerks or other assistants in the offices of federal courts throughout the country accepting any emolument additional to that paid them by the government, it would be repealed. It is pointed out that federal courts in all sections of the country are hard hit because they do not receive a living wage under the present law will have to resign unless provision is made for them accepting other employment of a proper character.

The live advertisers of Roseburg through the columns of the News-Review are offering some exceptionally fine bargains in the way of merchandise and wearing apparel of all kinds. It is a mighty hard proposition to find anything better at a less price than offered by your home merchant. He's the boy that oils the wheels of progress in the home community and makes it possible for you to enjoy the advantages of a large line of merchandise from which to make your selection. It certainly pays to lay where a personal guarantee is at your disposal.

MRS. REIFENSTEIN, AGED
67, GAINS 25 POUNDS

Declares She Would Like To Put a Bottle of Tanlac
In The Hands Of Every Sick Man, Woman and Child In This Country—Never Saw
Its Equal.

MRS. EMMA REIFENSTEIN
337 Webster Ave., Syracuse, N. Y.

"I am sixty seven years of age but in all my experience I have never known a medicine like Tanlac. Think of it! At my age to gain twenty-five pounds in weight, but that is just what I have done," declares Mrs.
Emma Reifenstein of No. 337 Webster avenue, Syracuse, N. Y.

"If I had it to my power," she continued, "I would put a bottle of Tanlac in the home of every sick man, woman and child in this country, for I know what this wonderful medicine would do for them. For almost two years, I was almost a nervous wreck. I did not dare to leave the house or even go up town unless my husband was with me. I was afraid to even cross the street, and had a feeling of dread all of the time.

"My stomach was weak and easily upset. For days at a time I would go without solid food. I could not rest at night to do any good and felt tired and worn out all the time.
Some days I could hardly drag myself across the room and was so weak and miserable that I was ready to give up.

"My health is fine now and I eat anything I want and never have a touch of indigestion. I have never felt better than I do now. My recovery is the talk of the neighborhood, as it was generally believed Baying away from home is like feeding a baby on skim milk. You can survive on the diet for awhile but in the long run you'll soon give out.

If you lose, your friends say, "Well, you can't expect to win every time." And if you win, your enemies say, "We'll get you next time."

Some people are just so unfortunate they go through life without even getting a chance to kill the goose that lays the golden egg.

A pompous little man always thinks he is being imposed upon—and he's generally right.

The reason a woman is always right in any argument is because she is a woman.

Mighty fine spring weather the local observer is turning out.

A Kansas City boy was arrested while stealing a car. The judge has decided to give him another chance.

Speaking of miracles—Lot's wife was turned into a pillar of salt because she looked backward. Would it not be a shame if the same thing happened to a lot of the fresh manners here in Roseburg, who stop and look back every time they see one of the fair sex wearing a short skirt?

Wall, Mebbe, it is.
Says Uncle Abner Skittle,
That a woman kin talk such a lot,
And say such an awful little.

Some people always think of a tin can tied to a dog's tail as a symbol of William Bryan's relation to his party.

Though his back may be worse than his bite, we'd rather see the pup wag his tail.

Tourist Bureau
to Open Soon

A tourist information bureau will be opened in this city within the next few weeks by Charles Lerry who is now preparing his place of business on Jackson street for this change and for the accommodation of other business moves. He is having built two large signs which he will use in imparting the desired information to tourists and is making other arrangements to meet the travelers who pass through this part of the state. One of the large signs will carry a map of the Pacific highway through Oregon. It will be mounted on rollers and each day changes will be made denoting obstructions, points where work is being done, detours and other information which is desired by the tourist. Mr. Lerry has affiliated with the State Tourist Association which is furnishing daily reports and will keep the information up to date at all times. The other sign will carry a map of the vicinity immediately surrounding Roseburg and showing points of scenic interest, orchards, farming communities, camping spots, fishing and hunting districts and other data pertaining immediately to Douglas county. In addition to this bureau Mr. Lerry will handle box lunches, light refreshments, fruits and other articles for the benefit of the traveling public.

Mental Culture Club
Has Good Meeting

The ladies of the '95 Mental Culture Club met at the Parish house yesterday afternoon for one of the best attended and most enthusiastic meetings of the year. The club had designated this meeting as "Shakespeare Day," and the study of Shakespeare and his works were taken up. The meeting was further made noteworthy by the attendance of the Garden Valley Improvement Club who motored to Roseburg in a body to be present at the meeting. The ladies present from Garden Valley were Mrs. John Sinclair, president of the club; Mrs. Erwin Page, Mrs.
J. D. Young, Mrs. J. E. Nash, Mrs.
J. H. Parrott, Mrs. Peter Sinclair, Mrs. R. S. Hutton, Mrs. S. P. Rearday, Mrs. R. A. Calhoun, Mrs. E.
Brand, Mrs. G. M. Barton, Mrs. C.
E. LaBrie, Hugh Ritchie and Mrs.
E. Miss Laoni Phelps sang two selections, Mrs. T. E. Ollivant gave a Shakespeare reading, Mrs. C. H.
Baley gave a humorous reading, Shakespeare games were played. At the close of the program a social hour was enjoyed. Punch and wafers were served by Mrs. V. N. Fields and Mrs.
George Wharton.

Prodigal Son, Is
Revival Topic

(By Rev. C. H. Hilton)
Another good crowd was present last night at the Christian church.
This is going to be the best week of the meeting. Some very interesting subjects are being discussed.
The evangelist is conducting a query box this week. The song, "Over the Top For Jesus," is becoming very popular with the crowd. Last night Mr. Silvers spoke on the "Downward Steps of a Past Young Man." He drew a mental picture of the lost coin, the lost sheep and the lost boy. He took the word Father and pictured the downward steps in sin by each letter. Every prodigal takes the same steps. There was his desire for freedom from parental restraint; his hard shuffling manner, Extremity and Reception.
Sin will drive a man from a palace to a hovel. The prodigal came to himself, and when he did, he came back to his father. When he came back he was received at once, and there was great rejoicing.

There was one confession at the close of the service. Many more are thinking.
Mr. Silvers believes in the Book.
One of his slogans is, "It is not what you think, or I think, but what does the Book say." His constant slogan is to the book.

"Tonight he speaks on 'Bridging the Chasm.' It will be illustrated by a large chart. Thursday night he will speak on the subject, 'Will My Mother's Religion Save Me?' Friday night he will conduct a great service in honor of Mother. It will be a service long to be remembered. A cordial welcome awaits you at the Christian church.

lows: Ladies' morning class, Thurs-pets and rugs. The Medford Fluff

Music Club Program
Finest This Season

The members of the Music Club were entertained with an exceptionally fine program last evening.
Their regular meeting. Some of the finest talent of the city was secured, and a large attendance helped to make the meeting one of the most successful this season. This organization has a large enrollment and it is a great asset to this community.
The violin solos by Gordon Stewart and Mr. Hirsch were exceedingly fine. Miss Phelps and Walter Fisher received many encores upon their vocal solos and the Junior orchestra rendered several pleasing numbers. Mrs. F. Hillwell gave an interesting reading and the piano solos by C. H. Arndel and the marimba selections by Vernon Suckow were greatly appreciated. Mr. Suckow is listed as a marimba soloist.

EXPECTS HEAVY TOURIST
TRAVEL THIS SUMMER
Tourist travel from California north is going to be extremely heavy and a great many of the tourists will remain in the northern states for a number of weeks, according to H. J.
Johnson, of the Waverly Oil Co., who has just returned from a trip all through the state of California obtaining data on the outlook for tourist travel. The extremely dry, hot summer of last year has caused many Californians to plan on a northern trip during the warm season, Mr.
Johnson says, and with the Pacific highway in good condition the number of tourists will be greatly increased.
