Frost Damage
Was Not Severe

According to early reports Douglas county has been the least injured of any of the counties along the coast from San Francisco north by the frosts of the past week, County Fruit Inspector Armstrong states. Mr.
Armstrong has been making a survey of the county to determine the amount of damage done by the frost and states that the damaged sections appear to run in belts. In districts close to Roseburg peaches have been entirely killed in a few orchards.
Other orchards, however, in some localities, show practically no damage.
There are a few spots in the county where the peaches have been touched by frost but generally there has been little damage. With the exception of a very few isolated orchards cherries are not damaged in the least. Apples being later than the other fruits have not been hurt at all. There are a few damaged pear orchards, pears suffering the heaviest second to peaches. Some of the early strawberry blossoms were killed, but Mr.
Armstrong states that there will be little loss in this crop.

Mother's Day to Be Observed Tonight

At the close of a fine sermon last night on "Will My Mother's Religion Save Me?" one more person responded to the invitation of the gospel.
The audience that greeted the speaker was most cheering because of the large number of outside attractions.

Many people are highly gratified with this revival, and consider the speaker one of the best who has ever come to Roseburg. The music also has won a large place in the hearts of the people, and the quartette that sings almost every evening is deli-ghting all. Tonight there will be many special features. Mr. Olson and Mr. Suckow will give an instrumental duet. Mr. Olson will use the cornet and Mr. Suckow the mariмбаxylophone. This instrument is new to Roseburg audiences, and the man who plays it is an expert who has recently arrived here and who consented to help on the special mothers' day service tonight. The children's chorus will also sing tonight in honor of mother, and the sermon will be on "Mother." The quartette will sing a most beautiful selection, and the regular stirring song service with the old songs that mother used to sing. The congregation looks forward to another great day on Sunday. Bible school begins promptly at 9:45. Great interest is manifest in the Bible school. Mr.
Stivers will preach both morning and evening, and will give two of his most important subjects on that day. The Y. P. S. C. E. will meet at 6:30 Sunday evening, and will have a fine program led by the boys' division. Attendants tonight are requested to wear in honor of mother a white flower if dead and a red or pink one if she is living.

Says Husband
Is Not Murderer

(By United Press.)
BUFFALO, April 8.—"He is innocent. He whispered to me in the district attorney's office. Don't believe that Elwell story because I'm innocent." Mrs. Roy Harris, the wife of the man who confessed that he was one of two paid assassins the murder of Joseph B. Elwell, wealthy New York turfman, made this statement to the United Press today.
Young, smiling and pretty, and not at all nervous, she coolly dismissed her husband's confession as a fabrication of a disordered mind. "He is not guilty, just crazy," she said.

TO PLANT 450,000 TREES.

Plans for the spring planting of burned over areas on national forests of Oregon and Washington have been completed, according to J. F.
Kummel, in charge of reforestation for the local forest service bureau.
About 450,000 trees from the Wind River nursery will be planted in areas on the Rainier, Santiam and Crater national forests, the first in Washington and the other two being in this state.

Gives Tanlac Credit
For Splendid Health

T. J. PARKER
4246 Juneau Street, Seattle, Wash.

"I used to think all the Tanlac testimonials were exaggerated, but I have felt thankful a thousand times I ever believed in it strong enough to give the medicine a trial," said T.
J. Parker, well-known salesman for Gately's clothing store, residing at 4246 Juneau St., Seattle, Wash.
"Several years ago I commenced having periodic spells of sickness and a few months ago I had an attack that I felt would finish me.
When I did finally get up, I was scarcely able to go. I had no appetite and what little I forced myself to eat caused so much gas on my stomach I could hardly get my breath.

"All the men at the store know Tanlac put me back on my feet, and I am glad to give this statement for what it may be worth to others."

MEETING IN OAKLAND.

Saturday night, April 16, the Oakland camp of Woodmen of the World will be 25 years old, and they are going to celebrate in good old Woodmen style. Fifty new members will be initiated by the team and officers from Eugene camp. Delegations will be present from the eight camps in Douglas county, as well as several prominent members from Portland and Salem. A splendid banquet will be served.

Thought His Time Had Come—Disappointed

"I never was more surprised in my life than when I took the first dose of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy.
My stomach trouble had been of eight years' standing, sometimes so bad as to cause convulsions, followed by hemorrhage. I thought my time in this world was short, and believed if the last medicine I would ever take. It is now eight weeks since, and I am feeling better than for many years." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Druglets everywhere.

Air Patrol to Start May 15

PORTLAND, April 8.—Airplane patrol of the national forests of Oregon will begin May 15, with eight-teen planes in the service, and will continue until the fire hazard has abated. If present plans and recommendations are carried out, stated Major H. H. Arnold, chief of the air service of the western division of the war department, Major Arnold arrived at the municipal landing field yesterday at 4:30 o'clock, having come from Mather field, Cal., in five hours and 32 minutes.
Thirteen planes were used in this state last year in the forest patrol, and Major Arnold has recommended that five additional planes be used this season. He also plans to establish a new base for these five planes either at La Grande or Burns. Eugene and Medford will remain the bases of the other planes, he stated.
