Alienation Case To Be Appealed

Attorneys Coshow and Rhoades today filed a bill of exceptions and notice of appeal of the case of J. C. Carter against Dr. R. I. Hall, a suit for allenation of affections. Carter received an award of $5000 damages after the Jury found Hall guilty of gaining the affections of Mrs. Carter, while she was a patient in the Sanitarium at Sutherlin. Dr. Hall immediately filed notice of appeal and the case will be taken to the supreme court. This court will be required to set a precedent in this state as a new question is at Issue, that of whether or not a wife. as a new question is at issue, that of whether or not a wife is compe-tent to serve as a witness for her husband in such an action, Mrz. Carter was the principal winess in the action for her husband and it was largely on her testimony that the case was decided. The defend-ant's attorneys objected to her tes-timony being introduced at the or-
