Federated Clubs Hold Luncheon

The three federated clubs in this district, which are the Mental Culture club, Music club and the Garden Valley Improvement club, met this noon at the Umpqua to enjoy a luncheon, given in honor of Mrs. Ida Callahan, state president of the Federated Clubs. Mrs. Callahan is a former resident here, having taught school here a number of years ago, and always feels perfectly at home upon her arrival in the city. She is a brother of E. F. Burnett, a resident of Canyonville. Her talk at the luncheon this noon was upon federation and its work. She attended the bi-annual convention at Des Moines last June, at which time all plans were laid for the State Federated clubs. The president of the state club then reached the other clubs, by means of visits and by attending district conventions.

There are three principles which they hold as their motto or goal, and these are Thrift, Child Welfare, Americanism and Community Service. Community service, says Mrs. Callahan, is one of the very biggest departments and means the arousing of the spirit of pride in the community, better citizenship, and democracy. The Federated Clubs are also civic and literary. There are about six thousand women in the Federated Clubs in Oregon, and about two and one half million in the general federation. A big feature of the federation is the scholarship loan, which enables women to finish their education, and is a loan without interest. It helps to make women independent.

There were about forty guests seated at the luncheon this noon to hear the message of Mrs. Callahan. They were entertained with a vocal selection by Mrs. Brand and a few marimba numbers from Mr. Suchow. Mrs. Callahan will be accompanied to the district convention at Ashland tomorrow by Mrs. Wm Bell, of this city.

JUST A FEW THOUGHTS TAKEN AT RANDOM

Let's see, yesterday was baseball day and it sure was gratifying to note it was an orderly crowd. If our genial marshal has in evidence he didn't have nothing to do. But one fact stands out plum and plain. The people of Roseburg must be suffering from throat trouble. If there is a throat specialist in town he ought to get busy—even if he did I grats. The applause was too monotonous, rendered in a low unemphatic manner. Some said it was a cow. I don't know as to that. Any how, heard nothing else. It's nice to be orderly, but maybe it is because a preacher was boss umber and the players all Sunday school boys. So we'll let it go at that. And, then there's the band. It sure did hurt one's feelings the way them boys was treated, and they noticed it, too. Once or twice the tried to put a little real pep into the crowd, but what can you expect when the whole atmosphere is charged with gloom. But never mind, boys, even Ole Bull wasn't appreciated all after he was dead, and some day we will get a hunch or and say something.
