The Low Cost of Advertising Space

Few advertising men know that advertising space in newspapers is by far the economical way to reach the consumer. It is a fact and the only reason that advertising was ever created was because wise and shrewd business men learned that they could buy white space in publications at a minimum cost and because of the message they would put into that space they could make a profit on the transaction and make the advertising a real investment in production of sales and good-will.

In these days of high cost of white paper and printing the advertiser could not print a full-page advertisement and buy the white paper at the small cost that the newspaper charges him for the complete page delivered into the home by invitation.
That is to say, the readers of this newspaper buy a paper because they want to read it and because they know they get more for their money at 2 or 3 cents than anything else they could buy at that price. That is what makes the advertising so valuable to the advertiser, provided they use the right message, the right illustration and the right merchandise plan back of the advertising.

Newspaper advertising is by far the most economical method to reach the consumer.

25,000 Would Share In Soldier Bonus

SALEM, Or., May 17.—Approximately 25,000 men and women in Oregon will be eligible to benefits under the so-called soldiers' bonus law, in case the measure is approved by voters at the special election to be held on June 7, according to figures compiled today by James Crawford, deputy state treasurer.

The number of persons who will seek a cash bonus was estimated at 10,000 while the number of persons who will prefer loans under the act was estimated at 15,000. To meet these loans it has been proposed to issue bonds equivalent to three per cent of the assessed valuation of the state, which would raise a total of $31,225,117.47. This sum will be repaid to the state, according to Mr.
Crawford.

The cash bonus payments estimated at $1,200,000, will not be repaid to the state, but will be taken care of by a one mill levy. This levy, based on the present valuation of the state, will raise $1,040,839.04 annually.

Mr. Crawford's statement said that while in some cases these loans may run for a period of 25 years, being amortized at 2 per cent annually and 4 per cent being paid in interest, it is fair to assume that a great majority of the borrowers would repay the obligation in 20 years.

Based on these figures, Mr. Crawford estimated that the aggregate cost to the state for paying a cash bonus or loaning its funds to 25-000 men and women will in all probability not exceed $15,000,000 during the next 20 years.

Against this expense Mr. Crawford estimated that the additional value accruing to the state on account of home building and farm development would aggregate many thousands of dollars.

Report Given on Road Conditions

The local chamber of commerce today mailed out statements of road conditions from Roseburg to the California state line, over the Pacific will also be given on the condition of the highway north to Eugene. The statements are being mailed out to are as follows:

ing, road kept open.

miles, macadamized, road good.

Wolf Creek to Grave Creek, 5 miles, paved.

miles, being macadamized, detour via Merlin.

Grants Pass to Rock Point Arch, 16 miles, paved.

Rock Point Arch-Gold Hill, 2 miles, grading, road good, detour.

Gold Hill to Medford, 14 miles, paved.

Medford to Ashland, 13 miles, paved.

Ashland to California line, 22 miles, paved except 2 1/2 miles, kept open and good.

SEEK TO SAVE LUDLOW JAIL

Members of Greater New York "Allison Club" Don't Want Their Famous Home Converted.

The Ludlow street jail, where members of the Greater New York "Allison Club" have frittered away much pleasurable time, appears to be doomed.
Sheriff David H. Knott thinks a far more profitable use could be made by the city of the historic structure. The plan is to send the Ludlowers to some other city institution, scatter them, if necessary, through a number of buildings, for it is now costing $41,000 annually to keep their present home going.

The proposal has culminated in a "save-the-jail" agitation among those who have sojourned in Ludlow. There is deep sentiment, it seems, in having been a "guest." The Ludlow street jail was built by Boss Tweed, his name being inscribed on the building erected in 1800. His desk and chair are still in the room where he died a prisoner in 1878. Besides Tweed the jail has sheltered many famous men, including the members of the brokerage firm who traded on the name of General Grant and swindled thousands. Whitaker Wright, the British Wallingford, lived there for a spell, and showed his sportsmanship by contributing $100 to the other prisoners for fireworks one Fourth of July.

But it is as the established home for stalwart men who refused to be subservient to "the weaker sex" that Ludlow's fame spread throughout the land. Poets and actors, journalists and musicians, bankers and laboring men all have met there to fan the flame of resistance to the payment of alimony.

PUT TALENT TO LITTLE USE

Horace Walpole Chiefly Famous for Making Collection of Curious and Valuable Objects.

The death of Horace Walpole on March 2, 1797, calls to mind a collection of curious and valuable objects which he had collected in his famous country seat, Strawberry Hill.

One article of great elegance was a silver bell which had been made by Benvenuto Cellini for Pope Clement VII, with a rich display of carving on the exterior representing serpents, flies, grasshoppers and other objectionable insects, the purpose of the bell having been to serve a papal cur-sling of these animals when they became so troublesome to demand that mode of chastisement.

Another curious article suggesting the bellers of a past age was the Shew-stone of Doctor Dee, a piece of polished cannon coal which had been used by that celebrated mystic as a mirror in which to see spirits. But we of this generation and in what we are pleased to call the age of enlightenment have our crystal gazers, astrologers and ouija boards, although they are not being used or believed by the community en masse.

But the glories of Strawberry Hill have come to an end and way back in '42 the entire collection passed under the hammer and was dispersed in a sale which lasted almost four weeks. Through came to see the home of the man who devoted his no mean talents to the pursuit of trifling importance—"piling up trifles to a colossal height and making a pyramid of nothing."

New Blood in Cancer Treatment.

Rollin reported at a meeting of the Hamburg Medical society that two persons with extensive and advanced gastric cancer were treated by intragastric injection of 2 cc. of blood, twice a week, from their grown-up children. Both improved visibly, the hemoglobin percentage rose and the weight increased as appetite returned, and the earning capacity was restored.
Rollin had reasoned that there must be something in the blood of the young that prevents the development of cancer, and hence that there would be advantage in injecting it in cases of cancer.

The Medizinische Klinik relates that Kummel gave this method a trial in three cases of cancer, injecting the blood of young relatives. The general health improved, but this benefit was transient. The malignant disease itself was not influenced.

Benefit in Recreation.

All recreations, if followed moderately, are good for the brain and help to stimulate thought.

It is important to learn all we can about the world we are living in, for upon our ability to do something for our fellow inhabitants depends the rewards that we shall gain.

It isn't safe to be a movie fan or a theater fan or a golf fan or a fan at anything but our particular vocation. But it is useful to get away from ourselves and our work now and then and to think about what others are doing—John Blake in Chicago Daily News.

War Veterans Good Students.

In a report made by the dean of the Wisconsin university, especial mention is made of the excellent progress made by the 224 disabled soldiers who are known as federal board students. Owing to their physical condition it was anticipated that they might prove indifferent students, but such has not been the case. In this instance it is said that their progress compared very favorably in every way with that of the regular students. The total number of these students has been increasing.
