FIGURING ONE'S INCOME TAX

Directions That May, or May Not, Be Helpful in Making Out a Correct Return.

In the direction of helpfulness the Winstead Saturday Night suggests that if your income is $2,400 a year and you have a diamond ring and an automobile and are married to a brunette girl twenty-six years old, you take the amount of your income, add your personal property, subtract your street number, multiply by your height and your wife's height and divide by your telephone number.

You will then carry your minus, separated from your plus, to schedule G on the tenth line of which you will subtract the multiple, which you put on line X, schedule K, entering in column A.

If you have a child in the family subtract $200 from your income, add the amount of your personal property multiply by your waist measure, subtract the size of your collar, add the child's age, multiply by the amount you have given the church during the year and divide by the number of your automobile license tag.

If there are two children you deduct $400 from your income, add the weight and age of the second child, divide by the date of your birth, multiply by the size of your hat and subtract the weight of your mother-in-law.

The result of the above computation should be carried to line VIII, schedule I, after deducting from the total of G, P, and A, and adding F, C and L, carrying it to column D, which will cover all taxation except the normal and surtax.

NO RAINBOW AFTER DELUGE

Johns Hopkins University Professor Explains How the Historic Misunderstanding Came About.

The rainbow after the deluge, described in the book of Genesis 9:13, was not a rainbow after all, but a collection of great fly-brushes of the ancient oriental gods, declares Prof. Paul Haupt of Johns Hopkins university. Announcement of his discovery was made by Doctor Haupt at Goucher college, at a session of the American Oriental society, which held its one hundred and thirty-third convocation in Baltimore.

The mistake in Genesis, said Professor Haupt, probably is due to a misunderstanding of a character on one of the old cuneiform tablets. The word is "bow," which could very easily be mistaken for "fly brush," he said. These huge feather brushes were in vogue among the old rulers in Assyria and Egypt, and were regarded as ancient symbols of sovereignty in the Orient.

According to Doctor Haupt, the ancients naturally gave their gods credit for having fly-brushes, and, in fact, in the 164 of the flood tablet the word "fly brush" appears as big as life.

The passage says that "When Istar sees the gods gather around the of ferer like a swarm of flies (because there had been no offerings during the flood), she is so incensed that she takes the great fly-brushes of her father, Anu (king of the gods), to drive away the gods."

MIR. NEUNER COMES TO THE FRONT

Tells His Friends and Neighbors of His Experience.

Every Roseburg resident should read what Mr. Neuner says, and follow his example. He has used Doan's Kidney Pills and speaks from experience. In there any need to experiment with imitations or untried kidney medicines?

Geo. Neuner, 736 Mosher St., Roseburg, says: "I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as a reliable remedy. I used them when my kidneys troubled me and they promptly relieved me. My kidneys were out of order and I had a soreness and full aching across my back that made it hard for me to stoop. My kidneys acted irregularly, too. I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills helping others and used them as directed. They relieved me of the aches and pains."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Neuner had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N.Y.

LOST OUT BY SMALL MARGIN

Daring Adventurer Played for Millions and Almost Succeeded in Dishonest Venture.

A remarkable rogue, at a time when the competition for that distinction is keen, was arrested recently. By name Surran, before the war he kept a small shop, eking out his legitimate profits by receiving stolen goods. This stage of his life ended in a blaze and he was sentenced to three months' imprisonment for burning down his place of business to get the insurance money.

Since the war he has become the most expert of all the bandits who prey on the immense dumps left behind by the American and British, and by perseverance he got together a large sum. Last August he tried a higher flight. Well dressed and suave, he presented himself at a certain dump in France and bought the whole place, the sum demanded being $1,000,000 at the present rate of exchange. To arrive at this end without actually paying a penny to the government he had to distribute $10,000 in bribes and tips.

He immediately started to cart off his "purchase," but lack of capital was his downfall. He had hardly a cent left over from his gigantic campaign of bluff and bribery, and could not pay the wagon drivers, who complained to the police.—Manchester (Eng.) Guardian.

ADRIAN ONLY ENGLISH POPE

Is Said to Have Been Elevated to High Office Contrary to His Own Inclinations.

Pope Adrian IV was by birth an Englishman, and the only one of that nation who ever occupied the papal throne. He was a native of Langley, in Hertfordshire. He was born before A. D. 1100. His real name was Nicholas Breakspear. He is said to have left England as a beggar, and to have become a servant as lay brother in a monastery near Avignon, in France, where he studied with such diligence that in 1137 he was elected abbot. His merits soon became known to Pope III, who made him cardinal-bishop of Albano in 1154, and sent him two years later as his legate to Denmark and Norway, where he converted many inhabitants to Christianity. Soon after his return to Rome, Nicholas was unanimously chosen pope against his own inclination, in November, 1154. Henry II of England, on hearing of his election, sent the abbot of St. Albans and three bishops to Rome with his congratulations.

Must Keep on "Making Good."

Life is an everlasting struggle. Nothing but the keenest attention to its great problems will bring lasting success. There are many that gain temporary attention and they think they have made a name for themselves. The fact is there are thousands of others with just as much head striving for a place in the sun. They are watching every loophole for an opportunity. Often the fellow who starts right with a small lead can achieve almost anything he sets out to. So folks have learned to take advantage of everything that turns up or that they can turn up. That means you are never safe in resting on past laurels. It's a case of making good eternally or falling down before you have finished your course.

Air Mail Stamps.

Over forty varieties of specially designed postage stamps for air mails have already been published, much to the joy of the philatelists. Italy has the credit for the first air stamp which was issued by the Italian postal authorities as long ago as 1917. The United States, Canada, Newfoundland, Sweden, Spain, Switzerland, Estonia, Colombia and the Belgian Congo have all considered it desirable to issue special stamps to their peoples. Tools has even produced a second contribution. Needless to mention, Germany and Hungary were early in the field, rightly considering it an excellent means of educating the public in the practical side of aviation.

Aids Electrical Welder.

Ordinarily an electric welder must remove his helmet that he may better see the finer details of his work. The main improvement which a new helmet has over the old masks is the mounting of the window, so that the protective screen can be raised with the left hand of the worker and he can obtain a better view of the work, yet the screen falls back into place when he is ready to go ahead with the welding. This screen or window is made of chemically prepared glass to protect the eyes from ultra-violet rays.

Better Than Alarm Clock.

Instead of leaving word at a hotel desk for an early morning call, there is now a new call system which enables guests to call themselves at any desired hour. A system of electric clocks is the newest hotel installation. The guest simply sets an indicator at night, somewhat similar to an alarm clock and a low musical chime rings at the desired time. The clocks have luminous dials and hands so that the time can be read in the dark.

The Curse of Poverty.

"Well, my dear, what did you see in town you wanted to buy?" "Oh, thousands of beautiful things." "You didn't buy them I hope?" "No, I came home with a package of hairpins and a grouch."—Birmingham Age-Herald.
