

They never made a cigarette like this in my day—

The Camel idea wasn't born then. It was the exclusive expert Camel blend that revolutionized cigarette smoking.

That Camel blend of choice Turkish and Domestic tobaccos hits just the right spot. It gives Camels such mellow mildness and fragrance!

The first time I smoked Camels I knew they were made for me. I knew they were the smoothest, finest cigarette in the world, at any price.

Nobody can tell me anything different.

MEXICO HAS DIAMOND FIELD

Precious Stones Said to Exist in Quantities That Will Make Their Mining Profitable.

Encouragement will be offered by the Mexican government for the development of the diamond field in the state of Guerrero by private capital. It is authoritatively announced. The existence of diamonds in a mountainous district of that southern state has long been known, but the remoteness of the locality and the difficulty of getting in and out of the district have heretofore prevented anything being done toward mining the gems.

It was more than fifty years ago that the discovery of diamonds there was made by an officer of the Mexican army. A collection of the diamonds was taken to the City of Mexico and after being cut they found their way into the channels of commerce. Efforts to relocate the diamond field proved futile and it was not until many years later that a mining prospector came upon the formation in which the diamonds were found. He collected a large number of them in the rough and took them back to the capital, where they were placed on exhibition. Nothing was done, however, toward the development of the field.

Not long ago the department of commerce and industry of the Mexican government sent an expedition in charge of Antonio Lopez, an engineer, to the locality. Mr. Lopez reported that his research had been entirely successful. Among the diamonds he brought back with him was one of enormous size in the rough which he turned over to the department of commerce and industry. He made a report to the effect that diamonds in large quantities are to be found and that the mining can be done at comparatively little cost.

THROUGH WITH TIGHT SHOES

Experience That Young Woman Had Recently Is Sufficient to Last Her a Lifetime.

A young woman was taken to one of the downtown restaurants for dinner. She wished to make a good impression, so she stopped at the shoe-shining establishment to have her shoes polished, which shoes, by the way, were a little too small and pinched considerably.

They pinched even worse after they were seated at the table, and the young woman decided to do a very daring thing. So, carefully, she managed to slip her hand down to her foot, loosen the shoe and slip it off her foot. Just as that performance was ended the waiter arrived with the dinner and she straightened up to get ready for it. She reached for her napkin and horrors! The inside of her hand was as black as could be. The shoe polish had not yet dried. Worse and worse! Her friend noticed her hand.

There was nothing to do but explain the situation, which she did in a very amusing way. But she vows steadily that she will never again wear tight shoes when going out to dinner.—Indianapolis News.

Beards and Politics.

It is surely more than a coincidence that whiskered statesmen hold high positions in many lands, writes a correspondent. Simultaneously with the appointment of Charles Evans Hughes as secretary of state in the U. S. A. comes the news of the appointment of Sir Joseph Cook as high commissioner for Australia, in London. Sir Joseph's beard is the pride of the antipodes. Again in South Africa, the electorate rejected General Hertzog who has nothing but a mustache, for the bearded Smuts. And Lenin imperiously holds his own, with a beard, while the smooth-shaven Kerensky is not merely out, but outside. Venizelos, they say, was never so popular as since his withdrawal, and the Italian press insists that when he makes a move Constantine is doomed. His is the finest beard in Europe, as Mr. Shaw will admit.—Montreal Herald.

Letting the Lawyers Work a Little.

Erastus, a negro, being charged with burglary, told his defender that he had only one conviction against him—disorderly conduct. On cross examination by the district attorney, after giving a plausible explanation, he was asked about his court record.

"Disorderly conduct, sub," he said smilingly.

"Sure that was all?"

The defendant paused to consider.

"Have you all found out anything else?" he inquired.

"Elmira reformatory for burglary in 1911 and twice to Sing Sing for the same crime," replied the D. A.

"Right, sub. I just thought I'd let you-all find that out for yourself," said Erastus. He was convicted.—From the Annual Report of the Legal Aid Society.

Good Logic.

Terre Haute boy scouts have recently organized a sea scout troop. Several of the new members were waiting for their leader the other day, but still he didn't come. Finally one of them was sent out to find traces of him. He journeyed a block and then saw him in earnest conversation with a girl.

Now, he didn't want to expose the official—also he felt that he must be truthful, since he was a scout. So he used strategy when he came back. "Yes, I saw him," he said, "and we'd better wait here, for he was doing some official business. He was interviewing a candidate for the position of first mate."—Indianapolis News.

Petitions Fail In Albers Case

(By United Press.) WASHINGTON, D. C., June 6.—

The Supreme court today refused the request of the Oregon Bar association for reconsideration of the alleged espionage charges in the case against Henry Albers, Portland miller. The Attorney General confessed an error in procedure, resulting in the Supreme court taking the usual formal action in reversing the case. Albers was sentenced to prison and fined by the lower courts for alleged German utterances. Many protests made including those by the Oregon Bar association. The Associated sought leave to intervene in the consideration of the case. Following the protests the department of justice said that a new trial of Albers will be asked. It is said that the legal procedure in the previous case was faulty.
