Interesting Ball Game Last Night

By C. H. Hilton.

Although the ball game last night between the Presbyterians and the Southern Pacific went to a rather high score, it was an interesting game most of the way because of the evenness of the game. It was anybody's game till the very last inning, when the Presbyterians pulled away and won handily. Both teams were crippled. The Presbyterians had to fill in with several men who had never played before, while the Southern Pacific had a number of their men eliminated because of Sunday ball. Randolph pitched for the Presbyterians, and Burt for the Southern Pacific. Both men pitched very good ball, but neither had any too good support. Had the support held up on either team, the score would have been very greatly cut down. The Presbyterians made four runs in the first, and then were shut out till the fourth, when they put over three more. They added two more in the fifth. The Southern Pacific made two in the second, and took the lead in the third by putting across four. They made another in the fourth, making the score a tie at seven all. When the Presbyterians made two in the fifth, the S. P. boys made one, leaving the score at nine to eight. But in the sixth and last inning the Presbyterians made five runs and three hits, and some loose playing. Bill Whipple sent one to the fence for two bases, being about the prettiest hit of the day. The Southern Pacific went out one, two, three in their half and the game ended by a score of 14 to 8 for the Presbyterians, who are now so far ahead in the race it looks almost impossible to stop them. A large number of people have asked the scorer how the teams stood at the present time. The reason we have not given the standing was because of the number of games thrown out, that made it difficult for the scorer to tell, as he was not sure about the thrown out games. We will give the games that have been won and lost by each team, then if possible explain the thrown out games and the standing as it would really be with these games out.

The score of last night's game is as follows:

	W.	L.
Presbyterians	14	8
S. P.	8	14

Two base hits, Whipple, Grimm; struck out by Burt 7, by Randolph 10; base on balls, Burt 4, Randolph 3; hit with ball, Randolph 2; wild pitch, Burt 2, Randolph 1; passed balls, Neal 1, Barton 7. Umpire, Andy Matthews.

The games as played and actually won and lost are as follows:

	W.	L.
Presbyterians	7	3
Baptists	4	2
S. P.	4	6
Christians	3	7

Three games that the Espes won have been thrown out on account of Sunday ball. They won one of these from each of the other teams, making three wins taken from them, and one loss from each team, these games of course to be replayed. The Presbyterians will probably have the game thrown out that they won from the Christians in which Sherrill played, as he had played Sunday ball. So this will reduce the Christian losses by two, and it will make the teams stand as follows:

	W.	L.
Presbyterians	6	1
Baptists	4	2
Christians	3	5
S. P.	1	5

This is the scorer's understanding of the present situation, of course depending on the fact that the president of the league has acted on the protest.

W. C. T. U. Picnic at Bradburns

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. left this morning at 10:30, in machines, for the Bradburn home at Winston, where they enjoyed a delicious picnic dinner at noon. About twenty-five or thirty left from the city, and together with the members of that vicinity, there was a large gathering. Following the noon dinner they were invited into the Bradburn home where they enjoyed a fine program. A most delightful day was enjoyed by all who attended.

BOY SCOUT UNION MEETING.

To a Live Scout! Does this mean you? If so, I am sure you would like a better scout program next year. You say yes? Well if you mean it be present at our meeting this coming Thursday night, June 23rd, at 7 sharp. Both troops 1 and 2 will meet with Scoutmaster Lintott during the summer while Scoutmaster Miller is absent. First, don't forget to bring your fountain pen or pencil, as you will need it at this meeting. Dr. Seely, a member of our troop committee, will be present and has a number of surprises for every live scout of Roseburg. He has something that will make you think. If you want to progress further in Scouting and would like more overnight and week-end hikes, it will be necessary that you be present at Thursday's meeting to do your share in starting the ball rolling.

Are you with us? All right, "let's go." Thursday, June 23rd, 7 p. m. sharp. Headquarters.

RUSSELL, L. F. LINTOTT, Scoutmaster.

P. S.—If you have any scout camp pictures, bring them along.

Douglas County Association Meets

PORTLAND, June 22.—The Douglas County association of Portland held its tenth annual meeting at Peninsula Park Sunday. Between 500 and 600 were present from Portland and surrounding cities.

Business meeting began at 11 a. m.

Officers elected for ensuing year were: George C. Johnson, 805 N. W. bank building, president; Lyle Manning, Gresham, first vice-president; Judge G. W. Wooncott, Gresham, second vice-president; Lon L. Parker, Washington building, third vice-president; Nancy Drahm Singleton, 624 Saratoga, secretary; Laurie Rice Castor, 745 E. 27th, treasurer.

Picnic dinner for the ladies of the association from 12 to 2 p. m.

Invocation was by Rev. G. C. Love.

Pioneer reminiscences were spoken by Hon. A. M. Crawford, Judge G. W. Wooncott, Judge Stearns, Mrs. Matilda Howard, Col. Robert A. Miller, Postmaster J. M. Jones, Geo. H. Himes, Dr. G. B. Kuykendall and others.

Dr. Kuykendall was one of the builders of the famous Wilbur Academy.

A feature of the program was a jig by Mrs. Matilda Howard, 77 years of age, and a pioneer of 1850.

Greetings of the association were sent to Isadore Rice, who is very ill at his home in Douglas county.

Mr. Himes brought out the fact that the first paper published in Oregon was the Umpqua Gazette of Scottsburg, Douglas county.

A resolution was unanimously adopted endorsing the movement to teach Oregon history in the Oregon schools, and the president was authorized to appoint a committee of five to act with other associations to that end.

ADVICE TO LOVELORN AND OTHERS

BY MRS. ELLSBURY.
A Daily Column of Questions and Answers Conducted by a Woman Who Knows. Address your Letters to Mrs. Ellsbury, Care Roseburg News-Review.

Dear Mrs. Ellsbury: I am quite old, and my family is grown. I loved a man years ago, but married another. Since then I have written letters to the first one, and the old love has returned. I think of him all the time. Must I go to the first man or stay with my husband?

LONESOME, TEN MILE.

A married woman with grown children should never have written letters to another man. I do not think you are really in love with the first man but have thought about it and him so much that you fancy you are. You have evidently not seen him for a long time, and if you did you would probably not care for him nearly as much as you do for the husband you have lived with all these years, and who is the father of your children. The thing for you to do is to occupy your mind with something else and forget the foolish fancy. Stop writing me letters to him and have no communication of any kind. It is certainly your duty to stay with your husband.

Dear Mrs. Ellsbury: Will you kindly tell me if it is possible to gain a divorce from a person who is insane asylum and then go about it.

A. No, by law it is not possible to get a divorce from a person who is insane asylum.

Dear Mrs. Ellsbury: Is it allowable to live with your husband and getting a divorce from him?

DIVORCE. I am not a lawyer, but I think it is allowable to live with your husband and getting a divorce from him.

A. No, it is not allowable to live with your husband and getting a divorce from him.
