vance for the contest could be chosen. Tube trains

DANCE AT RIDDLE.

Dance at Riddle pavilion Wednesday, June 29th. Music by Ott's orchestra.

Rickard has declared that nearly one-fourth of the crowd will be composed of feminine spectators. Boxes immediately in the rear of the $50 seats, have been constructed with the aim of accommodating "box parties" comfortably.

Numerous groups of officials, including Governor Edwards of New Jersey and his staff Mayor Hague of Jersey City and possibly Harry M. Daugherty, attorney general of the United States, will add to the color and the quality of the unusual thrill.

Only in the varying distance at which the different priced seats are located from the ring, will they vary in desirability. Persons in every part of the arena will have a clear view of the boxers throughout. No posts, poles or obstructions will hamper the vision. From the ring, raised about five feet above the level of the ground, the seats extend in a gentle slope upward in every direction for approximately 200 feet, making the breadth of the arena, from side to side, slightly more than 600 feet. The structure, at its most distant point is 38 feet high.

Fans, curiosity seekers and the hangers-on, familiar to every boxing crowd, have made life a bit irksome for the force of watchmen whom Rickard has installed at the arena, on day and night shifts, for protective purposes. Refreshments tents and booths for those who will vend "soft drinks, peanuts, crackjacks and souvenirs," have been erected outside of the big enclosure, within the past week. War prices for these commodities may prevail but as yet none of the vendors has had the temerity to flash a menu or give an inkling of the cost of edibles to the intending purchasers.

Inside and outside the arena, the big bout promises to furnish the most colorful scene which the patrons of boxing ever have witnessed.
