SUNDAY AT THE CHURCHES.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. preaching service at 11 a. m. The pastor has been called home from Turner because of important business and will preach at the morning service. He will have an inspiring message from the state convention. Young people meeting at 7 p. m. Union service in the evening.

M. E. Church, South. Rev. J. C. Jones pastor. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. W. L. Cobb, superintendent. Divine worship, 10:45. The Rev. W. J. Fenton, presiding elder, will preach the sermon. At 3 o'clock the corner stone laying will take place. To this we invite all of every church and those of no church. You will be interested. Dr. Banks will speak on "The Church of the Future Democracy." The Epworth League will meet at 7. The leader is Miss Lois Cobb and the subject: "The Consideration of Our Bodies, A Reasonable Service." The union service will be held in this church at 8 o'clock. The Rev. E. W. Warrington will preach the sermon. He needs no introduction to the Roseburg church-going public. A cordial invitation and a hearty welcome to you by the pastor and congregation.

Presbyterian, corner Jackson and Lane streets, Rev. E. W. Warrington, minister. "Take time to be holy, the world rushed on; spend much time in secret with Jesus alone." 9:45 a. m. the Bible study hour. God has spoken. Study the Bible and familiarize yourself with what He has said. 11 a. m. the morning worship. The sermon subject, "Days Off" or "Thoughts for the Vacation Season." The choir will lead the singing and sing a special number. 7 p. m. Lloyd Cole will lead the Endeavor. The subject is "What is Our Reasonable Service." This is the rallying place of the young people. 8 p. m. the union Sunday evening service will be held at the Southern Methodist church. The choir of the church where the service is held will lead the singing and E. W. Warrington will preach the sermon. The prayer meeting will be held on Wednesday evening at 7:30.

ABOUT THE TOWN

Gladys Godly of Wilbur is in town today shopping and attending to business.

Home to Portland—Mrs. M. O. Rose and daughter and Miss Elma Schwartz, left for Portland today after visiting with Mrs. J. C. Royce.

Taking Vacation—Miss Daisy Brandt, an employee of the Mercy hospital, left this afternoon for North Bend, where she will spend her vacation.

Ribley, Verne Winter, Bert Spottle, Madge Hunt, Joy Withrop and Helen Gilmore are in the cast. "The Blazing Trail" was written by Mann Page and Izola Forrester.

Movie Closeups

"The Blazing Trail," Frank Mayo's most recent photodrama, is to be shown tonight at the Antlers theater. It will have an especially fitting presentation. It contains remarkable scenes of mountain life in actual mountain settings.

The picture deals with a young physician whose mind breaks under the strain of over work and who goes in an isolated community in the Blue Ridge mountains to regain his poise. While there he saves the life of a girl by the use of a serum for blood poisoning, regains his mental power and finds himself incalculably enriched with the love-germ.
