Leadership is a Sacred Trust—

"Comparative Prices Must Go!"

We never quote "comparative prices." The integrity of the spoken and written word of the J. C. PENNEY COM-PANY is now as it always has been, a sacred trust.
The plain, straight-forward statement of our ability to buy in great quantities, quality merchandise at low prices, is taken by millions of people as an honestly stated fact worthy of confidence.

In this policy of not quoting "comparative prices" we have been leaders for years.

Others now follow our leadership—a number of the greater stores of the West and Middle-West recently announced in their newspaper advertising that "the use of comparative prices would hereafter be discontinued because it is misleading, exaggerated and destructive of public confidence."

From the beginning, our policy has been a simple, sound Golden Rule policy—and every person connected with the J. C. PENNEY COMPANY takes just pride in sustaining a leadership that is and always will be a sacred trust!

this. We are here to stay and will want

Phelps Delivers Forceful Sermon

The treatment of the text, "According to their pasture, so were they filled," by Guy Fitch Phelps at the Sunday morning service at the M. E. church, showed that he was familiar with the life of the shepherds on the hills and that he had closely observed the life and habits of the sheep, to an unusual degree.
His analogy was of God's wonderful provision for man's spiritual nature, which even surpasses the provision for the physical development and growth. The subject was handled in a forceful and able manner. There was a large and appreciative audience.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Wamsley and daughter, Emma, returned Saturday evening from Yoncalla, where they have been visiting with friends for the past few weeks.
