Honest Merchandise Truthful Advertising

This is good business. It makes for Prosperity for the Man who Sells and the Man who Buys. It is the Golden Rule applied to every transaction. In every J. C. PENNEY COMPANY store it means thirty-six inches to the yard; sixteen ounces to the pound; pure wool and pure silk when the materials ARE pure wool and pure silk; it is selling you a dollar's WORTH of merchandise for a dollar; it means that the Company's printed word is as good as its bond—Truthful advertising for Honest Merchandise. It means merchandise for all customers at One Price. It means the Value of what you buy today has equal value when you come to the store a week later. It means that every customer receives fair and equal consideration. There is no "class distinction" in a J. C. PENNEY COMPANY store.

FAMILY WASH Service Department.....

The entire family washing is finished complete—all the starching and ironing done, so that every piece is ready to use or to wear, as the case may be. The cost is very reasonable—surprisingly so.

By our PARTLY ROUGH DRY method everything is returned finished, except the starched pieces which are ready to dampen and iron.

Just tell us what you want done.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

The Roseburg News-Review: In answer to Mrs. Hoag: Mrs. Hoag of Roseburg, goes all the way to Washington to make a complaint to the Washington Tribune about the treatment of the veterans at the Oregon soldiers' home. Mrs. Hoag must be misinformed as to conditions here. I can truthfully say that the veterans were of the very best, well clothed and plenty of it. No complaints are heard here from any of the veterans at the home. The management of the home should get much credit for the manner in which they have made pains in making every arrangement for the veterans in the hospital. No better table fare can be gotten for the money in any other place or elsewhere and I feel sure that Mrs. Hoag is badly misinformed as to the real menu here. HUGH McFADDEN, Veteran of the Soldiers' Home.

Mrs. W. M. Crow returned to her home at Merlin this morning, after spending the week here visiting with friends.

LINN COUNTY GETS CREDIT.

In the last issue of the "Real Estate Dealers' Journal," published in Portland, a large photo appeared showing Capt. and Mrs. Hackett and Doug. Sleep in the Hackett orchard in Garden Valley. Beneath the picture appeared the caption, "A scene in Linn county." Local real estate dealers lost no time in informing the publishers of their mistake and a correction will no doubt appear in the next issue. The photo no doubt proved a great advertisement for Linn county, but those who know of the mistake declare emphatically that no such orchards could exist in any other section of the state.
