BANNER PRUNE COUNTY OF THE STATE.

Douglas county is the banner prune county of the state—not only in quality but quantity. Nature seems to have favored this particular section of the state as an ideal center for the cultivation of prunes.

There is no other prune just as good as the Douglas county product. It surpasses all competitors and today takes first place in the world's markets.

We are now in the midst of the harvest and this fruit, conservatively estimated, will have a total output of approximately nine million pounds. This summed up in dollars and cents spells an income to the prune growers of this county of over $700,000.

And the prune crop is only one of the many kinds of fruit successfully marketed in this county. Apples, pears, peaches and many other varieties are successfully grown and find a ready market at a dividend paying profit to the fruitmen.

Thus it is plainly seen all that has been claimed for this section of the state as a fruit center has not in any way been enlarged upon or misrepresented. The orchardist who gives particular attention to the fruit industry does so with the satisfaction of knowing he is going to get fair returns for his labor and money invested.

But it takes a business head to run a fruit farm just as well as it does to conduct any kind of a private business—along with a lot of hard work. Sticking the trees in the ground and waiting for them to mature and produce does not complete the work of a successful fruitgrower. It takes a whole lot of earnest work, much care and cultivation to round out a money-making orchard tract.

Thousands of acres of excellent fruit land remains undeveloped in this county. When people generally begin to realize the vast opportunities in the way of the fruit industry, these vacant lands will be put under cultivation and will add many millions of dollars to the county's income.

The progressive fruit grower of today is the individual who is going to do more to advertise and bring new people into the county than by any other means. The people of this section of the state should lend all possible encouragement to them. Seeing is believing, and if there are any skeptical ones who desire to be "shown," this county has plenty of successful fruit growers who can deliver the goods and convince anyone with reasoning power that no other state affords a better opportunity than Douglas county for the profitable raising of a great variety of fruits.

NO PLACE LIKE HOME.

Your bed at home may not be softer than that one you paid ten prices for at that last summer hotel, but we'll wager you wouldn't trade yours for a whole carload of the other, including meals served in the room. What is there about that pillow of yours that just exactly adjusts itself to the right spot. Isn't it a good deal like allowing someone else to adjust your hat for you, it can't be done, can it? Then the meals at home. There is not so much to them when you sift them down, but where on earth have you ever found just that same indescribable, wholly satisfying something that exactly fills the bill, but at home. Then the water at home. It, too, has a different taste. Wasn't that hard water they were using at the last place you hung out simply abominable. Weren't you just dying for a chance to wash your hair? Didn't you get awfully tired of hired livery, that sumptuous overdone service. That constant rush, the everlasting strain of good behavior. Don't you recall that when you got home you just wanted to blow off, yank off those old tight corsets and pinchy shoes and get into a real honest-to-goodness house gown, oh joy—and this is the place you thought so monotonous—this is the place you were knocking but a little while ago. Well, we're glad to see you back again—it was lonesome around here without you. We missed your planning, your cooking, your general good cheer. Home wasn't much without you, we'll admit, but we'll bet we had a better time than you did. It does us good to get away from home once in a while, but getting back—oh there's the real joy.

The 1925 Portland exposition is going to be the most excellent advertisement to the state. It behoves every individual in Oregon to make a special effort to put the big undertaking over in such a way that the thousands of new people who enter the state will be so favorably impressed with the opportunities existing here that they will forget their old home town and "stick" in this state. It's going to cost quite a sum of money to carry out the plans of the exposition but it is going to be worth the price. So, come on, let's go.

It was "watermelon time" at the band concert last evening. The small boy with half a melon between his teeth and music in the air was a sight never before witnessed in this city—but the whole affair went over with a bang, bang, bang!

Any husband knows when he is to be late to dinner he'd better call up to keep from being called down.

Things are coming our way. But how about the city park? Let's get a little action.

Narcotic Agent Commits Suicide

(By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—After a raid by federal prohibition agents on the Greek Steamship Alexander today, in which seven members of the crew were wounded by pistol shots, Frank P. Fitzpatrick, chief of narcotic officers here who had taken an active part in the raid committed suicide at a nearby pier. Federal officers said that they knew no reason for the suicide except that the excitement and strain of the raid had temporarily deranged Fitzpatrick. Liquor valued at $50,000 and drugs valued at $75,000 were confiscated. Over a score of shots were exchanged by the crew and fifteen federal agents. None of the federal agents were hurt.

INSIDE STUFF We admire intellectual people. But how do they become that way? We don't find time to become intellectual. By the time we finish gathering our quota of news, writing this idiotic column, wading through exchanges and pushing the lawnmower it is bedtime.

Attorney Rice said the other day in court that there was only one harness shop in town. How about those places that sell corsets, Deck?

THE CLOCK WATCHER. A clerk, with ivory block, kept one eye on the clock; The clock still goes, But nobody knows, Where goes the ivory block.

A minister told us the other day during a penicheck game that girls have lost the ability to blush. No, person, hardly that. It just doesn't show through any more.

The gang tells one on one of the local tightwads. The t. w. said to his grandson: "Jimmie, if I gave you a nickel what would you do with it?" Jimmie replied: "Well, I don't suppose it would do any good but I'd try to pass it."

SO DO WE. A Cass street poet sent this one in today: Of all the things I ever knew, I'd rather be a cop; I'd roam the whole blained country through, And never miss a drop.

We wonder if the guy who wrote "Main Street" was ever on Jackson street?

Why is it the men folks make themselves mighty scarce around the house when the women are "putting up" fruit?

Prune Pickin's received a letter today from a young lady who gads up and down the streets morning, noon and night. Judging from the tone of the letter and the number of words we could make out, the "clear thing" is peevish because we are against rolled down socks. We are not exactly against the rolled down socks, Geraldine, but are much opposed to the poor judgment of the ones who year 'em.

What will the girl with the permanent wave do when the rainy season starts?

The hoboes in the jungles south of the city are drawing up a complaint which will be read to the common council of the city at the next session. The complaint alleges that the S. P. engines whistle so loudly that it is impossible to get a night's rest nowadays in the jungles.

A little youngster walked up to the News-Review counter last night and peering over it informed the gentleman at the adjacent desk that he "wanted a paper but didn't have the nickel just now." The lad was certainly candid in his statement and one can't help admiring him a darned sight more than the old duffer who sneaks in and cops one off the counter.

If we expect to keep Roseburg in the headlines we'll have to make arrangements to bring Roy Gardner down here.

RESULTS PROVED TO BE A WONDERFUL SURPRISE TO THIS PORTLAND MAN

"The way Tanlac fixed me up was about the biggest surprise of my life," said J. N. Edwards, 598 Albina Ave., Portland, Ore.

"It only took Tanlac six weeks to get the best of rheumatism that had bothered me for sixteen years. The fact of the matter is I had given up hope of ever getting relief and only took Tanlac thinking it might do me some temporary good."

"Actually, it's hard for me to realize that I'm the same man I was a short time ago. Tanlac put my stomach in first class shape, too. I have the appetite of a bear now and never feel the slightest discomfort after eating. I have even been able to stop the use of laxatives that I have been in the habit of taking for years, and I feel good all over. My advice to people with stomach trouble and rheumatism is to take Tanlac and get well."

Tanlac is sold in Roseburg by W. F. Chapman's Pharmacy and by leading druggists everywhere.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Mr. Edsel B. Ford, president of the Ford Motor Company, makes the following announcement:

"We are making another reduction in the prices of Ford cars and the Ford truck, effective today. The new prices average $70.00 under the former prices, and are the lowest at which Ford cars and trucks have ever been sold. List prices, F. O. B. Detroit, are now as follows:

Table with columns: Model, New Price, Old Price, Reduction. Includes Chassis, Runabout, Touring Car, Coupe, Sedan.

"This is the third price cut during the past twelve months. On September 22, 1920, the price of the Ford touring car was reduced from $775 to $440; June 7th to $415, and now to $365, making total reductions in this type of $220, or 38 per cent. The same proportionate reductions have been made in all other types. One year ago the price of the Ford Sedan was $975; today it lists at $660.00 with the same equipment."

"We are taking advantage of every known economy in the manufacture of our products in order that we may give them to the public at the lowest possible price, and by doing that, we feel that we are doing the one big thing that will help this country into more prosperous times. People are interested in prices, and are buying when prices are right."

"The production of Ford cars and trucks for August again broke all previous high records with the total reaching 117,696. This is the fourth consecutive month in which our output has gone over the hundred thousand mark, the total for the four months being 463,074, which has gone a long way in making possible the present reductions. In June this year, with an output of 117,247, was the previous record month."

"One noteworthy feature of our sales is the increased demand for Ford trucks and cars from salesmen. This class of commercial business has been gradually increasing the past sixty days and we interpret it as a very good sign of improvement in general business."

"No reduction has been made in the price of the Fordson tractor and none is contemplated."

Go over these new prices! See how little it costs to become the owner of a Ford car or a Ford truck. Can you really afford to do without one any longer?

ADVICE TO LOVELORN AND OTHERS

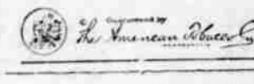

BY MRS. ELLSBURY. A Daily Column of Questions and Answers Conducted by a Woman Who Knows. Address your Letters to Mrs. Ellsbury Care Roseburg News-Review.

Dear Mrs. Ellsbury: I am a young man 22 years of age and have been employed by the railroad company in this city for some time. Recently I accepted a position in a California city at a better salary and expect to leave in a short time. I am very much in love with a young lady of this city who is several years younger. She is very anxious that we get married before I go but I do not feel that my salary is sufficient upon which to support a wife. Yet I sometimes fear that if I don't marry her before I go I will lose out. Would you advise me to get married under these circumstances or take chances waiting a few years? Also is there any way to remove an unsightly dimple in my chin? I would be thankful if it were not for this, I would very kindly for your advice. BROWN EYES, Roseburg.

Ans. Without knowing you both it would be very hard for me to advise you as to what to do. If you are both very much in love I think it would be wise for you to be married before you go. It is not fair to a girl as young as she to be tied to you for several years while you are far away. It deprives her of all the pleasures that are her right. She would not be free to go about with other men, and you would not be free to go with other girls. If I were you, I would much rather risk living on your salary than being separated. If you conscientiously believe that you should not be married before you leave, the wise thing for you to do would be to break the engagement and leave her absolutely free. If she loves you, she will be happy
