To borrow money on the faith and credit of the city; and to that end may provide for the issuance and sale of negotiable bonds of the city for any specific purpose and to designate the manner and time of payment thereof, and the interest thereon; provided, that the amount of the principal of said bonds so issued for any and all purposes shall never, except the bonds heretofore issued by the city and now outstanding, and except as may hereinafter be provided by law, exceed in the aggregate the amount hereinafter in this section authorized. It shall be lawful and the council is hereby given the power, under the restrictions herein expressed, to issue and sell negotiable bonds of the city, the principal of which shall not exceed the sum of FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS, for the purpose of acquiring, constructing and maintaining a system of water works or electric light works, or either or both thereof, for the purpose of supplying water and electricity, or either thereof, for any and all purposes for which the same may be used, to said city of Roseburg, and the inhabitants thereof and the vicinity thereof. The bonds hereby authorized may be in such form and of such denominations as the council may determine. The principal of said bonds shall become due thirty years from the date thereof, but any part or all of them may be paid by the city at the expiration of ten years from their date, or at any interest payment period thereafter prior to maturity. They shall bear interest at a rate not to exceed six per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, and shall be sold for not less than their par value. They shall be issued and sold at such times as the Council may direct, but not so as to exceed in the aggregate the sum of Five Hundred Thousand Dollars. They shall be signed by the Mayor and Recorder with their respective names of office, and shall bear the seal of said city. All bonds issued hereunder shall be deemed concurrent and shall be without priority as to each other. In addition to being a general obligation of the city, they shall be a first and exclusive lien on all of the water and light system acquired with the funds obtained by the city from their sale.

45. Said water and light system may be acquired either by original construction, condemnation or purchase, or any or all of said methods, as the Council may deem fit and proper, and said water and light system or water or light system, and any property condemned, purchased, or otherwise acquired therefor, may be situated within or without the boundaries of the City of Roseburg.

46. The Council of the City of Roseburg, under the limitations in this charter set out, shall at all times have power and authority to provide for the acquisition, either by original construction, condemnation or purchase, including the condemnation of any existing system or systems, and for the ownership, construction and maintenance of a system of water works and electric light works, or either or both thereof, and for the issuance of bonds therefor.

47. The income derived from County Clerk of Douglas County, said water and light system, or either thereof, shall be disposed of in the following order and manner:

(c). In making extensions to and improvements upon said system.

(d). In the accumulation of a sinking fund for the payment of the outstanding bonds issued to secure such system.

(e). In the payment of the bonds issued to secure said system.

48. The Council may provide by ordinance a system for the management, operation and maintenance of all such public utilities as may be acquired by the city under the provisions of this charter, not inconsistent with the provisions of this amendment.

49. The Council is hereby authorized and directed to levy a tax annually, in addition to the taxes authorized by sub-divisions 1 to 5, inclusive, and sub-division 39 of section 33 of this charter, and in addition to all other taxes authorized to be levied and collected by this charter or any of the amendments thereto, sufficient to pay the interest accruing on the bonds authorized by sub-division 44 of this section, and after ten years from the date of the issuance of said bonds, such further levy as may be necessary to provide a sinking fund sufficient in amount to pay said bonds at maturity, or to pay said bonds or any part thereof at any option period hereinafter provided; and the Council may cause said sinking fund to be loaned at interest upon approved security or invested in approved interest bearing securities in the name of the city pending the application thereof in payment of said bonds.

50. The indebtedness authorized by this amendment to the municipal charter of the City of Roseburg is in addition to all indebtedness heretofore authorized and incurred by said city and is not to be considered as affected by any limits of indebtedness in said charter or elsewhere.

51. All parts of the charter of the City of Roseburg and all ordinances and parts of ordinances of said city in conflict with the provisions of this charter amendment are hereby amended, modified or repealed as the case may require in order that this amendment may be in effect.

The form in which said proposed amendment shall appear on the official ballots at said election shall be as follows, to-wit:

Stuck-up Elephants Make Herd Carry Trunks Just So

Kas and Mo and Floto and Mama are performing elephants, and they have constituted themselves a board of censorship over all the other elephants with the Sells-Floto circus, coming Friday, September 23, to Roseburg. Because of their superior education they are very "upstage" with the pachyderm actors less clever than they, and, as for the elephants which can not perform well, one should see Kas and company slip them, the scornful razz.

Kas, it was, who found a name for the quarter. Being a well traveled elephant, he has picked up a fad of reading signs on box cars. "We shall be 'The Big 4,'" he whispered behind his trunk to Mo, and Mo passed the word to Floto and Mama. That led to other things. Soon, "The Big 4" began to tell the other "bulla" how to carry their trunks in parade. The patient, kindly members of the five Sells-Floto herds have allowed themselves to be imposed upon to the extent that now they yield the centers of the three rings to Kas and his pals in the performances and copy their table manners. So, if in the big menagerie tent of the circus, you find meek elephants that are slow to reach out for peanuts, do not pass them by, but offer the coobers to them twice. You won't have to wait long, for Kas and Mo have a tough time restraining their humble understudies' eagerness for peanuts. Of course, it is hard for the trainers to put "The Big Four" in their places, for they really are clever actors. Most circus men concede that Floto and Mama are the cleverest pachyderms that ever performed. They are all of them great lovers of the children, and it is almost impossible to be harsh with elephants that care for children as to the Sells-Floto herds.

In the opening spectacle, "The Birth of the Rainbow," Mama, Floto and twelve other elephants carry Maypoles, and ballet girls dance at the ends of dozens of rainbow streamers which radiate from the peaks.

All of the Sells-Floto performing herds are presented in the rings and on the tracks by girl trainers—Blanche Wells, Stella Rowland, Ethel Hamilton, Idah Delno and Marcia Raleigh.

STILL IS UNEARTHED

MEDFORD, Sept. 20.—Sheriff Terrell reports the discovery of a still last Friday that for crudity of construction and deadliness of contents is a record. It was found in a heavily wooded gulch in the (deleted by censor) district, and was sought by Prohibition Enforcement Officer Sandifer and aides on their visit here a month ago. A warrant is out for the owner who disappeared during the recent raids.

According to the sheriff, the still consisted of a number of coal oil cans, with a hole punched in them, and coils attached. Three washbubs full of prunes and corn meal were also found, in a high state of decomposition.

Melrose to Have School Building

At a meeting of the legal voters of school district 71 at the Melrose Grange hall last night, it was voted unanimously to create an indebtedness of $4500 for the purpose of acquiring a school site and building and equipping a modern two room school. Thomas Scott has liberally donated one acre of ground and the majority of those present last night voted to have not less than three acres for the school site. The board has chosen as the location a plot south of the road on Mr. Scott's land about opposite the southwest corner of the Howard Wilson place. Prof. and Mrs. Starrett of Roseburg have been engaged as teachers and everything points to a good school year. School will begin October 3 and will be held in the grange hall until the new building is ready.

ADVICE TO LOVELORN AND OTHERS

BY MRS. ELLSBURY

A Daily Column of Questions and Answers Conducted by a Woman Who Knows. Address your Letters to Mrs. Ellsbury Care Roseburg News-Review.

Dear Mrs. Ellsbury: I am going to see with a boy that I have been with before. He is not acquainted with any of my family, and I rather a stranger in town. Will I meet him at the door all right, or shall I ask him in? Will I ask him in when we come back and not before we go? I have never been puzzled like this before. The boys I have gone with have always been friends of the family.

SYLVIA, Roseburg.

Ans. Do not have your coat or hat on when he comes, and ask him to just a moment. Introduce him to your family and let him talk to them while you get ready to go. He is a little embarrassed, do not let the visit out. If you are going to a show and will be home early, let your family be together in the living room, ask him in for a half hour or so to get acquainted.

RALPH, Roseburg.

Ans. The correct thing for you to do would be to write a letter of introduction to the father and mother of a gift of some kind. A padded carriage robe would be a nice gift, or a ring, necklace, or silver bracelet with the baby's name on it.

Dear Mrs. Ellsbury: Will you tell me how I can obtain a copy of "The Message to Garcia," written by Elmer Ellsbury. One that is not too expensive? FANNY, Myrtle Creek, Ore. Write "The Hoycroffers."

East Aurora, Erie county, New York. Ask for the message in pamphlet form. It will not cost you more than twenty-five cents.

MR. JINKS WAS DISCOURAGED

With All His Hard Work on "Flivver," All He Could Do Was Make the Horn Squawk.

Mr. Jinks has been the proud possessor of a brand-new flivver for nearly three weeks, and his precious treasure is never far from his thoughts. Every moment he can spare is devoted to polishing its glossy coat or tinkering with its vitals in the effort to discover the cause of its occasional spells of mullish bulkiness.

The other night—about two o'clock—Mrs. Jinks was awakened by terrific yowls emitted by the family cat. Now the cat was a peaceful pussy and not at all given to nocturnal vocal demonstrations. Imagine Mrs. Jinks' astonishment when she arose and discovered her husband sitting on the edge of the bed, vigorously twisting the cat's tail round and round.

"John," she protested, rescuing her pet with some difficulty, "what on earth are you doing?"

Mr. Jinks was evidently in a somnambulist state, for he scratched his head and responded sleepily:

"Sh' won't go, honey; sh' simply won't go. I've cranked an' cranked an' th' horn squawks, an' thash all. Guesh 'll have t' sen 'er up fer repairs. Somethin' 'mash be matter wizzer magnet. 'Stern shame, an' ain't paid fer yet, even!"—From Nuggets.
