ROSEBURG, OREGON, OCTOBER 1, 1921.

THE TAX TEST OF BUSINESS.

According to the Nation's Business, taxes as indications of the volume of business may have their fallacies, but are not the less interesting.

Figures now available show that in the current year the government is collecting more than last year from taxes on freight charges; the tax has remained the same, the volume of freight has fallen off, but the freight rates have gone up, to the advantage of the public exchequer.

This is cheering news to all of us. We should hate to know that the financial and industrial depression is affecting even the tax collectors' business.

A nation-wide survey of prevailing crop and business conditions gives us definite knowledge upon which to base our conclusions as to the probable trend of things in the immediate future, says The Nation's Business.

When "Fatty" Arbuckle, charged with manslaughter in connection with the death recently of a movie actress at San Francisco, arrived at Los Angeles yesterday he received a warm welcome and several silly girls showered the big movie star with kisses.

In this enlightened age there are only a few people who believe advertising doesn't pay. The business man who believes to the contrary is the fellow who is reaping the harvest—turning over his stock at frequent intervals and making a fair profit on his merchandise.

After reading over carefully the advertising sections of the magazines, we are lost in wonder to know how the American pioneers ever did it without the aid of correspondence schools and extension courses.

Douglas county produced one-half of the entire prune crop of the northwest. There's no use getting away from the fact that it pays to "be full of prunes"—at the prevailing price of ten cents a pound.

The pen, of course, is mightier than the sword, but there never was a pen wielder who didn't long occasionally to swap his typewriter for a pair of boxing gloves with lead in them.

A "rounder" always has a hard time to square himself.

AROUND THE TOWN

In from Winchester—Miss Merle Hays, of Winchester, arrived here this morning to spend the week end visiting with friends.
In from Clatsopville—Miss Beulah Clough of Clatsopville, spent the day in this city attending to business matters.

Prune Pickin's

Just as ye ed. of Prune Pickin's was loafing around in his dugout yesterday eve, the telephone bell clanged merrily and ye ed. whispered a sweet "hello" through the mouth-piece.

STARTING THE FORD. Give the crank, Elmer. Wait a minute till I retard the spark. Now try her. Wait till I advance the spark. Now spin her. Got plenty of gas? Mebbe there's a clog in the feed line. Spark seems all right. Spin her again. Deader 'en a mackerel. Lookit that switch. Alright? Give her another spin. Must have a loose connection somewhere. Try her now. Wait a minute till I fix this thingummy. Now spin her. There she is. Hop in. Honk, honk.

A noodle dog in the home in place of children will not keep the divorce lawyer away.
A deaf and dumb mute recently went into a bicycle shop and picked up a hub and spoke.

A GOOD IDEA. The time to buy a used car is just before you move, so people in the new neighborhood will think you were the one who used it.—Kansas City Star.

"I want some powder."
"Mennen's?"
"No, vimmen's."
"Scented?"
"No, I will take it mit me."

A sweet young thing asked ye ed. of Prunes today why we printed such terrible things about the girls. We print them because, with the puffs of hair over their ears, they can't hear us when we say them.

Ex Hoskins of the Cow Creek country, came near losing a lot of money the other day. A slick appearing, smooth-talking stranger induced him to buy several hundred dollars' worth of stock in a moving picture enterprise. Ez says the certificate has the prettiest picture on it of any stock ever offered to him. Only the fact that the bank wouldn't cash his check because he didn't have any money left there, saved him from being an easy mark. Ez told the man that the bank must be wrong—he had lots of checks left in his book yet.

While Salzman was down at the Elks' convention in Marshfield recently he entered a restaurant and sat down at a table and when the waitress, highly calcimined and peroxidized, came up, he asked: "How's the chicken this evening?" The girl replied: "All right, old kid, how's every little thing with you?"

The wrist watch is a great traveler. It has traveled from the wrist to the ankle and is now as far as the knee.

Do you remember when we used to write verses in girls' autograph albums with purple ink?

Some bird sends a lot of squibs to Prune Pickin's over the pen-name of Bachelor Dreams. Thanks for the bright little squibs, Bachelor, but hereafter don't forget to place a stamp on the right-hand corner of the envelope.

LAFE PERKINS SEZ: "Little Willie says Saturday is the only day in the week he can go a whole day without gettin' his ears washed."

In from Tiller—Jack Ritter, well known resident of the Tiller section, spent last evening in this city attending to business matters.

In from Camas—Mrs. J. P. Denn arrived in this city from her home in Camas Valley last evening to visit for several days with friends.

In on Business—Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Clough, and their guest, Mrs. Emma Hillborn, of Marshfield, spent yesterday in this city attending to matters of shopping.

Return from Pendleton—Mrs. Howard A. Uhlig and son returned here this morning from Pendleton, where they have been enjoying the Round-Up. They spent several days in Portland, on their return trip.

Move into New Building—The J. H. Dean Transfer and Storage Company, have opened their new office, which is located three doors north of their old establishment.

Leaves for South—Ed Beardorf, round house foreman, and his wife left this morning, for Los Angeles, San Diego, and other Californian points, where they will attend to business matters. They will also go into Arizona, where they have mine interests.

Archie Ferguson Emily Weber Wed

A pretty wedding was solemnized at 8:20 this morning at the Presbyterian Manse, when Miss Emily E. Weber became the bride of Archie W. Ferguson. The ring ceremony was used, and only a few relatives and friends were present. The bride is a niece of Mrs. A. Fisher, of this city, and has been honored at many social functions since the announcement of her engagement. Mr. Ferguson, together with his brother, has charge of the city delivery system. He recently purchased the Hanks ranch at Days Creek, where they will make their permanent home. Their many friends in this city wish them much happiness for the future.

THE KITCHEN CABINET

"Be consistent in your economy. Don't try to save on the necessities of life. To do so is false economy, but to practice your economies on those things you do not actually need—the luxuries of life."

SUMMER SALADS.

Now that the colorful tomato may be added to the menu at a reasonable price, if they are not picked from the garden, our salad will take on an added note of color. An ordinary potato salad garnished with a few pieces of tomato will add not only to the taste but appeal to the eye.

Pineapple and Orange Salad.—Lay two thin slices of orange from the center of an orange on the heart leaves of head lettuce, on these lay a slice of pineapple, in the center place an inch strip of celery, fringed, and allowed to stand in cold water to curl, then in the center of the celery place a small ball of hard-cooked egg yolk. Serve with a rich mayonnaise dressing.

Delicious Fruit Salad.—Take one cupful of ennobled cherries cut in quarters, a cupful of fresh marshmallows cut in bits, one-half cupful of shredded almonds that have been blanched. Add a tablespoonful of lightly seasoned hot dressing to a cupful of whipped cream and stir into the fruit mixture. Heap on nests of head lettuce or in orange or apple cups.

Chicken Salad.—Take two cupfuls of finely minced white meat of chicken, add the same amount of celery, one finely diced apple, a tablespoonful of minced green pepper and a cupful or more of good dressing mixed with a cupful of whipped cream. Serve on lettuce leaves.

Cabbage Salad.—Chop two cupfuls of cabbage very fine, add one-half cupful of rolled fresh peanuts, roll on the bread board with the rolling pin until like coarse crumbs. Add any highly seasoned dressing and garnish with strips of red pepper.

Tomato and Cucumber Salad.—Chop cucumber very fine and mix with a few spoonfuls of minced onion; fill firm ripe tomatoes made into cups with the mixture. Mix with a little dressing before filling, then add a spoonful to the top of each before serving.

ADVICE TO LOVELORN AND OTHERS

BY MRS. ELLSBURY. A Daily Column of Questions and Answers Conducted by a Woman Who Knows. Address your Letters to Mrs. Ellsbury, Care Roseburg News-Review.

Dear Mrs. Ellsbury: I am to be married very soon. The wedding is to be early in the morning at the home of the pastor, and we are going on an auto trip afterward. What shall I wear to be married in? If I wear a coat shall I leave it on during the ceremony?

MISS C. L. ROSEBURG. Ans. Wear either a suit with tailored hat and gloves, or a coat; either one you have is appropriate. With the coat wear a dark cloth dress, or a very severe silk dress. If you wear the coat, remove it during the ceremony, but do not remove your hat. If you wear the suit, remove only your gloves.

Dear Mrs. Ellsbury: Where can I buy checked velour by the yard? Will it make a good business or traveling suit, and how would you suggest that I have it made?

VERA, YONCALA. Ans. If you cannot buy it in Roseburg, send to any of the larger Portland stores, and ask them for samples. Select the piece you want
