insanity defense but declared that he had an opinion as to whether the insanity of the defendant in this case was real or faked. He would, however, he said, give the defendant the benefit of a doubt.
The defense submitted him to challenge and the state resisted it. Judge Bingham then asked the man several questions and stated that the juror was competent.

In questioning by the district attorney, Larkins said he had no bias against circumstantial evidence and had no conscientious scruples against the infliction of the death penalty.
Dr. Brumfield smiled at his wife when the discussion centered around the possibility of a death penalty verdict.

Chenoweth is Excused. C. L. Chenoweth, of Oakland hardware merchant, was next examined. Mr. Chenoweth from the very first of the examination exhibited a marked prejudice against the defendant and in spite of all questions maintained that he had formed an opinion that he could hardly disregard. As a result he was excused.
Both the defense and state challenged Chenoweth. The defense on the grounds that the man was biased against the prisoner and the state on the grounds that the man had conscientious scruples against invoking the death penalty as a punishment for first degree murder. The names of Jim Marvin was drawn as a substitute for Mr. Chenoweth.

Strong is Examined. H. H. Strong of Sutherlin, stated that he had read a great deal of the Brumfield case in the News-Review and that he had formed a strong opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the prisoner. He also admitted that he had a bias against an insanity plea in a case like this. The defense challenged Strong and the state resisted the challenge. Judge Bingham asked Mr. Strong several questions for the purpose of ascertaining the state of mind of the juror. Strong informed the judge that try as he could he felt that he would be unable to overcome the prejudice in his mind. He was excused from duty.

Nearly Two Hours Consumed. Nearly two hours were consumed in the examination of these three men. Judge Bingham then called a noon recess and an adjournment was taken until 1:30 o'clock.
Court Convened. George Best was excused from jury duty on account of sickness in his family. Mr. Best did not undergo an examination.
John H. Herstine, of Olalla, was selected in the place of Mr. Best.
Mrs. Brumfield Late. Mrs. Brumfield did not arrive in the courtroom this afternoon until nearly 2 o'clock. When she entered Dr. Brumfield smiled and beckoned her to his side. She smiled at him and took a chair near him.

examination, stated that Dr. Brumfield had performed dental work for his family. He said his business relations with Brumfield had always been pleasant. The dental work he spoke of was done about six weeks ago. Mr. Payne said.

Walter Coates Examined. Walter G. Coates, of Olalla, was next examined. He said he had followed the case through the News-Review. He was asked by Attorney Rice if he had read "Prune Piekin's" and the prospective juror replied, "Yes, I read that more than anything else." It was necessary to call for order in the courtroom. Mr. Coates said that he had an opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the defendant, but that the opinion could be set aside and a verdict rendered on the testimony of the witnesses and the verdict of the court. The defense passed the juror for cause and the state took up the examination.

Yankees Shut Out Giants In Game

Ruth, who let the ball fly up in the air before he caught it for the out. Peckinpaugh threw out Burns at first. Ward threw out Bancroft at first. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Second half—Frisch singled into right, making his second hit for the game. Frisch stole second. It was a close decision and the Yankees kicked. Young sacrificed, Mays to Pipp. Frisch going to third. The Yankees held a conference at the pitcher's box. The infield played back and then came in on the grass. Kelley struck out. Peckinpaugh threw out Menzel at first. No runs, one hit, no errors.

McNally stole home. Snyder touched him with the ball after he had crossed the plate. Frisch robbed Miller of a hit and threw him out at first. One run, one hit, no errors.

First half—Bancroft took Peckinpaugh's roller but his throw was too late to get the runner and it went for a hit. Peck went to second on a passed ball. Ruth struck out. Peck scored on Menzel's long hit to left field for three bases. The Giants threw the ball to first base and Kelley touched the base. Menzel being declared out. The claim was that the runner did not touch first base. Pipp walked. The play on Menzel's drive was Menzel to Kelley to Rawlings to Douglas to Kelley. Douglas tried to catch Pipp off first. Pipp out stealing. Snyder to Rawlings. One hit, one run, no errors.

Second half—Mays took Burns' hopper and threw him out at first. Bancroft out on grounder to Pipp. Pipp slid into the bag to make the putout. Frisch got a three base hit to left. His third hit. Peck threw out Young at first, making a neat stop and a long throw from back on the grass. No runs, one hit, no errors.

First half—Ward struck out, Rawlings threw out McNally at first. Schang hit by batted ball and was declared out. Mays gets credit for a hit. No runs, one hit, no errors. Second half—Kelley fouled out to Ward, who took the ball back of first. Ward threw out Menzel. Rawlings got a short hit to right. Snyder forced Rawlings at second. Peckinpaugh to Ward. No runs, one hit, no errors.

First half—Miller popped out to Bancroft. Rawlings tossed out Peckinpaugh. Ruth struck out. Douglas was given big hand. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Second half—Smith batted for Douglas and flied out to Ruth. Peck threw out Burns. Bancroft sent a high fly to Ruth. No runs, no hits, no errors.

First half—Barnes now pitching for the Giants. Menzel popped to Rawlings. Kelley took Pipp's grounder and touched first. Ward pushed a single into right. The Yankees were trying the hit and run play. On the play McNally singled to left, Ward going to third. McNally stole second. Schang struck out. No runs, two hits, no errors.

Second half—Frisch singled into right, making his fourth hit. Young forced Frisch. Ward to Peck. Kelley hit into a double play. Peck to Ward to Pipp. No runs, one hit, no errors. Score by Innings:
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 R.H.E.
