Austrian Cities Are Attacked

(By Associated Press.)
VIENNA, Oct. 10.—Welder Neudorfer shot one hour outside of Vienna was shot by a machine gun fire yesterday from Hungarian insurgents occupying positions southeast of the city. The insurgents were finally repulsed and the inhabitants fled to the west. Sharp fighting was also reported at Bronck and other parts of the boundary between Lower Austria and Hungary. Vienna residents feared that the Hungarian attack is simultaneous with a monarchist rising.

GIANTS WIN SUNDAY GAME

Hit Mays for Four Hits in Eighth Inning and Get Three Runs.

ANOTHER IN NINTH

Babe Ruth Clouts Out Homer for Yankees in Ninth But the Run Falls to Being Victory—Giants Stage Rally.

The Giants Sunday evening up the score in the World's baseball series by taking the fourth game by a score of 4 to 2. The Yankees led off with the scoring in the fifth inning, scoring one run. Both teams played a tight ball until the eighth when Meusel dropped a depth bomb on Mays' submarine ball and blew it up for three bases. The Giants staged a thrilling batting rally and put over three runs on four hits. The Yankees failed to score in their half, and the Giants came back with another run in the ninth. In the closing half of the ninth Babe Ruth smashed a homer into the bleachers, giving the Yankees their second and final score. The batteries were Douglas and Snyder and Mays and Sehng.

Harrisburg Man Reported Missing

HARRISBURG, Ore., Oct. 10.—C. N. Larkin, proprietor of the local ten and fifteen cent store, is missing. He left last week on Tuesday with $200 in his pocket and riding his wheel. He said he would return within 24 hours. Since then, nothing has been seen or heard of him. There is some anxiety that he may have met with foul play; but it is said he once disappeared before, being gone nearly two years, and it is suspected that he may have repeated the trick. Mr. Larkin is about 48 years of age, very dark complexioned and slightly stoop-shouldered. He had no business worries, so far as is known. His large stock of goods is paid for and outstanding bills are very small. His business was in good condition and there is no known reason why he should thus vanish without trace.

In the event of his not being heard from in the course of a few days his relatives will consider the advisability of disposing of the store and placing the proceeds in trust for Mr. Larkin's two sons, who live near Spokane. John Keeler, uncle of Mr. Larkin, is at present managing the store, but he intends to quit at the end of the week.

Labor Conference Reconvenes Today

(By United Press.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—The national unemployment conference reconvened today after a ten days' recess, admittedly entering its "critical period" as the delegates assembled. Herbert Hoover, who is guiding the conference, insists that reductions in railroad rates is the only solution of the problem and will relieve the business depression. Representatives of capital insist that labor must accept lower rates, while representatives of organized labor insist that capital must eschew profiteering and slash prices. Some organized labor leaders seem ready to hold the conference, if reduced wages, open shop and some other controversial questions are considered by the conference.

Disastrous Wreck On Irish Seas

(By United Press.)
GLASGOW, Scotland, Oct. 10.—Twenty-four persons, including ten members of the American Southern Symphonied Orchestra and three St. Paul experts enroute to the London peace conference, were drowned when the liner Clan Malcolm rammed the liner Rowan in a heavy fog on the Irish sea. The Malcolm rammed the Rowan while rushing to the aid of the West Canak, an American steamer, which had previously collided with the Rowan. The Rowan sank immediately.

Another Wine Party Death

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 9.—Al Stein, 26, assistant director for a motion picture company, died in his apartment here early today from what the county autopsy surgeon officially reported was "probably acute alcoholism," although two young women were taken into custody by the police on suspicion of murder and search was begun for three men.

The police said there were indications that a party had been held at Stein's apartments Saturday night, but it was not until nearly dawn this morning that physicians and later detectives were summoned.

The young women, Mrs. Jeanne Munroe, 22, said to be a motion picture actress, and Mildred Frances Bellwin, 22, a chorus girl, known professionally as "Billie Deelya," were in the Stein apartments when the police arrived, the latter said. The officers quoted the young women as having stated Stein returned to the apartment late last night with three men, who remained only a short time.

An autopsy of Stein's body was under consideration tonight, as the officers said the only outward sign of violence was a two-inch scratch on his neck.

Carl M. Stein, brother of the dead man, advised the authorities of a thorough investigation.

The detectives said they found in Stein's apartment telegrams and notations on the case of Roscoe C. (Fatty) Arbuckle, now awaiting trial in San Francisco on a charge of manslaughter, growing out of the death of Miss Virginia Rappo, screen actress, from injuries alleged to have been suffered at a party given by Arbuckle at the St. Francis hotel.

The officers accounted for the fact that Stein had been assistant to Frederick Fishback, film director, who was a guest at the Arbuckle party and who later gave testimony regarding it.

Almost Douglas County Case

EUGENE, Oct. 10.—If the shooting of Earl Hebert at Bristow prairie had occurred a quarter of a mile farther south it would have been a case for Douglas county, says Sheriff Fred Stickle, who returned last night from a three days' trip to the scene of the killing. E. F. Martin, Walter Hauser and Charles Stickle accompanied him to the summit of the range which divides the Willamette and Umpqua waters, 10 miles southeast of Eugene, where Elmer Yoeman mistook Hebert, a fellow hunter, for a deer and fatally wounded him.

The party went from Eugene to Camper's prairie in an automobile, then packed in for about ten miles to the scene of the shooting. Jap H. is guide, took them over the ground where examinations were made and photographs taken for the benefit of the grand jury and court when the case comes up again. The grand jury has been called to recon sider the case, and also the McKen-Pitney case, next Monday, October 10.

FIRE IN NORTH ROSEBURG

The fire department was called out yesterday afternoon to fight a stubborn blaze in the vicinity of the Kinneyville trestle. A fire started in a pile of sawdust near the old Singas mill property and burned underneath a wooden plank roadway, tunnels being burned through the sawdust so that the sheds used as garages and for other purposes on Winchester street were threatened. The fire required no quick action but contained a large amount of work, it being necessary to cut a number of holes through the planking to reach the burning sawdust underneath.

Fire Prevention Day Observed

Fire Prevention Day, October 9, was probably more widely observed this year in the United States than ever before, according to information reaching Fire Chief James Fletcher.

In view of the many proclamations that are being issued and the extensive programs of exercises planned by many important cities, it is believed that the occasion was a truly national event.

"With progress throughout the nation being destroyed by fire at the rate of about half a billion dollars a year," said Fire Chief Fletcher today, "there is an imperative need of awakening the public to the necessity for greater carefulness in dealing with common fire hazards in the home and elsewhere. Every day should be a fire prevention day, and we hope to make it so in Roseburg."

"If the people of this city would observe the following precautions, life and property in Roseburg would be considerably safer than they are today:

- Don't use make-shifts instead of proper fuses in your electrical circuit; the fuse is the safety valve of the system.
- Don't leave electric flatirons or other heating devices turned on while attending to something else.
- Don't look for a gas leak with an open flame light; you will be sure to find it.
- Don't use gasoline or other volatile liquids to remove spots from clothing or for other purposes; it is cheaper to pay for dry cleaning than for a funeral.
- Don't throw your matches or lighted smoking material where they can possibly cause fire.
- Don't smoke in bed; even if those guilty of this practice are too green to burn, the beds are not.
- Don't let children play with bonfires or matches.
- Don't fall to have your defective chimneys and flues mended; they cause numerous fires in Roseburg.
- Don't forget to have your smoke-pipe cleaned of soot; if clogged, it may overheat and start a fire when you operate the furnace.
- Don't neglect to protect walls, ceilings and partitions from the overheating of stoves, furnaces and pipes.
- Don't put hot ashes into wooden boxes or barrels.
- Don't fill oil lamps or stoves by open flame light; many lives have been lost by this form of carelessness.
- Don't let rubbish accumulate; Garages.
