Attempt Made to Kill Woman

(By Associated Press.)
 CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—Several thirty-two calibre bullets and a trail of footprints that ended at the road were the only clues to the persons who last night attempted to assassinate Mrs. Elizabeth Tyler, head of the woman's department of the Ku Klux Klan. Five shots were fired into the bedroom window of her home. The glass was smashed and the bullets whizzed over her head as she leaped over the bed of her daughter who was ill. An hour later the Atlanta Constitution got a mysterious telephone call from a man saying "we got Mrs. Tyler tonight and we will get Colonel Simmons tomorrow."

Klan Wizard Fights Inquiry

(By United Press.)
 WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—William J. Simmons, Imperial Wizard of the Ku Klux Klan, is marshalling his forces to resist the attacks made on the organization by those seeking to have a congressional investigation instigated. William J. Simmons is directing his specific attack against Anderson Wright, of New York, former King Klouglo, who bared many of the Klan's secrets before the House rules committee while it conducting a preliminary investigation. The National Equal Rights League, a negro organization, today brought petitions to the house purporting to show that the Klan is a constant menace and terror to negroes.

HOTELS ARE CROWDED

The hotels of the city are being crowded during the Brumfield trial. The housing of a large number of witnesses, together with the jurors and court officials is taking up a large number of the rooms in the hotels which have been filled almost to capacity by the regular trade.

but that it was impossible to keep up with it. He said he saw a pair of feet hanging out of the front seat of the car on the right side. He turned the lights on after he started, Mr. Bowman stated. It was just getting dusk.

He said that he positively recognized the driver of the car as Dr. Brumfield, and that he was wearing a light checkered coat and a light straw hat.

"And had you seen Dr. Brumfield frequently?" the witness was asked. "I have not seen him frequently since July 13," was the answer.

Upon cross-examination he stated that he had not seen the car until he drove up. It was not yet dark enough to require lights for driving, he said, and he did not turn on the lights until he started to pass the red car. He said that somebody was lying on his back in the car with his feet sticking out, but nobody was standing outside the car. He stated further that he thought at the time that the second person in the red car was a woman.

Mr. Bowman said that Brumfield's face was ashen and that he appeared to be greatly excited. When he saw a car behind him he attempted to make a rapid start and in so doing grated the gears of his machine. Bowman said he thought the doctor was on a "booze party" and the figure crouching in the front seat with feet sticking out of the door was a woman, and that he did not watch closely for that reason.

Mrs. Myrtle Reymers, a local lady, took the stand next and testified that she saw the Brumfield car on the Pacific highway south of Roseburg on the night of July 13th. Mrs. Reymers said that she with her husband and little son had driven to Dillard and had stopped at that place to fix a tire when Dr. Brumfield passed driving south. This was about 8 o'clock. She recognized the doctor as the driver of the red car. The Reymers' then started on their return trip to Roseburg and had reached a point near the Green school house when they were forced to stop and again fix the tire. This was about 10 o'clock, she said. This was about 10 o'clock, she said. This was about 10 o'clock, she said. This was about 10 o'clock, she said.

Peace Conference Enforces Truce

GROUSE LIVES LIKE ESKIMO

In Cold Weather the Bird Finds a Safe and Warm Retreat in Snow House.

In the temperate months the grouse has an excellent choice of food consisting of a great variety of berries, small fruit, seeds, buds, clover, beech-nuts, grasshoppers and a multitude of young, tender leaves. In the winter one wonders at their survival; for now the fall flight of the robins completely exhausts the berries, which were wont to linger and ripen well into winter, compelling the grouse to depend largely upon yellow birch buds, with many a forced meal on an evergreen.

Fortunately, whenever the temperature is far below zero the sky is usually clear and the grouse are active and unconcerned, but if the days and nights are dark and cold or the air filled with merciless pellets, they have the habit of plunging into deep snowdrifts, where a foot below the surface the heat and weight of the body form a globular retreat, in which they remain comfortably until the storm clears or hunger forces an exit.

Sometimes in winter or the early spring there may come a rain or a warm day that melts the surface snow followed by severe weather, and then thousands of grouse are imprisoned and the heretofore safe retreat becomes their tomb, should weeks pass by before the seal is broken.—National Geographic Magazine.

WITNESSES TRACE BRUMFIELD CAR

Testimony Late Yesterday Afternoon Devoted to Locating Brumfield Car on Evening July 13.

BOWMAN'S TESTIMONY

Saw Machine Start Up With Feet Dragging Out of Right Side, He Said—Others Testify Regarding Alleged Murder.

The testimony continued until late yesterday afternoon. A short recess was taken at 3:30 o'clock, after which O. W. Ronk was called on the witness stand. He corroborated the testimony of his son Kenneth, stating that he was on the porch of the Booth place on the night of July 13, and heard two rifle shots a short distance down the road, and a moment later an auto roared by.

Identifies Knife.
 J. A. Walker was called to the stand and identified a pen knife as the one he picked up at the scene of the wreck the morning after the murder.

F. O. Schultz Testifies.
 F. O. Schultz was the next witness to testify. He said he was riding with W. R. Bowman and wife on the evening of July 13. The party left Roseburg at 8 o'clock, going to a dance at Riddle. They saw a red car standing still by the side of the road and were nearly beside it before it started up and zig-zagged across the road at a high rate of speed. They were about six feet from the car when it started, and tried to pass on the left side. It was beginning to get dark, and the car in front flashed the lights on as the Bowman car approached. Mr. Schultz stated that he was not acquainted with Brumfield. He also stated that he could see the driver of the car, but had not seen the red car was not sitting in the seat. Mr. Schultz continued, but was standing up and leaning over the steering wheel. The person in the red car said nothing, according to the witness. The front door of the car on the right side was open, and it appeared as if a person were standing on the ground and leaning into the car as if he were working with something on the dash. There was nothing in the door that attracted special attention, said the witness. This meeting occurred at about 8:40 o'clock, one-fourth mile south from the Booth house on the Pacific highway.

Upon cross-examination the witness said there were no lights on the car standing at the roadside.
 Bowman on Witness Stand.
 W. R. Bowman then took the stand and stated that he went to Riddle to a dance on the night of July 13. One-fourth of a mile from the Booth ranch he saw a car stopped and a man lying on his back apparently working on the lights of the car or leaning over the steering wheel. When Bowman drove up the car plunged forward. It was a red car with disc wheels, he said. Bowman yelled, "Look out, Doc," but received no answer. He said that when the red car started up it sounded like the gears were being torn out. The driver was bending over the steering wheel.

Mr. Bowman stated that he followed the red car for a little ways,
