Church of Christ, south part of Roseburg, corner Roberts and Cobb streets, one block of the Pacific highway.—Services Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, song service, reading of scriptures and breaking of bread. "Obey" was the subject announced for the memory verses. The first thing a earthly parent tries to teach his child is that he must obey or suffer the consequences. The heavenly parent, through past records, teaches his first law, layed down to Adam and Eve, that they must obey his words or suffer death. On down the ages the first law of the gospel is, His children must obey his word. Song service and prayer at 7 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to worship at the Church of Christ.

The Presbyterian Church, Jackson and Lane streets—L. W. Warrington, minister.

Present day happenings and con-whole wide world call for the most earnest prayer and heart searching on the part of Christian people. 2. Chor. 7:14.

9:45 A. M. The Bible Study Hour. Are you studying the Bible? There is a great need for a revival of Bible study.

11 A. M. The Morning Worship. Sermon-subject: "Modern Infidelity lifts the Crime Wave". Crime trails infidelity. Infidelity lifts man from his knees and cuts him loose from the wholesome, restraining influences of God and Eternity. Infidelity, whether of word or action, blows out the light and leaves man groping in the dark on life's trail.

6:30 P. M. Mr. Paul Maier will lead Endeavor service. The subject is "What we know about God."

7:30 P. M. The Choir leads the congregation in the singing of the Gospel Hymns. There will be special music at the morning and evening services. The evening sermon subject is: "The Revelation of the Cross." The Cross reveals two great facts: Man's sin and God's love. We need to recognize the reality of these.

Shell-Shock Cases To be Investigated

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 21.—Whether former soldiers whose minds were wrecked by shell-shock, wounds and gas are temporarily or permanently insane is to be determined in three suits to compel payment of war risk insurance by the government, filed in United States district court here by James B. Littlefield, attorney acting for the American Legion.

The action has been taken in behalf of three soldiers, Adam Mikill-wicz, Guiseppe Vitullo and James McGee. It is alleged by the Legion attorney that the three are totally disabled as a result of insanity. The government insurance bureau, Mr. Littlefield charges, has refused to pay the insurance of the men on the ground that they are but temporarily disabled and may recover their mental faculties.

Hundreds of New England service men, their minds dwarfed from shell-shock, wounds and gas, are confined in state institutions for the insane and in private hospitals. If Attorney Littlefield wins his cases, similar suits will follow in federal courts in all New England states and, with a precedent established, in all parts of the country.

"These men were returned from service in the army as insane, and it has been established that their insanity is due to army service," Mr. Littlefield declares. "Yet the government refuses them the financial relief to which they are entitled under the war risk insurance act and they have not drawn a cent from their policies. Two must remain confined in the state asylum unless they can collect the $7.50 a month for 20 years on their policies. This amount would enable them to be released from the asylum and allow their families to care for them."

PROHIBITION IS REALLY ENFORCED.

By JOHN GAUDENZ, (United Press Staff Correspondent.) MOSCOW. (By Mail)—Soviet Russia has at last solved the question of prohibition. Only those who know what the vodka meant to the Russian population can imagine what the apparent complete prohibition means. While formerly, especially on Sundays and holidays, afternoon, all Moscow was virtually tottering on its feet as a result of unlimited consumption of vodka or similar beverages, there was not a single individual seen by me during my whole stay in Moscow and other cities who looked as if he had taken a drink for years. They say that some wealthy—there still are such individuals in Russia—merchants occasionally have a quiet sip in the depth of their cellars. Some people declare that the peasants are making some sort of vodka for their own

White Man Runs Amuck In Chicago

(By United Press.) CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—It is feared that the race wars of a year ago are impending as a result of a moon-shine-crazed man running amuck in the negro quarter today, armed with a long butcher knife, killing two and wounding a third.

The police rushed reserve to the district to quell any rioting. The murderer was not captured.

Name Field After Former Resident

CORVALLIS, Oct. 21.—The O. A. C. football field is now known as the "Bell" field.

The field was named for Dr. J. R. N. Bell of Corvallis who has been a friend of the college for many years and a former resident of Roseburg. He has always been a loyal O. A. C. roofer and established the tradition of throwing his hat into the Willamette river every time the Aggies won from the University of Oregon in their annual football game.

Dr. Bell came to Roseburg as a South Methodist minister but afterwards became a minister of the Presbyterian church and preached in the Presbyterian church at Corvallis eight years. While he lived in Roseburg he edited the Roseburg Review and instituted the present chapter of the Eastern Star.

Mrs. George Kohlhaagen (Marietta Howell), Frank Howell, and Free Johnson are charter members of the Roseburg chapter. Mrs. Kohlhaagen and Miss Howell are the only past Worthy Matrons who are charter members.

Dr. Bell has been confined to his bed for a year except for a brief period last summer when he went to Grand Lodge in Portland. He has held the office of Grand Chaplain for forty-four years.
